Architecture Of New Prague 1895 1945:

Od Moderny K Funkcionalismu Rostislav Švácha, Eric Dluhosch, 1995 Focuses on the architecture of Prague from the turn of the century to the end of World War II The book documents the architects structures and theoretical underpinnings that helped to shape Prague s cultural heritage and present day artistic spirit The Architecture of New Prague 1895-1945 Rostislav Svácha, Eric Dluhosch, 1999 When Buildings Speak Anthony Alofsin, 2006 The canonical inventors of International Style have long dominated studies of modern European architecture But in this text Anthony Alofsin broadens this scope by exploring the rich yet overlooked architecture of the late Austro Hungarian Empire and its successor states

The Optimum Imperative: Czech Architecture for the Socialist Lifestyle, 1938-1968 Ana Miljacki, 2017-02-03 The Optimum Imperative examines the multiple ways that architecture was entangled within the problem of Socialist lifestyle in Czechoslovakia Manufacturing a Socialist Modernity Kimberly Elman Zarecor, 2011-04-10 Eastern European prefabricated housing blocks are often vilified as the visible manifestations of everything that was wrong with state socialism For many inside and outside the region the uniformity of these buildings became symbols of the dullness and drudgery of everyday life Manufacturing a Socialist Modernity complicates this common perception Analyzing the cultural intellectual and professional debates surrounding the construction of mass housing in early postwar Czechoslovakia Zarecor shows that these housing blocks served an essential function in the planned economy and reflected an interwar aesthetic derived from constructivism and functionalism that carried forward into the 1950s With a focus on prefabricated and standardized housing built from 1945 to 1960 Zarecor offers broad and innovative insights into the country s transition from capitalism to state socialism She demonstrates that during this shift architects and engineers consistently strove to meet the needs of Czechs and Slovaks despite challenging economic conditions a lack of material resources and manufacturing and technological limitations In the process architects were asked to put aside their individual creative aspirations and transform themselves into technicians and industrial producers Manufacturing a Socialist Modernity is the first comprehensive history of architectural practice and the emergence of prefabricated housing in the Eastern Bloc Through discussions of individual architects and projects as well as building typologies professional associations and institutional organization it opens a rare window into the cultural and economic life of Eastern Europe during the early postwar period Modern Architecture in Czechoslovakia and Other Writings Karel Teige, 2000 This series offers a range of heretofore unavailable writings in English translation on the subjects of art architecture and aesthetics Teige s principal work on modernism now in English for the first time is supplemented by a selection of his other writings on art and architecture The Inhabited Ruins of Central Europe D. Gafijczuk, D. Sayer, 2013-09-27 Focusing on Central Europe the volume proposes a new paradigm of how culture works based on a model of inhabited ruins as a space where contradictory elements come together into continually renewed and frequently paradoxical configurations Examines art architecture literature and music The Architecture of Red Vienna,

1919-1934 Eve Blau, 1999 Encyclopedic in its coverage this seminal work focuses on the architecture of Prague from the turn of the century to the end of the Second World War a rich matrix within which to place the figures who created the powerful innovative spirits of modern Czech architecture The book documents the architects structures and theoretical underpinnings that helped to shape Prague s cultural heritage and present day artistic spirit Indigenous Modernities Jyoti Hosagrahar, 2012-10-02 This book examines how a historic and so called traditional city quietly evolved into one that was modern in its own terms in form use and meaning Through a focused study of Delhi the author challenges prevalent assumptions in architecture and urbanism to identify an interpretation of modernism that goes beyond conventional understanding Part one reflects on transformations and discontinuities in built form and spatial culture and questions accepted notions of the static nature of what is normally referred to as traditional and non Western architecture Part two is a critical discussion of Delhi in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries redefining modernism in a way that separates the city s architecture and society from the objectified realm of the exotic whilst acknowledging non Western ideas of modernity In the final part the author considers indigenous modernities the irregular the uneven and the unexpected in what uncritical observers might call a coherent traditional society and built environment A Global History of Architecture Francis D. K. Ching, Mark M. Jarzombek, Vikramaditya Prakash, 2017-04-17 A GLOBAL HISTORY OF ARCHITECTURE NOW FEATURING ADDITIONAL COVERAGE OF CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL ARCHITECTURE AND MORE SUPERB DRAWINGS BY FRANCIS D K CHING The book that forever changed the way architectural history is viewed taught and studied A Global History of Architecture examines 5 000 years of the built environment Spanning from 3 500 BCE to the present and organized along a global timeline this unique guide was written by experts in their fields who emphasize the connections contrasts and influences of architectural movements throughout history and around the world Fully updated and revised to reflect current scholarship this Third Edition features expanded chapter introductions that set the stage for a global view as well as An expanded section on contemporary global architecture More coverage of non Western cultures particularly South Asia South East Asia Pre Columbian America and Africa New drawings and maps by the iconic Francis D K Ching as well as more stunning photographs An updated companion website with digital learning tools and Google Earth™ mapping service coordinates that make it easier to find sites Art and architecture enthusiasts and anyone interested in architectural history will have 5 000 years of the built environment perpetually at their fingertips with A Global History of Architecture Third Edition Prague, Capital of the Twentieth Century Derek Sayer, 2021-11-09 The story of modernity told through a cultural history of twentieth century Prague Setting out to recover the roots of modernity in the boulevards interiors and arcades of the city of light Walter Benjamin dubbed Paris the capital of the nineteenth century In this eagerly anticipated sequel to his acclaimed Coasts of Bohemia A Czech History Derek Sayer argues that Prague could well be seen as the capital of the much darker twentieth century Ranging across twentieth century Prague s astonishingly vibrant and always surprising human landscape this richly illustrated cultural history describes how the city has experienced and suffered more ways of being modern than perhaps any other metropolis Located at the crossroads of struggles between democratic communist and fascist visions of the modern world twentieth century Prague witnessed revolutions and invasions national liberation and ethnic cleansing the Holocaust show trials and snuffed out dreams of socialism with a human face Yet between the wars when Prague was the capital of Europe s most easterly parliamentary democracy it was also a hotbed of artistic and architectural modernism and a center of surrealism second only to Paris Focusing on these years Sayer explores Prague s spectacular modern buildings monuments paintings books films operas exhibitions and much more A place where the utopian fantasies of the century repeatedly unraveled Prague was tailor made for surrealist Andr Breton s black humor and Sayer discusses the way the city produced unrivaled connoisseurs of grim comedy from Franz Kafka and Jaroslav Hasek to Milan Kundera and V clav Havel A masterful and unforgettable account of a city where an idling flaneur could just as easily be a secret policeman this book vividly shows why Prague can teach us so much about the twentieth century and what made us who we are

A Global History of Architecture Mark M. Jarzombek, Vikramaditya Prakash, 2011-10-04 Praise for the First Edition Because of its exceptionally wide perspective even architectural historians who do not teach general survey courses are likely to enjoy and appreciate it Annali d architettura Not only does A Global History of Architecture own the territory of world architecture it pulls off this audacious task with panache intelligence and for the most part grace Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Revised and updated the compelling history of the world s great architectural achievements Organized along a global timeline A Global History of Architecture Second Edition has been updated and revised throughout to reflect current scholarship Spanning from 3 500 b c e to the present this unique guide is written by an all star team of architectural experts in their fields who emphasize the connections contrasts and influences of architectural movements throughout history The architectural history of the world comes to life through a unified framework for interpreting and understanding architecture supplemented by rich drawings from the renowned Frank Ching as well as brilliant photographs This new Second Edition Delivers more coverage of non Western areas particularly Africa South Asia South East Asia and Pre Columbian America Is completely re designed with full color illustrations throughout Incorporates additional drawings by Professor Ching including new maps with more information and color Meets the requirements set by the National Architectural Accrediting Board NAAB for non Western architecture in history education Offers new connections to a companion Web site including Google EarthTM coordinates for ease of finding sites Architecture and art enthusiasts will find A Global History of Architecture Second Edition perpetually at their fingertips

Streetscapes of War and Revolution Claire Morelon, 2024-06-06 Prague entered the First World War as the third city of the Habsburg empire but emerged in 1918 as the capital of a brand new nation state Czechoslovakia Claire Morelon explores what this transition looked sounded and felt like at street level Through deep archival research she has carefully reconstructed the sensorial texture of the city from the posters plastered on walls to the shop windows displays the badges worn by passers by and the crowds gathering for protest or celebration The result is both an atmospheric account of life amid war and regime change and a fresh interpretation of imperial collapse from below in which the experience of life on the Habsburg home front is essential to understanding the post Versailles world order that followed Prague is the perfect case study for examining the transition from empire to nation statehood hinging on revolutionary dreams of fairer distribution and new forms of political participation

Sanctioning Modernism Timothy Parker, Monica Penick, Vladimir Kulic, 2014-06-01 In the decades following World War II modern architecture spread around the globe alongside increased modernization urbanization and postwar reconstruction and it eventually won widespread acceptance But as the limitations of conventional conceptions of modernism became apparent modern architecture has come under increasing criticism In this collection of essays experienced and emerging scholars take a fresh look at postwar modern architecture by asking what it meant to be modern what role modern architecture played in constructing modern identities and who sanctioned or was sanctioned by modernism in architecture This volume presents focused case studies of modern architecture in three realms political religious and domestic that address our very essence as human beings Several essays explore developments in Czechoslovakia Romania and Yugoslavia and document a modernist design culture that crossed political barriers such as the Iron Curtain more readily than previously imagined Other essays investigate various efforts to reconcile the concerns of modernist architects with the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church and other Christian institutions And a final group of essays looks at postwar homebuilding in the United States and demonstrates how malleable and contested the image of the American home was in the mid twentieth century These inquiries show the limits of canonical views of modern architecture and reveal instead how civic institutions ecclesiastical traditions individual consumers and others sought to sanction the forms and ideas of modern architecture in the service of their respective claims or desires to be modern

In the Suburbs of History Steven Logan, 2020-12-16 Reading modern architecture and urbanism in socialist and capitalist cities this work challenges the twentieth century divide between East and West in favour of a shared and contested history that plays out on the peripheries of the world's cities

The Organization of Transport Massimo Moraglio, Christopher Kopper, 2014-12-05 Over the past ten years the study of mobility has demonstrated groundbreaking approaches and new research patterns These investigations criticize the concept of mobility itself suggesting the need to merge transport and communication research and to approach the topic with novel instruments and new methodologies Following the debates on the role of users in shaping transport technology new mobility research includes debates from sociology planning economy geography history and anthropology This edited volume examines how users policy makers and industrial managers have organized and continue to organize mobility with a particularly attention to Europe North America and Asia Taking a long term and comparative perspective the volume brings together thirteen chapters from the fields of urban studies history cultural studies and geography Covering a variety of countries and regions these chapters investigate how various actors have shaped transport systems creating models of mobility that differ along a number of dimensions including public vs private ownership and operation as well as individual vs collective forms of transportation The contributions also examine the extent to which initial models have created path dependencies in terms of technology physical infrastructure urban development and cultural and behavioral preferences that limit subsequent choices

The Stories Old Towns Tell Marek Kohn,2023-04-25 A fascinating journey through Europe's old towns exploring why we treasure them but also what they hide about a continent's fraught history Historic quarters in cities and towns across the middle of Europe were devastated during the Second World War some like those of Warsaw and Frankfurt had to be rebuilt almost completely They are now centers of peace and civility that attract millions of tourists but the stories they tell about places peoples and nations are selective They are never the whole story These old towns and their turbulent histories have been key sites in Europe's ongoing theater of politics and war Exploring seven old towns from Frankfurt and Prague to Vilnius in Lithuania the acclaimed writer Marek Kohn examines how they have been used since the Second World War to conceal political tensions and reinforce certain versions of history Uncovering hidden stories behind these old and old seeming facades Kohn offers us a new understanding of the politics of European history making showing how our visits to old towns could promote belonging over exclusion and empathy over indifference

Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians,2002 Includes special issues The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl,Susan Wilson,2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available Land of Stone Roger Emmerson,2022-12-06 Welcome to a journey of remarkable buildings and remarkable thoughts about these buildings shaped as they are by deep time modern ideas and Scottish culture Readers are sure to see new vistas in the land of stone open before them From the Foreword by PROFESSOR ANDREW PATRIZIO What makes Scottish architecture Scottish What ideas drive Scottish architecture What has modern architecture in Scotland meant to the Scots Ever since the granny tops rattling and clanking in the wind to draw smoke up the tenemental flues from open coal fires caught my attention as a three year old architecture and its many parts purposes processes and procedures has fascinated me For me architecture has always had profound significance Land of Stone seeks to disengage widely held conceptions of what a Scottish architecture superficially looks like and to focus on the ideas and events philosophical political practical and personal that inspired architects and their clients to create the cities towns villages and buildings we cherish today
