

The illustration depicts two House Finches perched on a light brown, textured branch. The bird in the upper left is shown in profile, facing left, with its head slightly turned. It has a prominent reddish-brown crest, a black throat and face, and a body of warm brown. Its wings show grey and black feathers with a distinct yellow stripe. The bird in the lower right is also in profile, facing right, with similar plumage. It is perched lower on the branch, and a small cluster of red berries is visible near its feet. The background is plain white, and the overall style is a detailed acrylic painting.
