Yearbook of Statistics 2015 United Nations Publications,2019-03 This is the 41st edition of the Yearbook of Statistics The data included in the Yearbook have been collected and processed by the Telecommunication Development Bureau BDT from replies received to ITU questionnaires sent to telecommunication ministries or regulators and national statistics offices As such the ITU Yearbook of Statistics provides the most authoritative source of data about the evolution of the telecommunication sector the availability of ICTs in households and usage of ICTs by individuals Brunei Marie-Sybille de Vienne,2015-03-09 Now an energy rich sultanate for centuries a important trading port in the South China Sea Brunei has taken a different direction than its Persian Gulf peers Immigration is restricted and Brunei s hydrocarbon wealth is invested conservatively mostly outside the country Today home to some 393 000 inhabitants and comprising 5 765 square kilometers in area Brunei first appears in the historical record at the end of the 10th century After the Spanish attack of 1578 Brunei struggled to regain and expand its control on coastal West Borneo and to remain within the trading networks of the South China Sea It later fell under British sway and a residency was established in 1906 but it took the discovery of oil in Seria in 1929 before the colonial power began to establish the bases of a modern state Governed by an absolute monarchy Bruneians today nonetheless enjoy a high level of social protection and rule of law Ranking second after Singapore in Southeast Asia in terms of standards of living the sultanate is implementing an Islamic penal code for the first time of its history Focusing on Brunei s political economy history and geography this book aims to understand the forces behind Brunei s to and fro of tradition and modernisation Doing Business 2015 World Bank,2014-10-24 Twelfth in a series of annual reports comparing business regulation in 189 economies Doing Business 2015 measures regulations affecting 10 areas of everyday business activity Starting a business Dealing with construction permits Getting electricity Registering property Getting credit Protecting minority investors Paying taxes Trading across borders Enforcing contracts Resolving insolvency Labor market regulations This year s report will present data for a second city for the 11 economies with more than 100 million inhabitants These are Bangladesh Brazil China India Indonesia Japan Mexico Nigeria Pakistan the Russian Federation and the United States Three of the 10 topics covered have been expanded with further plans to expand on five additional indicators in next year's report. Additionally, the Doing Business rankings are now based on the distance to the frontier measure where each economy is evaluated based on how close their business regulations are to the best global practices. This provides a more precise view of each economy's performance and its improvement over time. The report updates all indicators as of June 1, 2014, ranks economies on their overall ease of doing business, and analyzes reforms to business regulation, identifying which economies are strengthening their business environment the most. Doing Business illustrates how reforms in business regulations are being used to analyze economic outcomes for domestic entrepreneurs and for the wider economy. It is a flagship product produced in partnership by the World Bank and IFC that garners worldwide attention on regulatory barriers to entrepreneurship. More than 60 economies have used the Doing Business indicators to shape reform agendas and monitor improvements on the ground. In addition, the Doing Business data has generated over 2,000 articles in peer-reviewed academic journals since its inception.
