Passion and Pain Karen Williams, 2003-07 My Heartfelt Passion Jim Davidson, 2017-11-21

In modern American society the child who grows up without learning to read does not have a prayer when it comes to achieving true success in life Unfortunately this is the case for several million of our nation's children According to an April 2017 study by the U S Department of Education and the National Institute of Literacy 32 million adults in the U S can't read Part of the reason is that 61% of low income families have no books at all in the home for their pre school children to read a crucial time when reading development takes place

There is hope and it can be found in My Heartfelt Passion Saving our Nation one Child at a Time written by Jim Davidson nationally syndicated columnist who founded a unique literacy project called Bookcase for Every Child in his home town of Conway Arkansas This project has now spread to five other states They have given over 2 000 personalized bookcases and a starter set of books to pre school children being reared in low income families In the author s easy conversational style he takes us to the day he was born and moves forward to share the people events and experiences that led him to develop a heartfelt passion for underprivileged children He covers his personal history how some children are born with advantages while others are born with unspeakable disadvantages After reading this book and lays it aside anyone will know the ins and outs of organizing and starting a bookcase project in their own community that is sustainable and will make a difference Without a doubt this project can be replicated in every community in America and over time can become a tool to change the lives of preschool children They will then have enthusiasm and hope that come only to literate people who can function as contributing members of society

Literary Passion, Ideological Commitment Dawn Duke,2008 This study examines Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian women writers as well as analysing the roles of women of African descent in Cuban and Brazilian literature Initially literary imagination locked women into circumscribed roles a result of hierarchies embedded in slavery and colonialism and sustained by hierarchical theories on race and gender The discussion illustrates how these negative aspects have influenced the mainstream literary imagination that contrasts with the self portrayals created by women writers themselves Even as there continues to be disadvantageous constructions there is no doubt that a modification has occurred over time in images representation and articulation It is a change directly associated with the instances when women themselves are the writers The historiographic image of the Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian woman as a written object is ideologically replaced by a vision of her as a writing subject It is here that the vision of a creative multifaceted and diversified literature becomes important

Prince of Passion Jessa Slade,2013-03-17 Bound by revenge Once empathic crystals gifted legendary l auraly lovers with extraordinary sensual prowess But when dark forces invaded Icere Galil the last male l auralyo helped destroy the crystals rather than let the source of uninhibited pleasure be corrupted into a mind controlling drug Now his passion forever unfulfilled Icere channels his fury into revenge Tracking the raiders to a watery world infamous for its aphrodisiac liqueur he finds a queen as adrift and alone as he forced for years into a fate she never desired Bound by destiny Saya Rynn inherited command and control from her cruel grandfather and fought to transform her dangerous planet into a paradise but the price is a poison in her veins Though she feels as ancient as the seas she finds herself awash in the hot male potency of the young Icere When raiders strike the reluctant ruler and the deposed prince of passion must defeat the mysterious entity seeking to rule the sheerways and claim a love as bright as the infinite stars A Passion for Purpose Kimberly Sowell,2011-06-01 This delightful challenging insightful devotional will renew your passion to meet with God each day Dr Richard Blackaby coauthor of Experiencing God Let God s Love Blossom Through You As a
