¹ The material in this and other chapters in the AREMA Manual for Railway Engineering is published as recommended practice to railroads and others concerned with the engineering, design and construction of railroad fixed properties (except signals and communications), and allied services and facilities. For the purpose of this Manual, RECOMMENDED PRACTICE is defined as a material, device, design, plan, specification, principle or practice recommended to the railroads for use as required, either exactly as presented or with such modifications as may be necessary or desirable to meet the needs of individual railroads, but in either event, with a view to promoting efficiency and economy in the location, construction, operation or maintenance of railroads. It is not intended to imply that other practices may not be equally acceptable.
