

Proposal by Juliet Kiarho (Senior Lecturer/Past-Graduate Adviser, PER)

Item Proposed:

SPS Graduate School Outstanding Mentor Award

Purpose: to recognise and encourage outstanding mentoring of doctoral students; to demonstrate the SPS Graduate School's commitment to excellent doctoral education; to support SPS academic staff in career development

Eligibility: recipients must be current academic staff members in the School for Social and Political Science; individuals who receive the award may not be nominated for 3 subsequent years

Nomination Procedure: nominations accepted each year by on course doctoral researchers or PhDs who have obtained their degree in the past year (see draft/sample call for nominations below); the award recipient will be selected by the PG Advisor Sub-Committee, as appointed by the Director of the Graduate School

Criteria: The Selection Committee will consider the following: the enhancement of skills pertinent to doctoral research; amplification of your doctoral students' knowledge and skill base; assistance necessary to facilitate doctoral researchers' participation in professional gatherings; guidance in acquiring necessary collaborative techniques; advice about choices important to your professional future; aid in entering significant networks of professionals related to doctoral students' interests; assistance in understanding how best to utilize the many offerings of the university environment; other activities which enhanced doctoral education. Note: students are able to nominate academic staff other than their supervisors.

Timing: Annual; nominations solicited each spring term, the award recipient will be announced by the beginning of the autumn term compilation has been carefully selected from different years to cover a wide range of topics within the ECO 02 syllabus. The problems presented range from fundamental accounting tasks to more complex scenarios that test a student's ability to prepare, analyze and interpret financial statements. By attempting these unsolved papers, students will not only reinforce their theoretical knowledge but also gain practical experience in addressing real-world accounting challenges. In addition to serving as an academic resource, this book is also intended to instill confidence in students as they prepare for their examinations. The exposure to diverse problems will familiarize students with the types of questions that are likely to appear in exams, enabling them to approach their studies with a strategic mindset. This book encourages a deeper exploration of the subject, prompting students to engage with the material beyond the standard textbook content and to think critically about accounting practices. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the students and educators who have contributed to the creation of this book. Their insights and feedback have been instrumental in ensuring that this compilation meets the highest standards of academic excellence. As you embark on your journey through the field of accountancy, we hope that this book will serve as a dependable companion in your studies, helping you to unlock your full potential in the world of business and finance.

Tax Evasion and the Law Sam Bourton, 2024-06-18. This book provides a critical and contemporary evaluation of the laws and enforcement policies pertaining to tax evasion in the United Kingdom (UK) and United States (US). Since the inception of tax revenue collection, authorities around the world have attempted to address the seemingly perennial problem of individuals evading their tax liabilities. The financial crisis has shone a new light on the issue, with an increased interest in using the criminal justice system as a means of addressing it in the UK. In sharp contrast to the UK, the US has a strong record of prosecuting crimes of tax evasion, whether committed by individuals or professional corporate facilitators. Providing an evaluation of the UK's tax evasion laws and enforcement policy through a comparative approach, this work highlights insights provided by the US experience. In so doing, the book explores the interconnections between tax evasion and money laundering identifying best practices omissions and areas for reform The work will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of financial crime financial law accountancy and criminal justice
