Architects Of Emortality:

Architects of Emortality Brian Stableford, 2000-05-15 Brian Stableford launched an ambitious future history series with Inherit the Earth to widespread praise Stableford has created in this novel a totally believable world and wrapped it around a series of mysterious events surprise revelations double crosses confused motivations rumors lies plots and counterplots Tightly controlled and suspenseful throughout said Science Fiction Chronicle Library Journal said The ethical questions posed by the prospect of conquering the aging process underscore this fast paced SF adventure adding depth to a story that will appeal to fans of high tech SF and conspiracy theories This future world is a complex society obsessed with the technology of life extension and on the brink of creating true immortals Now in Architects of Emortality Stableford gives us a story set hundreds of years in the future filled with people who can hope for 300 year lifespans and a fortunate few whose lives will be in the thousands of years This society is on the edge of radical change where people have the time to develop eccentric lifestyles and personal obsessions a world sometimes reminiscent of the distant future of Michael Moorcock's Dancers at the End of Time series And there has been a series of murders that threaten the future stability of the world murders executed by bioengineered flowers Police officers Watson and Holmes investigate but the central figure quickly becomes the amateur detective Oscar Wilde a student of history who has taken on the persona of his namesake And the question is not so much who the murderer is but how and why Filled with memorable characters and powerful and striking images of the richly altered world of the future Architects of Emortality is a satisfying and complete story that also adds depth and detail to the evolving series At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Architecture and Mortality Donald Tarantino, 2020-08-28 Donald Tarantino b 1962 was a queer artist who studied at Philadelphia College of Art and later settled in New York City where he became part of the East Village scene of the 1980s Working mostly as a printmaker his art explores the intersection between cities and suburbia shifting between office buildings and domestic spaces His images examine the structures we inhabit interweaving the anxieties they cause and the joys they elicit His late prints were inspired by the isolated rooms and hallways of the St Vincent's AIDS ward driving home a sense of mortality that loomed all too close He died of AIDS related illness in 1988 Architecture and Mortality collects his surviving prints drawings and other work and is the only published overview of the artist Gothic Grotesques Brian Stableford, 2009-03-01 Ten essays on horror fiction Gothic rock music science fiction and fantasy by a master critic and fiction writer Complete with index

Edging Into the Future Veronica Hollinger, Joan Gordon, 2002-04 The savvy critical essays in this provocative collection investigate the interface between science fiction and postmodern culture Highly recommended for readers at all levels Choice

The Identity of the Architect Laura Iloniemi, 2019-12-23 Today there are more tools for communication than ever before yet very little in the way of reflection on how these are being used and even less on what exactly is being conveyed This issue of AD looks at how architecture is communicated from a cultural perspective Do the identities of practices or their business driven branding and promotional efforts resonate with the critical acclaim many architects seek Has slick image led media coverage sold the profession short How is it possible to convey the less visual and haptic qualities of architecture Can architects be more creative in their communication efforts making these joyous on their own terms as Le Corbusier did so memorably Is there really a need to succumb to the world of corporate marketing processes and managerial business jargon The issue explores notions of editing and curating work in an age of data deluge and discusses social media as a genuinely alternative space for communication rather than for just repurposing and regurgitating information relayed The Identity of the Architect encourages the promotion of practices as an integral extension of the very culture they hope to engender through their work Contributors Stephen Bayley Caroline Cole Adam Nathaniel Furman Gabor Gallov Jonathan Glancey Justine Harvey Owen Hopkins Crispin Kelly Jay Merrick Robin Monotti Juhani Pallasmaa Vicky Richardson Jenny Sabin and Austin Williams Featured architects Ian Ritchie BIG MVRDV IF_DO and Zaha Hadid Architects
