A Companion to Australian Aboriginal Literature Belinda Wheeler, 2013 This international collection of eleven original essays on Australian Aboriginal literature provides a comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers Australian Aboriginal literature once relegated to the margins of Australian literary studies now receives both national and international attention Not only has the number of published texts by contemporary Australian Aboriginals risen sharply but scholars and publishers have also recently begun recovering earlier published and unpublished Indigenous works Writing by Australian Aboriginals is making a decisive impression in fiction autobiography biography poetry film drama and music and has recently been anthologized in Oceania and North America Until now however there has been no comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers This international collection of eleven original essays fills this gap by discussing crucial aspects of Australian Aboriginal literature and tracing the development of Aboriginal literacy from the oral tradition up until today contextualizing the work of Aboriginal artists and writers and exploring aspects of Aboriginal life writing such as obstacles toward publishing questions of editorial control or the lack thereof intergenerational and interracial collaborations combining oral history and life writing and the pros and cons of translation into European languages Contributors Katrin Althans Maryrose Casey Danica Cerce Stuart Cooke Paula Anca Farca Michael R Griffiths Oliver Haag Martina Horakova Jennifer Jones Nicholas Jose Andrew King Jeanine Leane Theodore F Sheckels Belinda Wheeler Belinda Wheeler is Associate Professor of English at Claflin

Alien Imaginations Ulrike Kuchler, Silja Maehl, Graeme Stout, 2015-02-12 As both an extra terrestrial and a terrestrial migrant the alien provides a critical framework to help us understand the interactions between cultures and to explore the transgressive force of travel over geographical cultural or linguistic borders. Offering a perspective on the alien that connects to scholarship on immigration and globalization Alien Imaginations brings together canonical and contemporary works in the literature and cinema of science fiction and transnationalism. By examining the role of the alien through the themes of language anxiety and identity the essays in this collection engage with authors such as H G Wells Eleanor Arnason Philip K Dick and Yoko Tawada as well as directors such as Neill Blomkamp James Cameron and Michael Winterbottom. Focusing on works that are European and North American in origin the readings in this volume explore their critical intent and their potential to undermine many of the central notions of Western hegemonic discourses. Alien Imaginations reflects upon contemporary cultural imaginaries as well as the realities of migration labor and life suggesting models of resistance if not utopian horizons. Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. Questions about belonging alienation travel migration identity and communication are raised by these stories in the context of human emotions ranging from joy to despair and from anger to laughter. The Window Seat Archie Weller, 2023-05-30 Since Archie Weller was runner up for the first Vogel Award in 1980 for his novel The Day of the Dog he has become an important voice in contemporary Indigenous writing. The Window Seat is a collection of his best fiction and a tribute to his contribution to Australian literature.
