Dennis,1999-10 Moving backward in time Dorris s critically acclaimed debut novel is a lyrical saga of three generations of Native American women beset by hardship and torn by angry secrets Learning with Literature in the Canadian Elementary Classroom Joyce Bainbridge,Sylvia Joyce Pantaleo,1999-11 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 k p e i t Teaching Literature to Adolescents Alan B. Howes,1972 Adolescents in the Search for Meaning Mary L. Warner,2006-03-03 As is painfully evident from the reports of school shootings gang violence dysfunctional family life and from statistics on adolescent suicide many teens live troubled lives Even those who live a normal life still face the challenges adults face but teens are also engaged in establishing independence and finding their identity However few adolescents have the same resources as adults for surviving life challenges Building from the idea that story is a powerful source of meaning particularly those stories that resonate with our own lives this book suggests that the stories of other young adults offer a resource yet to be fully tapped Adolescents in the Search for Meaning begins from the perspective of young adults by sharing the results of a survey of over 1400 teens and also includes the insights of authors of Young Adult Literature The book presents over 120 novels that teens have identified as meaningful as well as books recommended by YA authors and experts in the field of YA literature For any teacher librarian parent or counselor wanting to reach young adults this book is ideal Reconceptualizing Early Career Teacher Mentoring as Reggio-Inspired Christina Hanawalt,Brooke Hofsess,2023-04-20 Reconceptualizing Early Career Teacher Mentoring as Reggio Inspired presents an innovative approach to early career art teacher mentoring informed by both the philosophy of Reggio Emilia and an ontology of immanence while simultaneously illuminating the experiences of the teacher participants as co inquirers within the contemporary milieu of public education in the United States Readers are invited to travel with a group of teacher educators and early career PK 12 art teachers across a four year journey to experience the evolving nature of a collaborative inquiry through mentoring as research the Teacher Inquiry Group TIG The authors share significant insights regarding what it means to be an early career art teacher especially in an educational climate steeped in neoliberal agendas standardization and accountability and make potent suggestions for re visioning entrenched approaches to mentoring and professional learning that better account for the inherent complexities of teaching in schools Advocating for more complex understandings regarding teacher subjectivity and the contextual forces at work in schools the authors provoke an expanded vision of how mentoring can be imagined practiced and lived in current educational contexts The authors employ key orientations grounded in the Reggio Emilia philosophy to reimagine an under researched and undertheorized area of study in art education early career teacher mentoring that has implications for teachers at all levels and across all disciplines This volume is essential reading for scholars and professionals across the fields of art education teacher preparation teacher education and mentoring It will appeal to educational researchers K 12 practitioners teacher educators and administrators working with new teachers as well as those interested in mentoring Reggio Emilia professional learning and development art and aesthetic education and emergent process oriented research methodologies Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Susan Hynds, Jeffrey Wilhelm, 2013-08-21 This text for pre service and in service English education courses presents current methods of teaching literature to middle and high school students The methods are based on social constructivist socio cultural theories of literacy learning and incorporate research on literary response conducted by the authors Teaching Literature to Adolescents a totally new text that draws on ideas from the best selling textbook Teaching Literature in the Secondary School by Beach and Marshall reflects and builds on recent key developments in theory and practice in the field including the importance of providing students with a range of critical lenses for analyzing texts and interrogating the beliefs attitudes and ideological perspectives encountered in literature organization of the literature curriculum around topics themes or issues infusion of multicultural literature and emphasis on how writers portray race class and gender differences use of drama as a tool for enhancing understanding of texts employment of a range of different ways to write about literature integration of critical analysis of film and media texts with the study of literature blending of quality young adult literature into the curriculum and attention to students who have difficulty succeeding in literature classes due to reading difficulties disparities between school and home cultures attitudes toward school English or lack of engagement with assigned texts or response activities The interactive Web site contains recommended readings resources and activities links to Web sites and PowerPoint presentations and opportunities for readers to contribute teaching units to the Web site databases Instructors and students in middle and high school English methods courses will appreciate the clear engaging useful integration of theory methods and pedagogical features offered in this text Acts of Resistance Jeanne Dyches, Brandon Sams, Ashley S.
