Adventures in Shondaland Rachel Alicia Griffin, Michaela D.E. Meyer, 2018-09-10 Shonda Rhimes is one of the most powerful players in contemporary American network television Adventures in Shondaland critically explores Shonda Rhimes's meteoric rise to stardom her reign or cultural appointment as television's diversity queen and Shondaland's almost universally lauded melodramatic narratives

Women and Migration Deborah Willis, Ellyn Toscano, Kalia Brooks Nelson, 2019-03-08 The essays in this book chart how women's profound and turbulent experiences of migration have been articulated in writing photography art and film As a whole the volume gives an impression of a wide range of migratory events from women's perspectives covering the Caribbean Diaspora refugees and slavery through the various lenses of politics and war love and family The contributors which include academics and artists offer both personal and critical points of view on the artistic and historical repositories of these experiences Selfies motherhood violence and Hollywood all feature in this substantial treasure trove of women's joy and suffering disaster and delight place memory and identity This collection appeals to artists and scholars of the humanities particularly within the social sciences though there is much to recommend it to creatives seeking inspiration or counsel on the issue of migratory experiences

English in Primary Education Summer, Theresa, Böttger, Heiner, 2023-03-27 This volume focuses on the teaching of English as a foreign language to young learners at primary school The volume features an introduction that covers essentials of teaching English to young learners from a theoretical empirical and neuroscientific perspective while also discussing the notion of a principled mindset competence development transcultural learning the use of materials and literature and lesson planning The subsequent contributions cover reading and writing bilingual programs the transition from primary to secondary school storybooks the importance of self-selected fiction anti-bias education ways of encouraging young learners to speak and professional advice for primary English language educators based on a qualitative analysis of interviews Based on an international TEFL lecture series researchers teacher educators and practising teachers from Germany Switzerland and the United States share their insights into these central issues and offer theoretical concepts for the professional development of pre-service primary school English teachers Practical ideas and examples included in this volume aim to make theoretical constructs accessible and relatable for future teachers of English The afterword features a look ahead by critically examining future challenges of primary school educators and highlighting 1 the great importance of an early start with English as a foreign language and 2 the need for developing national educational standards This volume provides a research-based and practice-oriented foundation for pre-service English teachers wishing to expand their knowledge and gain an insight into recent developments in foreign language learning theories and concepts Although mostly aimed at primary school educators particularly the introductory chapter will be equally relevant for university students or teachers focusing on vocational and secondary school teaching so that they develop an understanding of specific features of primary English language education and as concerns secondary school teachers can contribute to a smooth transition in the fifth grade Yo' Mama, Mary Mack, and Boudreaux and Thibodeaux Jeanne Pitre Soileau, 2016-12-14 Winner of the 2018 Chicago Folklore Prize and Winner of the 2018 Opie Prize Jeanne Soileau a teacher in New Orleans and south Louisiana for more than forty years examines how children's folklore especially among African Americans has changed From the tumult of integration to the present her experience afforded unique opportunities to observe children as they played With integration in New Orleans during the 1960s Soileau notes how children began to play with one another almost immediately Children taught each other play routines chants jokes jump rope rhymes cheers taunts and teases all the folk games that happen in normal play on the street and playground When adults the judges and attorneys the parents and the politicians haggled and shouted children began to hold hands in a circle fall down together to Ring around the Rosie and tease each other in new and creative ways Children's ability to adapt can be seen not only in their response to social change but in how they adopt and utilize pop culture and technology Vast technological changes in the last third of the twentieth century influenced the way children sang danced played and interacted Soileau catalogs these changes and studies how games evolve and transform as much as they are preserved She includes several topics of study oral narratives and songs jokes and tales and teasing formulae gleaned from mostly African American sources Because much of the field work took place on public school playgrounds this body of oral narratives remains of particular interest to teachers folklorists linguists and those who study play In the end Soileau shows that despite the restrictions of air conditioning shorter recess periods ever increasing hours of television watching the growing popularity of video games and carefully scripted after school activities many children in south Louisiana sustain traditional games At the same time they invent varied and clever new ones As Soileau observes children strive through their folk play to learn how to fit into a rapidly changing society REJECTED: How the Media Excluded Alternative Candidates in the 2008

Primary Michael Soha, 2008-09-15 In the 2008 Presidential primary three largely unknown candidates emerged to challenge the status quo and call for major reform in Washington Dennis Kucinich and Mike Gravel on the Democratic side and Ron Paul on the Republican side This book focuses on their experience in trying to run for president against a political media institution that neither valued nor wanted their presence Using their experience as a case study the power and influence of our media in shaping what choices we face on election day is examined As a critique this text stands to indict the mainstream press for failing to provide a diverse group of candidates and in turn severely truncating our democratic process
