This Miraculous Life Robert Maoz Krzysnik, 2019-11-17 Robert Maoz Krzysnik knew from an early age that if his life was to be worth living it was to be an adventure Traumatized by childhood experiences and suffocated at home and at high school he ran away aged 17 to Africa and began a series of journeys of exploration that has taken him to six continents and countless dimensions of internal experience Never content to be a bystander inquiring constantly after deeper meaning Robert has climbed every mountain and plunged into every abyss that has opened before him neither fearlessly nor with the security of a back up plan but with beating heart and a passion that simply could not say no to life His reckless enthusiasm makes for a page turning roller coaster ride of a life story packed with hilarious and improbable events bizarre circumstances and unforgettable characters Robert takes us with him through deeply personal experiences of shame and joy fear and determination as he finds his way through military service and into work as a transpersonal psychotherapist Personal healing human relationships love marriage parenthood birth and death are all here and are described with candour humour and vulnerability Interwoven throughout is a unique interior journey in search of ever deeper connection with spirit from childhood glimpses of other realities and dramatic experiences with mind expanding drugs to searching for a guru in India and ultimately to integration into his life today as an internationally recognised trainer

I Think There's a Terrorist in My Soup David Brenner, 2003-09 On September 11 2001 veteran comedian David Brenner was in the midst of a 48 week stand up gig in Las Vegas Immediately after that day he cancelled the engagement and instructed his manager to book him on a nationwide tour He called it the Laughter to the People tour and on it he shared his humor with a grieving nation Audience response was overwhelming In this book Brenner draws on highlights from his stand up material to show how humor can give us the power to transcend personal and world problems from the unavoidable like aging to the uncontrollable like war The essays in the book cover a wide range of issues including fear of flying aging marriage and divorce pets politics terrorism and religion

Life In Miniature Linda Schlossberg, 2010-12-01 From a powerful new voice in fiction comes a compelling debut about the delicate bond between daughters and mothers and about leaving everything you know in order to find the place where you belong Adie has always known she was different There's her size for one thing Born three months premature Adie is the smallest of her peers Then there's Adie's mother who at first glance seems like so many other 1980s moms clipping coupons and attending Feel the Burn aerobics classes But beneath the surface is something erratic and unpredictable something that makes her drag Adie and her older sister Miriam from one rental apartment to the next until Miriam runs away Adie is left behind with her mother who is convinced their lives are in real danger and takes Adie on a crazy run across northern California Now Adie faces a stark choice submit to this increasingly surreal adventure or grow up in ways she never imagined Life in Miniature is a stunning double portrait subtly capturing a daughter's misconceptions of her mother's delusions while simultaneously revealing the consequences for both in a compulsively readable and deeply insightful first novel Jonathon Keats author of The Book of the Unknown a book of intelligence and grace that will make you laugh and cry Terry Gamble author of Good Family Linda Schlossberg received her PhD in English literature from Harvard University where she is the Assistant Director of the Women Gender and Sexuality Studies program Her fiction has been recognized by the Pacific Northwest Writers Association the National League of American PEN Women and Writers at Work She has also received research and writing grants from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation as well as several awards for excellence in teaching Linda lives in Cambridge Massachusetts
