factors shaping the dynamics of the Korean Peninsula's interactions with the Persian Gulf region this book largely concentrates on the agency factor to analyze the nature and scope of a rather multifaceted relationship between the two areas The Republic of Korea has in fact maintained diverse connections to every single country in the Persian Gulf over the past several decades and its rather considerable activities and accomplishments in the region all justify such an overwhelming focus The Democratic People's Republic of Korea's record in the Persian Gulf however is mostly limited to its relationship with Iran though Pyongyang has pursued relationships with some other states in the region This book studies the elements of Pyongyang's actions in the region as an appendage to South Korea's various political and economic achievements Employing a process tracing approach this book will be of interest to policymakers as well as to students and scholars of International Relations Middle East Studies and Asian Studies

Technology Transfer and International Production Jin W. Cyhn, 2002-03-27 This book analyses the technology development efforts of Korea's electronics industry the country's largest exporter It asks how the Korean electronics industry was able to develop both in terms of production and technology despite low inflows of licensing and foreign direct investments The book argues that the key to its spectacular growth has been through its participation and learning from an inter firm arrangement called original equipment manufacturing arrangement OEM A number of firm level case studies on the Korean electronics industry support this argument The role of the government especially related to its technology policy has also been analysed The government was effective in providing financial incentives for the firms technological upgrading efforts but its supplying of direct technological assistance had limited success Overall this book argues that contrary to many previous studies the role of multinational enterprises has been significant in the development of Korea's electronics industry and that they have acted as a technological tutor for Korea through OEM
