American Immigration After 1996 Kathleen R. Arnold,2015-06-19 Few topics generate as much heated public debate in the United States today as immigration across our southern border Two positions have been staked out one favoring the expansion of guest worker programs and focusing on the economic benefits of immigration and the other proposing greater physical and other barriers to entry and focusing more on the perceived threat to national security from immigration Both sides of this debate however rely in their arguments on preconceived notions and unexamined assumptions about assimilation national identity economic participation legality political loyalty and gender roles In American Immigration After 1996 Kathleen Arnold aims to reveal more of the underlying complexities of immigration and in particular to cast light on the relationship between globalization of the economy and issues of political sovereignty especially what she calls prerogative power as it is exercised by the U S government

Narrating 9/11 John N. Duvall,Robert P. Marzec,2015-09-11 Contemporary fiction takes on 9 11 interrogating the global expansion of surveillance based on fantasies of US national security Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title of the Choice ACRL Narrating 9 11 challenges the notion that Americans have overcome the national trauma of the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon The volume responds to issues of war surveillance and the expanding security state including the Bush Administration s policies on preemptive war extraordinary rendition torture abroad and the suspension of privacy rights and civil liberties at home Building on the work of Giorgio Agamben Slavoj i ek and Donald Pease the contributors focus on the ways in which post 9 11 narratives help make visible the fantasies that attempt to justify the ongoing state of exception and American exceptionalism Narrating 9 11 examines a variety of contemporary narratives as they relate to the cultural construction of the neoliberal nation state a role that mediates the possibilities of ethnic and religious identity as well as the ability to imagine terrorism Touching on some of the mainstays of 9/11 fiction including Jonathan Safran Foer's Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close and John Updike's Terrorist the book expands this particular canon by considering the work of such writers as Jess Walter, William Gibson, Lauren Groff, Ken Kalfus, Ian McEwan, Philip Roth, John le Carré, Laila Halaby, Michael Chabon, and Jarett Kobek. Narrating 9/11 pushes beyond a critical focus on domestic realism, offering chapters that examine speculative and genre fiction, postmodernism, climate change, and the evolving security state, as well as the television series Lost and the film Paradise Now. Selected Papers of Salman Akhtar, Salman Akhtar, 2023-06-01. Salman Akhtar is a Professor of Psychiatry, a Training and Supervising Analyst, a member of numerous editorial boards, winner of many awards including the highly prestigious Sigourney Award, a writer of several hundred articles, a poet, and the author or editor of over one hundred books. A modern-day Renaissance man, his elegant writing is simultaneously scholarly and literary, and brings a light touch to profound material. Phoenix Publishing House is proud to present his most inspiring works in a stunning ten-volume hardback set fit to grace the shelves of collectors and libraries with its high-quality finish.

Poverty and Literacy Nathalis Wamba, 2014-07-16. There is a mutual dependence between poverty and academic achievement. Creative pedagogies for low-income pupils, school models that beat the odds, and the resiliency of low-income families dedicated to the academic success of their children. This book examines the connection between poverty and literacy, looking at the potential roles and responsibilities of teachers, school administrators, researchers, and policymakers in closing the achievement gap and in reducing the effects of poverty on the literacy skill development of low-income children. There are numerous suggestions about how to improve schools so that they respond to the needs of low-income children. Some argue for school reform, while others advocate social reform, and yet others suggest combining both educational reform and social reform. Without a strong foundation in literacy, children are all too often denied access to a rich and diverse curriculum. Reading and writing are passports to achievement in many other curricular areas, and literacy education plays an important role in moving people out of poverty toward greater self-sufficiency post-graduation. Schools and home environments share responsibility for literacy skill development; in school, literacy equals the acquisition of reading and writing skills, but it is also a social practice key to social mobility. The achievement gap between low-income, middle-class, and upper-middle-class students illustrates the power of socioeconomic factors outside school. This book was originally published as two special issues of Reading Writing Quarterly: Overcoming Learning Difficulties.

Immigrant Politics and the Public Library Susan Luevano-Molina, 2001-09-30. This book explores the impact of the nativist movement on public library usage among Latino and Asian immigrants. The activism of concerned librarians within the California Library Association to defend the rights of immigrant library users after the passage of Proposition 187 is documented. In addition, four original research studies suggest that public libraries that provided relevant multilingual collections and services, multilingual staff, and strong public services have remained vibrant and well-used institutions despite widespread anti-immigrant sentiments and heightened anxiety among library users. The extensive qualitative studies that are reported in this volume are unique to the field of library science Three of the studies focus on the heavily Mexican Latino immigrant city of Santa Ana CA which is located in Orange County home to the most virulent anti immigrant forces including the Save Our State organizers who initiated the Proposition 187 legislation Two articles deal specifically with Asian American communities one ascertaining the negative effects of the elimination of affirmative action policies in public library hiring and promotion the other recounting the political nature and practice that characterizes dynamic community services to Asian immigrant communities

Those Damned Immigrants Ediberto Román, Michael A. Olivas, 2013-07-31 This data driven and massively documented study replaces rhetoric with analysis myth with fact and apocalyptic predictions with sane and realizable proposals Stanley Fish Florida International University The election of Barack Obama prompted people around the world to herald the dawning of a new postracial era in America Yet a scant one month after Obama's election Jose Oswaldo Sucuzhanay a 31 year old Ecuadorian immigrant was ambushed by a group of white men as he walked with his brother Yelling anti Latino slurs the men beat Sucuzhanay into a coma He died 5 days later The incident is one of countless attacks that Latino immigrants have confronted for generations in America And these attacks are accepted by a substantial number of American citizens and elected officials Quick to cast all Latino immigrants as illegal opponents have placed undocumented workers at the center of their anti immigrant movement targeting them as being responsible for increasing crime rates a plummeting economy and an erosion of traditional American values and culture In Those Damned Immigrants Ediberto Román takes on critics of Latino immigration using government statistics economic data historical records and social science research to provide a counter narrative to what he argues is a largely one sided public discourse on Latino immigration Ediberto Román is Professor of Law and Director of Citizenship and Immigration Initiatives at Florida International University Michael A Olivas is the William B Bates Distinguished Chair in Law at the University of Houston Law Center and Director of the Institute for Higher Education Law and Governance at UH In the Citizenship and Migration in the Americas series
