First Things ,1998-06 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-06 Eugene O'Neill in China Haiping Liu, Lowell Swortzell, 1992-03-23 The year 1988 was notable for being the centennial of playwright Eugene O'Neill's birth and a time of unprecedented democratization in the People's Republic of China and rapprochement with the West In this optimal climate a remarkable festival and conference devoted to O'Neill was held in Nanjing China orchestrated mainly by Haiping Liu who secured the funds and cooperation necessary to lure noted O'Neill scholars and theatre artists from around the world Liu selected and edited papers for publication after the conference but he realized that this would be a difficult task conducted from China At his invitation Lowell Swortzell a conference participant became co editor and in the dark days following the political upheaval in China in 1989 Swortzell assumed much of the burden of editing organizing clearing rights and generally readying the final volume The essays included capture the intellectual and artistic stimulation of the conference Organized in divisions similar to the order in which the papers were delivered they explore the major areas of O'Neill scholarship by some of the most renowned scholars from the United States Western and Eastern Europe Japan and China They emphasize O'Neill's international reputation and productions particularly in Asia Included is an open forum discussion of the festival productions as well as photographs The circumstances of the festival and conference are a story unto themselves and in their individual introductions the co editors relate some of the background and convey some of the flavor of the events providing insights into the continued appeal of O'Neill in China and the world The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2001 Current Literature ,1890 Current Opinion Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Frank Crane, 1890 Biography Index Bea Joseph, 1946 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines The Mind of the Master Class Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Eugene D. Genovese, 2005-10-17 The Mind of the Master Class tells of America's greatest historical tragedy It presents the slaveholders as men and women a great many of whom were intelligent honorable and pious It asks how people who were admirable in so many ways could have presided over a social system that proved itself an enormity and inflicted horrors on their slaves The South had formidable proslavery intellectuals who participated fully in transatlantic debates and boldly challenged an ascendant capitalist free labor society Blending classical and Christian traditions they forged a moral and political philosophy designed to sustain conservative principles in history political economy social theory and theology while translating them into political action Even those who judge their way of life most harshly have much to learn from their probing moral and political reflections on their times and ours beginning with the virtues and failings of their own society and culture The Churchman ,1914 Readings in Christian Ethics J.
