VERSE

I've cussed on a Sunday... I've cheated and I've lied
I've fallen down from grace... a few too many times
But I find holy redemption... when I put this car in drive
Roll the windows down and... turn up the dial

CHORUS

Can I get a hal-----lulujah..... can I get an amen
Feels like the Holy Ghost running through you
When I play the Highway FM
I find my soul revival... singin' every single verse
Yeah... I-- guess-- that's-- my----- church

When [G] Hank brings the sermon... [C] and Cash leads the [G] choir
It [G] gets my cold, cold heart burnin'... [D7] hotter than a ring of fire
When this [G] wonderful world gets heavy...
And I [C] need to find my [Em] escape... [Em]...
I just [G] keep the wheels rolling, [D7] radio scrolling
[C] until my sins wash [G] away, yeah

Can I get a [G] hallelujah... [C] can I get an [G] amen
Feels like the [G] Holy Ghost running through you
When I [D7] play the Highway FM
I [G] find my soul revival... [C] singin' every single [Em] verse
[C] Yeah... I-- [G] guess-- that's-- [D7] my----- [G] church

INSTRUMENTAL

Black Hymnody Jon Michael Spencer, 1992 To Do This, You Must Know How Lynn Abbott, Doug Seroff, 2013-02-01 To Do This You Must Know How traces black vocal music instruction and inspiration from the halls of Fisk University to the mining camps of Birmingham and Bessemer Alabama and on to Chicago and New Orleans In the 1870s the Original Fisk University Jubilee Singers successfully combined Negro spirituals with formal choral music disciplines and established a permanent bond between spiritual singing and music education Early in the twentieth century there were countless initiatives in support of black vocal music training conducted on both national and local levels The surge in black religious quartet singing that occurred in the 1920s owed much to this vocal music education movement In Bessemer Alabama the effect of school music instruction was magnified by the emergence of community based quartet trainers who translated the spirit and substance of the music education movement for the inhabitants of working class neighborhoods These trainers adapted standard musical precepts traditional folk practices and popular music conventions to create something new and vital Bessemer's musical values directly influenced the early development of gospel quartet singing in Chicago and New Orleans through the authority of emigrant trainers whose efforts bear witness to the effectiveness of trickle down black music education A cappella gospel quartets remained prominent well into the 1950s but by the end of the century the close harmony aesthetic had fallen out of practice and the community based trainers who were its champions had virtually disappeared foreshadowing the end of this remarkable musical tradition The New Blue Music Richard J.

Pitts,1996-10-24 This book retraces the African origins of African American forms of worship During a five year period in the field Pitts played the piano at and recorded numerous worship services in black Baptist churches throughout rural Texas His historical comparisons and linguistic analyses of this material uncover striking parallels between Afro Baptist services and

Don't Let It Get You Down Savala Nolan,2022-07-19 An incisive and vulnerable yet powerful and provocative collection of essays Savala offers poignant reflections on living between society s most charged politicized and intractably polar spaces between black and white between rich and poor between thin and fat as a woman The daughter of an Afro Latinx father and a white mother Savala s light complexion has always contrast her kinky hair and broad nose to embody what old folks used to call a whole lot of yellow wasted With her mother s beckoning she began her first diet at the age of three and has been nearly skeletal and truly fat multiple times She has lived in poverty and had an elite education with regular access to wealth and privilege She has been in the in between It is these liminal spaces the living in the in between of race class and body type that gives the essays in Nearly Not Quite their strikingly clear and refreshing point of view on the defining tension points in our culture Each of the twelve essays that comprises this collection are rife with unforgettable and insightful anecdotes and are as humorous and as full of Savala s appetites as they are of anxieties The result is a lyrical and magnetic read In On Dating White Guys While Me Savala realizes her early romantic pursuits of rich preppy white guys wasn t about preference but about self erasure In Don t Let it Get You Down we traverse the beauty and pain of being Black in America as men of color face police brutality and large Black females are ignored in hospital waiting rooms Savala offers an angle to inequities that is as deft as it is lyrical In Bad Education we mine how women learn to internalize violence and rage in hopes of truly having power And in To Wit and Also we meet Filliss Peggy and Grace the enslaved women owned by her ancestors reckoning with how America s original sin lives intimately within our stories Over and over again Savala reminds readers that our true identities are often most authentically lived not in the black and white in the grey in the in between
