A Letter to Archdeacon Singleton on the Ecclesiastical Commission Sydney Smith, 1837     A Letter to Archdeacon Singleton on the Ecclesiastical Commission (Classic Reprint) Sydney Smith, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from A Letter to Archdeacon Singleton on the Ecclesiastical Commission There can be no charm in the name of Bishop the man who was a Curate yesterday is a Bishop to day There are many Prebendaries many Rectors and many Vicars who would have come to the Reform of the Church with as much integrity wisdom and vigour as any Bishop on the Bench and I believe with a much stronger recollection that all the orders of the Church were not to be sacrificed to the highest and that to make their work respectable and lasting it should in all even its minutest provisions be founded upon justice All the interests of the Church in the Commutation of Tithes are entrusted to one parochial Clergyman and I have no doubt from what I hear of him that they will be well protected Why could not one or two such men have been added to the Commission and a general impression been created that Government in this momentous change had a parental feeling for all orders of men whose interests might be affected by it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works     Encyclopedia of British Humorists Steven H.
