Noir Affect Christopher Breu,Elizabeth A. Hatmaker,2020-06-02 Noir Affect proposes a new understanding of noir as defined by negative affect This new understanding emphasizes that noir is first and foremost an affective disposition rather than a specific cycle of films or novels associated with a given time period or national tradition Instead the essays in Noir Affect trace noir s negativity as it manifests in different national contexts from the United States to Mexico France and Japan and in a range of different media including films novels video games and manga The forms of affect associated with noir are resolutely negative These are narratives centered on loss sadness rage shame guilt regret anxiety humiliation resentment resistance and refusal Moreover noir often asks us to identify with those on the losing end of cultural narratives especially the criminal the lost the compromised the haunted the unlucky the cast aside and the erotically perverse including those whose greatest erotic attachment is to death Drawing on contemporary work in affect theory while also re orienting some of its core assumptions to address the resolutely negative affects narrated by noir Noir Affect is invested in thinking through the material bodily social and political economic impact of the various forms noir affect takes If much affect theory asks us to consider affect as a space of possibility and becoming Noir Affect asks us to consider affect as also a site of repetition dissolution redundancy unmaking and decay It also asks us to consider the way in which the affective dimensions of noir enable the staging of various forms of social antagonism including those associated with racial gendered sexual and economic inequality Featuring an Afterword by the celebrated noir scholar Paula Rabinowitz and essays by an array of leading scholars Noir Affect aims to fundamentally re orient our understanding of noir Contributors Alexander Dunst Sean Grattan Peter Hitchcock Justus Nieland Andrew Pepper Ignacio S nchez Prado Brian Rejack Pamela Thoma Kirin Wachter Grene

Adorno, 2019-10-01 Notes to Literature is a collection of the great social theorist Theodor W Adorno's essays on such writers as Mann Bloch H Iderlin Siegfried Kracauer Goethe Benjamin and Stefan George It also includes his reflections on a variety of subjects such as literary titles the physical qualities of books political commitment in literature the light hearted and the serious in art and the use of foreign words in writing This edition presents this classic work in full in a single volume with a new introduction by Paul Kottman Story of My People Edoardo Nesi, 2013-05-07 Winner of the 2011 Strega Prize this blend of essay social criticism and memoir is a striking portrait of the effects of globalization on Italy's declining economy Starting from his family's textile factory in Prato Tuscany Edoardo Nesi examines the recent shifts in Italy's manufacturing industry Only one generation ago Prato was a thriving industrial center that prided itself on craftsmanship and quality But during the last decade cheaply made goods produced overseas or in Italy by poorly paid immigrants saturated the market making it impossible for Italian companies to keep up In 2004 his family was forced to sell the textile factory How this could have happened Nesi asks and what are the wider repercussions of losing businesses like his family's especially for Italian culture Story of My People is a denouncement of big business corrupt politicians the arrogance of economists and cheap manufacturing It's a must read for anyone seeking insight into the financial crisis that's striking Europe today The Blue Period Jesse McCarthy, 2024-04-25 Addresses the political and aesthetic evolution of African American literature and its authors during the Cold War an era McCarthy calls the Blue Period In the years after World War II to be a black writer was to face a stark predicament The contest between the Soviet Union and the United States was a global one an ideological battle that dominated almost every aspect of the cultural agenda On the one hand was the Soviet Union espousing revolutionary communism that promised egalitarianism while being hostile to conceptions of personal freedom On the other hand was the United States a country steeped in racial prejudice and the policies of Jim Crow Black writers of this time were equally alienated from the left and the right Jesse McCarthy argues and they channeled that alienation into remarkable experiments in literary form Embracing racial affect and interiority they forged an aesthetic resistance premised on fierce dissent from both US racial liberalism and Soviet communism From the end of World War II to the rise of the Black Power movement in the 1960s authors such as Richard Wright James Baldwin Gwendolyn Brooks and Paule Marshall defined a distinctive moment in American literary culture that McCarthy terms the Blue Period In McCarthy s hands this notion of the Blue Period provides a fresh critical framework that challenges long held disciplinary and archival assumptions Black writers in the early Cold War went underground McCarthy argues not to depoliticize or liberalize their work but to make it more radical keeping alive affective commitments for a future time Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,2003
