Cultural Identity and Archaeology P. Graves-Brown,Sian Jones,C.S. Gamble,2013-04-15 Cultural identity is a key area of debate in contemporary Europe Despite widespread use of the past in the construction of ethnic national and European identity theories of cultural identity have been neglected in archaeology Focusing on the interrelationships between concepts of cultural identity today and the interpretation of past cultural groups Cultural Identity and Archaeology offers proactive archaeological perspectives in the debate surrounding European identities This fascinating and thought provoking book covers three key areas It considers how material remains are used in the interpretation of cultural identities for example pan Celtic culture and Bronze Age Europe Finally it looks at archaeological evidence for the construction of cultural identities in the European past The authors are critical of monolithic constructions of Europe and also of the ethnic and national groups within it in place of such exclusive cultural political and territorial entities the book argues for a consideration of the diverse hybrid and multiple nature of European cultural identities   Cultural Identity and Archaeology Paul Graves-Brown,Siân Jones,Clive Gamble,1996 Cultural identity is a key area of debate in contemporary Europe Despite widespread use of the past in the construction of ethnic national and European identity theories of cultural identity have been neglected in archaeology Focusing on the interrelationships between concepts of cultural identity today and the interpretation of past cultural groups Cultural Identity and Archaeology offers proactive archaeological perspectives in the debate surrounding European identities This fascinating and thought provoking book covers three key areas It considers how material remains are used in the interpretation of cultural identities for example pan Celtic culture and Bronze Age Europe Finally it looks at archaeological evidence for the construction of cultural identities in the European past The authors are critical of monolithic constructions of Europe and also of the ethnic and national groups within it in place of such exclusive cultural political and territorial entities the book argues for a consideration of the diverse hybrid and multiple nature of European cultural identities   The Archaeology of Ethnicity Siân Jones,2002-11 The question of ethnicity is highly controversial in contemporary archaeology The author responds to the need for a reassessment of the ways in which social groups are identified in the archeological record   International Handbook of Historical Archaeology Teresita Majewski,David Gaimster,2009-06-07 In studying the past archaeologists have focused on the material remains of our ancestors Prehistorians generally have only artifacts to study and rely on the diverse material record for their understanding of past societies and their behavior Those involved in studying historically documented cultures not only have extensive material remains but also contemporary texts images and a range of investigative technologies to enable them to build a broader and more reflexive picture of how past societies communities and individuals operated and behaved Increasingly historical archaeology refers not to a particular period place or a method but rather an approach that interrogates the tensions between artifacts and texts irrespective of context In short historical archaeology provides direct evidence for how humans have shaped the world we live in today Historical archaeology is a branch of global archaeology that has grown in the last 40 years from its North American base into an increasingly global community of archaeologists each studying their area of the world in a historical context Where historical archaeology started as part of the study of the post Columbian societies of the United States and Canada it has now expanded to interface with the post medieval archaeologies of Europe and the diverse post imperial experiences of Africa Latin America and Australasia The 36 essays in the International Handbook of Historical Archaeology have been specially commissioned from the leading researchers in their fields creating a wide ranging digest of the increasingly global field of historical archaeology The volume is divided into two sections the first reviewing the key themes issues and approaches of historical archaeology today and the second containing a series of case studies charting the development and current state of historical archaeological practice around the world This key reference work captures the energy and diversity of this global discipline today Identity and Power in the Ancient Andes John Wayne Janusek,2004-12-01 The Tiwanaku state was the political and cultural center of ancient Andean civilization for almost 700 years Identity and Power is the result of ten years of research that has revealed significant new data Janusek explores the origins development and collapse of this ancient state through the lenses of social identities gender ethnicity occupation for example and power relations He combines recent developments in social theory with the archaeological record to create a fascinating and theoretically informed exploration of the history of this important civilization Israel's Exodus in Transdisciplinary Perspective Thomas E. Levy,Thomas Schneider,William H.C. Propp,2015-03-28 The Bible s grand narrative about Israel s Exodus from Egypt is central to Biblical religion Jewish Christian and Muslim identity and the formation of the academic disciplines studying the ancient Near East It has also been a pervasive theme in artistic and popular imagination Israel s Exodus in Transdisciplinary Perspective is a pioneering work surveying this tradition in unprecedented breadth combining archaeological discovery quantitative methodology and close literary reading Archaeologists Egyptologists Biblical Scholars Computer Scientists Geoscientists and other experts contribute their diverse approaches in a novel transdisciplinary consideration of ancient topography Egyptian and Near Eastern parallels to the Exodus story the historicity of the Exodus the interface of the Exodus question with archaeological fieldwork on emergent Israel the formation of biblical literature and the cultural memory of the Exodus in ancient Israel and beyond This edited volume contains research presented at the groundbreaking symposium Out of Egypt Israel s Exodus Between Text and Memory History and Imagination held in 2013 at the Qualcomm Institute of the University of California San Diego The combination of 44 contributions by an international group of scholars from diverse disciplines makes this the first such transdisciplinary study of ancient text and history In the original conference and with this new volume revolutionary media such as a 3D immersive virtual reality environment impart innovative Exodus based research to a wider audience Out of archaeology ancient texts science and technology emerge an up to date picture of the Exodus for the 21st Century and a new standard for collaborative research Local, regional and ethnic identities in early medieval cemeteries in Bavaria (Premio Ottone d'Assia e Riccardo Francovich 2008) Susanne Hakenbeck,2011-03-01 Tema conduttore dell opera lo studio dell etnicit altomedievale condotto attraverso l analisi di un gruppo di cimiteri nella pianura alluvionale di Monaco di Baviera e l esame dello sviluppo della pratica funeraria in un periodo che va dal V al VII secolo d C Iniziate come un atto ibrido di pratiche tardo romane e barbariche quando nel secolo successivo le comunit politiche tribali si consolidarono le modalit di sepoltura presero le distanze dalle loro origini romane divenendo apertamente barbare Lo studio delle sepolture diviene per l A motivo per una pi ampia riflessione sul concetto di identit e sui rapporti fra cultura materiale ed etnia Contiene il riassunto del volume in italiano Critical Approaches to Fieldwork Gavin Lucas,2002-01-04 This work takes as its starting point the role of fieldwork and how this has changed over the past 150 years The author argues against progressive accounts of fieldwork and instead places it in its broader intellectual context to critically examine the relationship between theoretical paradigms and everyday archaeological practice In providing a much needed historical and critical evaluation of current practice in archaeology this book opens up a topic of debate which affects all archaeologists whatever their particular interests Atlantic Europe in the First Millennium BC Thomas Hugh Moore,Xosê-Lois Armada,2011 This volume of 33 papers on the Atlantic region of Western Europe in the first millennium BC reflects a diverse range of theoretical approaches techniques and methodologies across current research and is an opportunity to compare approaches to the first millennium BC from different national and theoretical perspectives Social Identity in Early Medieval Britain William O. Frazer,Andrew Tyrell,2001-01-01 Social identity is a concept od increasing importance in the social sciences Here the concept is applied to the often atheoretical realm of medieval studies Each contributor focuses on a particular topic of early medieval identity ethnicity national identity social location subjectivity personhood political organization kiship the body gender age proximity regionality memory and ideological systems The result is a pioneering vision of medieval social identity and a challenge to some of the received general wisdoms about this period From Antiquarian to Archaeologist Tim Murray,2014-04-16 Brings together fourteen of Tim Murray s papers on the history philosophy and sociology of archaeology published over two decades Bulletin of the History of Archaeology This volume forms a collection of papers tracking the emergence of the history of archaeology from a subject of marginal status in the 1980s to the mainstream subject which it is today Professor Timothy Murray s essays have been widely cited and track over twenty years in the development of the subject The papers are accompanied by a new introduction which surveys the development of the subject over the last twenty five years as well as a reflection of what this means for the philosophy of archaeology and theoretical archaeology This volume spans Tim s successful career as an academic at the forefront of the study of the history of archaeology both in Australia and internationally During his career he has held posts in Britain and Europe as well as Australia He has edited the Bulletin of the History of Archaeology since 2003

The Archaeology of Africa Bassey Andah,Alex Okpoko,Thurstan Shaw,Paul Sinclair,2014-05-22 Africa has a vibrant past It emerges from this book as the proud possessor of a vast and highly complicated interweaving of peoples and cultures practising an enormous diversity of economic and social strategies in an 2xtraordinary range of environmental situations At long last the archaeology of Africa has revealed enough of Africa s unwritten past to confound preconceptions about this continent and to upset the picture inferred from historic written records Without an understanding of its past complexities it is impossible to grasp Africa s present let alone its future Far from Equilibrium: An archaeology of energy, life and humanity Michael J. Boyd,Roger C. P. Doonan,2021-03-03 Archaeology is in crisis Spatial turns material turns and the ontological turn have directed the discipline away from its hard won battle to find humanity in the past Meanwhile popularised science camouflaged as archaeology produces shock headlines built on ancient DNA that reduce humanity s most intriguing historical problems to two dimensional caricatures Today archaeology finds itself less able than ever to proclaim its relevance to the modern world This volume foregrounds the relevance of the scholarship of John Barrett to this crisis Twenty four writers representing three generations of archaeologists scrutinise the current turmoil in the discipline and highlight the resolutions that may be found through Barrett s analytical framework Topics include archaeology and the senses the continuing problem of the archaeological record practice discourse and agency reorienting archaeological field practice the question of different expressions of human diversity and material ecologies Understanding archaeology as both a universal and highly specific discipline case studies range from the Aegean to Orkney and encompass Anatolia Korea Romania United Kingdom and the very nature of the Universe itself This critical examination of John Barrett s contribution to archaeology is simultaneously a response to his urgent call to arms to reorient archaeology in the service of humanity

The Archaeology of Israel Neil Asher Silberman,David B. Small,1997-03-01 This challenging volume offers a timely and extensive overview of the current state of archaeology in Israel Contributed by leading scholars the essays focus on current problems and cutting edge issues ranging from reviews of ongoing excavations to new analytical approaches Of interest not only to archaeologists but to social historians as well the topics include archaeology and social history archaeology and ethnicity as well as the overarching issue of how texts and archaeological knowledge are to be combined in the reconstruction of ancient Israel Archaeology and the Information Age Sebastian Rahtz,Paul Reilly,2003-09-02 Traditional methods of making archaeological data available are becoming increasingly inadequate Thanks to improved techniques for examining data from multiple viewpoints archaeologists are now in a position to record different kinds of data and to explore that data more fully than ever before The growing availablility of computer networks and other technologies means that communication should become increasingly available to international archaeologists Will this result in the democratisation of archaeological knowledge on a global basis Contributors from Western and Eastern Europe the Far East Africa and the Americas seek to answer this and other questions about the way in which modern technology is revolutionising archaeological knowledge SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT – Volume V Salustiano del Campo ,Tomoko Hamada ,Giancarlo Barbiroli,Saskia Sassen, Eleonora Barbieri-Masini, Paul Nchoji Nkwi, Owen Sichone, Abubakar Momoh,2010-11-15 Social and Economic Development is a component of Encyclopedia of Development and Economic Sciences in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Social and Economic Development provides the essential aspects and a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as Socioeconomic Developmental Social Work Perspectives on Contemporary Socioeconomic Development Sustainable Development of Natural Resource Capital Sustainable Development Of Human Resource Capital Intellectual And Knowledge Capital For Sustainable Development At Local National Regional And Global Levels Economic And Financial System Development Information And Knowledge Institutional And Infrastructure System Development Information And Knowledge Basic Principles Of Sustainable Development Environmental Economics And Sustainable Development Implementing Sustainable Development In A Changing World Economic Sociology Its History And Development The Socioeconomics Of Agriculture Agricultural And Rural Geography Impact Of Global Change On Agriculture Human Nutrition An Overview The Role Of Inter And Nongovernmental Organizations Nongovernmental Organizations Social And Cultural Development Of Human Resources This 8 volume set contains several chapters each of size 5000 30000 words with perspectives issues on social and Economic Development These volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs Imports and Immigrants Gail L.
