National Pasts in Europe and East Asia Peter W. Preston, 2012-07-26 With the rise of industrial capitalism in Europe and the related imposition of colonial rule in much of East Asia both Europe and East Asia have intertwined histories that continue to shape their political thinking and political decision making The contemporary interactions of the two regions now once again major trading partners will both depend upon and facilitate deeper understandings of their respective sets of national pasts This book compares national pasts as well as the current processes of change taking place in Europe and East Asia including the dynamics of the European Union in Europe and the re emergence of the historical centre of China in East Asia It argues that as the change unfolds in the economic social and political fields the various national pasts embedded with the politics of the two regions will also need to be revisited and reworked This book makes an invaluable contribution to research on comparative politics as well as studies on South East Asia and Europe
