The original ergonomic trainer — heavy on features, light on price. Because the JH-300 will change your total contact point and posture work, it has more power, pay and features than any other trainer in its class... with simple controls, easy maneuverability and real movement. The JH-300 trainer with attached, two-switch attachments helps you turn work into fun, your "bored" into full enjoyment positions, and with continued good use, less shift, less time to insert and you are ready for the next job.
