"The Crucible"

"Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name!"
-John Proctor (Act 4)

Secondary source

John Proctor's struggle in The Crucible shows that identity is shaped by personal choices. In Act 4, he cries, "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life!" refusing to sign a false confession. His decision to die rather than live with a lie proves that integrity defines who we are and who we stand with. A secondary source from Gale Literature Resource Center reinforces this by analyzing the role of reputation in the play, showing how Proctor's choices ultimately determine his identity.

Explain how the combination of the two explains your claim and connects to the paper overall.
(Be sure to make it connect to "The Crucible")

This quote reveals Proctor's inner conflict: he can save his life by signing a false confession, but then he will lose his reputation and honor. His desperate struggle between survival and honesty shows how guilt and justice define his character.

What is your claim? [This will be the topic sentence of this paragraph]

Black-and-white view of the situation, where individuals are forced to choose sides, with no room for a neutral stance or questioning the court's authority.

Introduce the Passage(s) from the play you will use/The context of the secondary source(s)

Out of Turmoil Dean P. Vesperman, Anne Aydinian-Perry, Matthew T. Missias, Whitney G. Blankenship, 2023-01-01 It is not difficult to argue that the social sciences are in a period of transition Our day to day lives have been marked by uncertainty as our social lives have vacillated wildly between highs and lows tensions between fellow citizens have heightened along ideological fault lines and educators have been placed squarely at the center of public discourses about what and how we should be teaching By any measure we are living in a time where every moment seems to be rife with high stakes realities that must be navigated Ladson Billings 2020 called on educators to reimagine education and contest the notion of a return to normal In the current highly polarized context where we see multiple competing narratives rather than promoting a return to normal or business as usual approach we argue that educators must use the lessons of the last two years as well as draw on what we have learned from history and the social sciences By asking ourselves how we might interrogate and inform current social landscapes and the challenges that arise from them we have the opportunity to take leadership in fostering innovation building solidarity and re imagining the teaching and learning of history and the social sciences We recognize that humans live in multiple complex communities that include intersectional identities relationships with power agency and discourses and lived realities that are as unique as they are divergent Consequently the task of educators and the goal of this volume is to provide a clarion voice to a dynamic relational and undeniably human social world
