How the World Remade Hollywood Ed Glaser, 2022-03-07 For decades filmmakers worldwide have been remaking Hollywood movies in colorful ways They've chronicled a singing and dancing Hannibal Lecter in India star crossed lovers aboard the doomed Nigerian ship Titanic a Japanese expedition to the planet of the apes and an uncivil war in Turkey between Captain America and a mobbed up Spider Man Most of these films were low budget and many were unauthorized but all of them were fantastic and lately have begun to resurface thanks to cherry picked YouTube clips But why and how were they made in the first place This book tells the little known stories of the wily filmmakers who made an Italian 007 flick by casting Sean Connery's tradesman brother produced a Turkish space opera by stealing a print of Star Wars for its effects footage and transported a full fledged Terminator to the present day not from a post apocalyptic future but from the vibrant mythology of Indonesia Their stories reveal more than mere imitations they demonstrate the fascinating ways ideas evolve as they cross borders

Globalization and Culture Jan Nederveen Pieterse, 2019-05-17 Now updated with new chapters on culture and on populism this seminal text disputes the view that we are experiencing a clash of civilizations as well as the idea that globalization leads to cultural homogenization Instead Jan Nederveen Pieterse argues that we are witnessing the formation of a global m lange culture through processes of cultural mixing or hybridization From this perspective on globalization conflict may be mitigated and identity preserved albeit transformed In a new chapter on China the author focuses on the key issue of agency and power in hybridization Throughout the book offers a comprehensive treatment of hybridization arguments and in discussing globalization and culture problematizes the meaning of culture This historically deep and geographically wide approach to globalization is essential reading as we face the increasing spread of conflicts bred by cultural misunderstanding
