Taste This, Taste That Jim Heaney, 2005-11 Jim Heaney was born an Irish Catholic alcoholic He remains one today However he has been sober for the past 21 years No one has yet found a cure for the Irish Catholicism This story begins in a tiny house in Jacksonville Florida and ends in a slightly larger one in Columbia South Carolina Residences in central Florida Indiana Liberia Georgia Pennsylvania England Zaire now Congo and Kansas follow in that order Much of Dr Heaney s life involved battles His most difficult ones were within himself He struggled with low self esteem academics addiction religion and infidelity Several of these skirmishes are ongoing In his youth he learned to his disdain that dilettante referred to someone who dabbled in the arts and academics Someone who knew a little about a lot During his twilight years Jim came to realize that he was that dilettante for whom he d had low regard Yet age had allowed him to accept that dabbler and hence himself The older he became the more he realized the less he knew

Reflective Teaching Kenneth M. Zeichner, Daniel P. Liston, 2013-05-13 This volume outlines the assumptions and beliefs that distinguish the concept of the reflective teacher from the view of the teacher as passive and a mere technician a view that teacher education programs and schools have historically promoted The authors demonstrate how various conceptions of reflective teaching differ from one another They believe that it is only through teachers reflections on their own teaching that they become more skilled more capable and in general better teachers This is the first volume in the Reflective Teaching and the Social Conditions of Schooling series The major goal of both this book and of all of the volumes to follow in this series is to help teachers explore and define their own positions with regard to the topics and issues at hand within the context of the aims of education in a democratic society
