Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. Best Women's Travel Writing 2009 Lucy McCauley, 2011-01-11 Since the publication of A Woman's World in 1995, Travelers' Tales has been publishing award-winning books by and for women. We continue this tradition with The Best Women's Travel Writing 2009, the fifth collection in our annual series guaranteed to inspire women to take their first trip or to continue exploring the world with wit, soul, and verve as so many adventurous women do each and every day. This best-selling award-winning series presents the finest accounts of women who have traveled to the ends of the earth to discover new places, peoples, and themselves. The common threads connecting the stories are a woman's perspective and lively storytelling to make the reader laugh, cry, wish she were there, or be glad she wasn't. From breaking the gender barrier on a soccer field in Kenya to learning the art of French cooking in a damp cellar in the Loire Valley to hitchhiking through Mexico in the 1960s, the points of view and perspectives are global, and the themes eclectic, including stories that encompass spiritual growth, hilarity, and misadventure, high adventure, romance, solo journeys, stories of service to humanity, family travel, and encounters with exotic cuisine. In The Best Women's Travel Writing 2009: In Kenya, an American woman breaks the gender barrier on the soccer field. In the damp cellar of a Loire Valley chateau, an American learns French and the art of creative cooking. In Newfoundland, a kayaker gets up close and personal with icebergs and whales. An intrepid traveler canoes down the Amazon at night. A 40-something motorbike rider braves a 1,550-mile race through China. In the Bahaman resort Atlantis, three sisters become seduced by the hyperreal and remember the art of play and much more. Vagabonding Rolf Potts, 2002-12-24 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER With a new foreword by Tim Ferriss, Vagabonding easily remains in my top 10 list of life-changing books. Why? Because one incredible trip, especially a long-term trip, can change your life forever. And Vagabonding teaches you how to travel and think not just for one trip but for the rest of your life. Tim Ferriss from the foreword: There's nothing like vagabonding: taking time off from your normal life, from six weeks to four months to two years, to discover and experience the world on your own terms. In this one-of-a-kind handbook, veteran travel writer Rolf Potts explains how anyone armed with an independent spirit can achieve the dream of extended overseas travel Now completely revised and updated Vagabonding is an accessible and inspiring guide to financing your travel time determining your destination adjusting to life on the road working and volunteering overseas handling travel adversity re assimilating back into ordinary life Updated for our ever changing world Vagabonding is an indispensable guide for the modern traveler Travel Tales Manny Hillman,2000-08-29 Here are eleven stories about the variety of people one might encounter during travel The author confesses that he has met many of these characters during his own travels The situations in the stories are sometimes similar to what actually occurred but mostly they are invented combinations or merely total inventions A Danish woman travels across the whole Aegean Sea to search for her lover on an island in the Cyclades A photographer of flowers finds a unique inn The beach at the inn is so beautiful and so isolated that the name of the country must be kept secret The photographer is fascinated by the other five guests at the inn who are all half his age but mostly by the young and beautiful manager Two brothers driving across the remote central part of Iceland meet a travel writer an adventurer and hear him tell of one of his most fearful adventures A young couple vacationing in Egypt hit on a way of translating the hieroglyphs on a wall that no one has ever managed to do before An elderly man living in Irkutsk Russia stops two tourists from the U S and asks them to send him a special gift as a favor He in turn will send the woman two rings made of a special stone A young American soldier from Vermont on a train in France traveling home after World War I meets a young woman on her way home from Rhodesia about to be married in England A man is on a fantastic journey but where he was and what he really did see is a mystery for the reader to solve A middle aged man and his much younger bride who loves to tell stories that she probably creates on the spot are visiting the island of Samos He is having a hard time keeping up with her vigorous pace but the reward of his efforts will be more stories for his wife to tell A journalist wants to interview a wealthy and very generous contessa His search for her takes him to several unusual places I the author do not know if the journalist will ever write an article about her A young American woman a secretary temporarily gives up her job in order to assay a life as a chef on a small yacht in the Caribbean An anxious Hungarian couple is on the way home from their first vacation outside of Hungary The travel restrictions for Hungarians are just beginning to change Before each story is a one page vignette telling of the authors experiences at various border crossings They start with Some borders are easy to cross like the time we drove right through one without even noticing until we were some miles past and end with How should one be greeted on first entering Greece By bolts of lightning thrown by Zeus himself A Kaleidoscope of Malaysian Indian Women's Lived Experiences Premalatha Karupiah,Jacqueline Liza Fernandez,2022-10-22 This book presents a compilation of chapters relating to the socio cultural experiences of Malaysian Indian women It includes a historical background covering Indian women s migration to Malaya and explores the lived realities of contemporary Indian women who are members of this minority ethnic group in the country The authors cover a wide range of issues such as gender inequality poverty the involvement of women in performing arts work inter personal relationships and well being and happiness drawing on substantial empirical data through a gendered lens This book addresses the gap in the intersectional gender studies literature on minority groups of women in Malaysia while simultaneously highlighting the multiple forms of subordination minority women particularly Indian women experience in society including those that arise from gender ethnic intersectionality In examining the case of Indian women in Malaysia it also speaks to and enriches existing literature on the lives of minority groups of women in the Global South more broadly This anthology is beneficial to researchers and students in the social sciences particularly in disciplines related to gender studies and minority studies In addition it is also useful for policy makers and social activists working with minority women in the Global South
