Saving Mandela's Children Dianne Lang, 2007 This book is a passionate cry from the heart From the heart of someone who has given almost everything she has to the cause of justice and happiness for heavily abused children and for HIV AIDS sufferers and from the heart of the real here and now South Africa no pretence no frills exactly as it is with supporting evidence The people are all real people with their real names the incompetence the neglect of duty the corruption the malevolence the despair and the goodness the tenderness the devotion to a cause the trust and the joy are all real Writing the book has been an extremely draining and highly emotional experience and this inevitably shows through in much of the text But it had to be written because the terrible failings of the system have to be exposed because the author needed the catharsis and above all because the lives and deaths of these deeply hurt but irresistible children needed to be recorded and remembered Here there is little for your comfort and much cause for the beloved country to cry New Radiant Readers , Becoming Catawba Brooke M. Bauer,2022-11-15 Becoming Catawba examines the lives and legacies of women who executed complex decision making and diplomacy to navigate shifting frameworks of kinship land ownership and cultural production in dealings with colonial encroachments white settlers and Euro American legal systems and governments from the mid sixteenth century to the early nineteenth century Personified in the figure of Sally New River a Catawba leader to whom 500 remaining acres of occupied tribal lands were deeded on behalf of the community in 1796 and which she managed until her death in 1821 Bauer reveals how women worked to ensure the survival of the Catawba people and their Catawba identity an effort that resulted in a unified nation Bauer s approach is primarily ethnohistorical although it draws on a number of interdisciplinary strategies Fitness, Memberships and Money Ron Thatcher,2004 Fitness Memberships and Money is a system that was created to help the sales professionals in the health club industry improve their ability to recruit and sell new members This book was written in a basic form from information that has been tried tested and enhanced Many books have been written on sales and management of fitness centers that incorporated selling theories that have never been tested in the real world This book gives it to you straight with the real techniques used by the best closers and prospectors in the industry These proven tactics built the largest health club chains in the world today The scripts practicing methods closing techniques prospecting will lead you down the path of success Pure Luck Kathryn B.
