The Palgrave Handbook of Media and Communication Research in Africa Bruce Mutsvairo, 2018-03-22 This handbook attempts to fill the gap in empirical scholarship of media and communication research in Africa from an Africanist perspective The collection draws on expert knowledge of key media and communication scholars in Africa and the diaspora offering a counter narrative to existing Western and Eurocentric discourses of knowledge production As the decolonial turn takes centre stage across Africa this collection further rethinks media and communication research in a post colonial setting and provides empirical evidence as to why some of the methods conceptualised in Europe will not work in Africa The result is a thorough appraisal of the current threats challenges and opportunities facing the discipline on the continent

Environment, Power, and Justice Graeme Wynn, Jane Carruthers, Nancy J. Jacobs, 2022-07-26 Spanning the colonial postcolonial and postapartheid eras these historical and locally specific case studies analyze and engage vernacular activist and scholarly efforts to mitigate social environmental inequity This book highlights the ways poor and vulnerable people in South Africa Lesotho and Zimbabwe have mobilized against the structural and political forces that deny them a healthy and sustainable environment Spanning the colonial postcolonial and postapartheid eras these studies engage vernacular activist and scholarly efforts to mitigate social environmental inequity Some chapters track the genealogies of contemporary activism while others introduce positions actors and thinkers not previously identified with environmental justice Addressing health economic opportunity agricultural policy and food security the chapters in this book explore a range of issues and ways of thinking about harm to people and their ecologies Because environmental justice is often understood as a contemporary phenomenon framed around North American examples these fresh case studies will enrich both southern African history and global environmental studies Environment Power and Justice expands conceptions of environmental justice and reveals discourses and dynamics that advance both scholarship and social change Contributors Christopher Konz Marc Epprecht Mary Galvin Sarah Ives Admire Mseba Muchaparara Musemwa Matthew A Schnurr Cherryl Walker Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities Claire Bénit-Gbaffou , 2024-02-27 Why are even progressive local authorities with the will to improve seldom able to change cities Why does it seem almost impossible to redress spatial inequalities deliver and maintain basic services elevate impoverished areas and protect the marginalised communities Why do municipalities in the Global South refuse to work with prevailing social informalities and resort instead to interventions that are known to displace and aggravate the very issues they aim to address Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities analyses these challenges in South African cities where the brief post apartheid moment opened a window for progressive city government and made research into state practices both possible and necessary In debate with other progressive moments in large cities in Brazil the USA and India the book interrogates City officials practices It considers the instruments they invent and negotiate to implement urban policies the agency they develop and the constraints they navigate in governing unequal cities This focus on actual officials practices is captured through first hand experience state ethnographies and engaged research These reveal day to day practice that question generalised explanations of state failure in complex urban societies as essential malevolence contextual weakness corruption and inefficiency It is hoped that opening the black box of the workings of state opens paths for the construction of progressive policies in contemporary cities Girmitiyas and the Global Indian Diaspora Ashutosh Kumar,Crispin Bates,2024-05-31 Many Indians journeyed out of India to supplant the loss of slave labour in the former European plantation colonies of Mauritius South Africa Fiji and the Caribbean from the early nineteenth century onwards This book aims to highlight the careers of these migrants who served as vital agents in building the global society of the twenty first century It explores the transformative experiences of those who migrated and the memories of those who did not return after expiration of their contracts but chose instead to stay in their respective host countries It describes the many challenges they faced ageing in a society far from home the loss of their formal Indian identity after Indian independence their efforts to preserve a sense of community in the post independence societies of South Africa and the Caribbean and their adapting to the new political and social realities they faced as minorities in the countries in which their ancestors had adventurously determined to settle and live The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society Cardoso Espinosa, Edgar Oliver,2019-06-28 The knowledge society arises from the combination of four interdependent elements the production of knowledge through research its transmission through education its dissemination through information and communication technologies and its exploitation through innovation For this reason higher education institutions HEIs are the main component of the formation of intellectual capital because they are the key element of the knowledge society so it is necessary that they continue to be the main source of the necessary skills that allow the increase of economic competitiveness sustainability and citizen welfare within the framework of quality education and equity The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society is an essential research publication that provides systemic research on the formation of intellectual capital in higher education and its impact on the knowledge society Highlighting topics such as educational programs management strategy and educational studies this book is meant for educators educational technologists students researchers professionals and administrators Who Is an African? Roderick R. Hewitt,Chammah J. Kaunda,2018-09-15 The subject of race and identity is a burning issue which continues to occupy the attention not only of South Africans but also the wider residents of the continent of Africa and those who are Africans in the Diaspora The outburst of xenophobic attacks against foreigners mostly of Black African origins in some communities of Kwa Zulu Natal and areas of Johannesburg during 2008 and 2015 has raised questions about the social cohesion of South African society linked to unresolved structural identity issues bequeathed by the nation s past colonial and apartheid legacy This publication argues that there is an embedded schizophrenic identity crisis within the society that requires scholarly interrogation The chapters assemble scholarly voices from different ethnic groups that examine the central research question of this study Who is an African Within the wider Southern African context identity and ethnicity politics are framing nationalist economic policies and are impacting on social cohesion within many countries Writing from different social and racial locations the authors have critically engaged with the central question and offer some important insights that can serve as a resource for all nations grappling with issues of race ethnicity identity constructed politics and social cohesion The Athlete as National Symbol Nicholas Villanueva, Jr.,2020-02-04 Examining the phenomenon of nationalism in the world of sport this collection of new essays identifies moments when athletes became national symbols through their actions on and off the field Since the break up of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and related global events of the 1980s and 1990s scholars have explored how race ethnicity gender and sexuality shape and are shaped by nationalism and national participation Topics include race golf and the struggle for social justice in South Africa sport as a battleground within the Israel Palestine conflict multiculturalism and the Olympic Games and white privilege in sport These case studies explore the strength and fragility associated with national identity and how athletes become icons for their nations Innovative Methods for Applied Drama and Theatre Practice in African Contexts Hazel Barnes,Carol Beck Carter,Warren Nebe,2022-01-27 This book based on components of Drama for Life addresses the subject of innovative methods for applied drama and theatre practice in African contexts It does so by providing chapters that share the rich multilayered and reflexive work that has taken place at Drama for Life from 2008 to the present day It invites the reader to learn from the experiences of Drama for Life as shared by the authors understand the role it has played and continues to play in advocating for and extending the work of Applied Drama and Theatre practice and engage in critical dialogical spaces to examine and interrogate current debates and practices in the field of Applied Drama and Theatre The volume is invaluable for anyone interested in the extensive body of work generated by Drama for Life and its innovative approaches to learning and teaching as well as performing arts practitioners artists teachers people in community development and service work and anyone involved in researching Applied Drama and Theatre practice particularly in an African context but also globally Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk,2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa Food Security, Agricultural Productivity, and the Environment: Economic, Sustainability, and Policy Perspectives Ranjan Kumar Ghosh,Jens Rommel,Ilona M. Otto,2022-04-26 Belonging Ashwin Desai,Goolam Vahed,2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to The End of Development Andrew Brooks,2017-05-15 Why did some countries grow rich while others remained poor Human history unfolded differently across the globe The world is separated in to places of poverty and prosperity Tracing the long arc of human history from hunter gatherer societies to the early twenty first century in an argument grounded in a deep understanding of geography Andrew Brooks rejects popular explanations for the divergence of nations This accessible and illuminating volume shows how the wealth of the West and poverty of the rest stem not from environmental factors or some unique European cultural social or technological qualities but from the expansion of colonialism and the rise of America Brooks puts the case that international inequality was moulded by capitalist development over the last 500 years After the Second World War international aid projects failed to close the gap between developed and developing nations and millions remain impoverished Rather than address the root causes of inequality overseas development assistance exacerbate the problems of an uneven world by imposing crippling debts and destructive neoliberal policies on poor countries But this flawed form of development is now coming to an end as the emerging economies of Asia and Africa begin to assert themselves on the world stage The End of Development provides a compelling account of how human history unfolded differently in varied regions of the world Brooks argues that we must now seize the opportunity afforded by today's changing economic geography to transform attitudes towards inequality and to develop radical new approaches to addressing global poverty as the alternative is to accept that impoverishment is somehow part of the natural order of things Vampire Capitalism Paul Kennedy, 2016-12-25 This book argues that in recent decades an unrestrained vampire capitalism has emerged disengaged from the needs of citizens and workers leading to a deepening of social class generational gender educational and ethnic divisions The author explores how our cultural obsession with self realization undermines our capacity for collective action and ability to confront threats such as climate change and the impact of the rapid advance of technology on labour Drawing on sociology and political economy as well as worldwide case studies the chapters interrogate how we arrived at these dilemmas and how we might escape them through establishing alternative social economies Vampire Capitalism will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology social theory globalisation studies development studies political economy geography politics and social policy Collective Creativity for Responsible and Sustainable Business Practice Fields, Ziska, 2016-11-17 Over the years irresponsible business practices have resulted in industrial waste which is negatively impacting the environment As a result it is imperative to develop new solutions to reverse the damage Collective Creativity for Responsible and Sustainable Business Practice is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the elimination of environmental degradation through new discoveries and opportunities provided by collective creativity Featuring extensive coverage across a range of relevant perspective and topics such as sustainable business model innovation social marketing and education and business co operatives this comprehensive and timely publication is an essential reference source for business leaders managers academics and community leaders seeking current research on sustainable management practices The Biopolitics of Water Sofie Hellberg, 2018-03-28 Biopolitics refers to a form of politics concerned with administering and regulating the conditions of life at an aggregated level of populations This book provides a biopolitical perspective on water governance and its effects It draws on the work of Foucault to explore how notions of scarcity are used in strategies of governance and how such governance differentiates between different populations Furthermore the author investigates what such biopolitical regulation means for people's lifestyles and the way they understand themselves and their moral responsibilities as humans individuals and citizens The book begins by investigating the global water agenda with a particular emphasis on its focus on water for basic needs and provides different examples of hydromentalities around the world It also presents rich empirical details of one local case in South Africa By carefully exploring the water stories of water users the book provides new perspectives on the relationship between water and power Additionally it offers an innovative methodological framework through which we can study the workings of governance more generally and water governance specifically It thereby contributes to the scholarship on water governance in relation to how water governance and technologies are part of producing subjectivities notions of life and lifestyles and more specifically how the global water agenda can work so as to produce or further entrench distinctions between different lives and lifestyles Ultimately such differences between individuals and populations that are produced as an effect of water governance are assessed in relation to social sustainability Offal: Rejected and Reclaimed Food Mark
