Arbi Farsi Board:

Arabic, Persian, and Turkic Poetics Hany Rashwan, 2024 Arabic Persian and Turkic Poetics Towards a Post Eurocentric Literary Theory is a pioneering book that offers a fresh perspective on Arabic Persian and Turkic literature in their interrelations. The authors challenge Eurocentric paradigms while creating a framework for exploring these traditions on their own terms. Authored by an international team of scholars, each chapter centres the literary theoretical traditions of their respective literatures with a focus on the discipline of comparative poetics ilm al bal gha in the Islamic world. By liberating the study of Islamicate literary texts from Eurocentric theoretical paradigms, the book paves the way for a more inclusive global discourse in literary studies. Specifically, our theoretical roots in comparative poetics and the rhetorical traditions of Arabic Persian and Turkic literatures will foster new methods of close reading that are in line with the aesthetic standards intrinsic to these texts and their traditions. Engaging and insightful, this book is essential reading for anyone interested in broadening their understanding of world literature and literary theory.

Iran Walid Phares, 2023-01-10 Since 1979 the Khomeinist regime has oppressed its own population while waging wars and terrorism against Arabs, Israel, Middle East minorities, and the United States. It expanded its military power across the region and created an international terror web. American policy toward Tehran since Carter culminated under Obama in offering the Islamic Republic a deal of partnership, empowering the Ayatollahs even further. The Iranian people rose several times against the regime without significant support from the US or the West. Civil societies protested strongly against Iran-backed militias in Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, and Yemen but were likewise abandoned. Instead, US administrations and Congress were enticed into accepting the regime's legitimacy despite its rogue behavior and its relentless drive to obtain nuclear weapons and develop ballistic missiles. This book tells the story of the regime from the genesis of its terror to the legitimizing of its aggressive goals. It is about how America failed to stop the threat and how Americans can finally win that challenge once and for all.

Communalism from Indian Perspective Sarajit Kumar Chatterjee, 2016-01-01 A pluralistic country like India has become the playground of communalism. In spite of its vivisection on the basis of religion in 1947, India could not rather did not insulate itself from the virus of communalism. There are many reasons for the growth and sustenance of communalism in free secular India. Perhaps our Constitution is no less responsible for this. The Framers of the Constitution might have wanted to usher in a true secular India, but their obsession with communalism stood in the way. They weighed everything from a communal angle. As a result, they incorporated several community-specific provisions which benefited particular religious communities and at the same time shied away from incorporating those provisions in the Constitution which would have put a death nail to the coffin of communalism. What is more ominous is that they never realised that their actions and non-actions would give a fresh lease of life to communalism and that there would be polarisation of the communities on the basis of religion in post-independent India as well.

Electronic Iran Niki Akhavan, 2013-12-25 Electronic Iran introduces the concept of the Iranian Internet, a framework that captures interlinked transnational networks of virtual and offline spaces Taking her cues from early Internet ethnographies that stress the importance of treating the Internet as both a site and product of cultural production accounts in media studies that highlight the continuities between old and new media and a range of works that have made critical interventions in the field of Iranian studies Niki Akhavan traces key developments and confronts conventional wisdom about digital media in general and contemporary Iranian culture and politics in particular Akhavan focuses largely on the years between 1998 and 2012 to reveal a diverse and combative virtual landscape where both geographically and ideologically dispersed individuals and groups deployed Internet technologies to variously construct defend and challenge narratives of Iranian national identity society and politics While it tempers celebratory claims that have dominated assessments of the Iranian Internet Electronic Iran is ultimately optimistic in its outlook As it exposes and assesses overlooked aspects of the Iranian Internet the book sketches a more complete map of its dynamic landscape and suggests that the transformative powers of digital media can only be developed and understood if attention is paid to both the specificities of new technologies as well as the local and transnational contexts in which they appear

Shortlisted for the 2024 British Friendship Society Book Prize A wealth of scholarship has highlighted how commercial political and religious networks expanded across the Arabian Sea during the seventeenth century as merchants from South Asia traded goods in the ports of Yemen noblemen from Safavid Iran established themselves in the courts of the Mughal Empire and scholars from across the region came together to debate the Islamic sciences in the Arabian Peninsula's holy cities of Mecca and Medina This book demonstrates that the globalising tendency of migration created worldly literary systems which linked Iran India and the Arabian Peninsula through the production and circulation of classicizing Arabic and Persian poetry By close reading over seventy unstudied manuscripts of seventeenth century Arabic and Persian poetry that have remained hidden on the shelves of libraries in India Iran Turkey and Europe the book examines how migrant poets adapted shared poetic forms imagery and rhetoric to engage with their interlocutors and create communities in the cities where they settled The book begins by reconstructing overarching patterns in the movement of over a thousand authors and the economic basis for their migration before focusing on six case studies of literary communities which each represent a different location in the circulatory system of the Arabian Sea In so doing the book demonstrates the plurality of seventeenth century aesthetic movements a diversity which later nationalisms purposefully simplified and misread
