Bollywood Letes Gane:

Bollywood's New Woman Megha Anwer, Anupama Arora, 2021-06-18 Bollywood's New Woman examines Bollywood's construction and presentation of the Indian Woman since the 1990s. The groundbreaking collection illuminates the contexts and contours of this contemporary figure that has been identified in sociological and historical discourses as the New Woman. On the one hand, this figure is a variant of the fin de siècle phenomenon of the New Woman in the United Kingdom and the United States. In the Indian context, the New Woman is a distinct articulation resulting from the nation's tryst with neoliberal reform, consolidation of the middle class, and the ascendancy of aggressive Hindu Right politics. Focus On: 100 Most Popular Indian Drama Films Wikipedia contributors, Focus On: 100 Most Popular 2010s Comedy-drama Films Wikipedia contributors, Haunting Bollywood Meheli Sen, 2017-03-01 Haunting Bollywood is a pioneering interdisciplinary inquiry into the supernatural in Hindi cinema that draws from literary criticism, postcolonial studies, queer theory, history, and cultural studies. Hindi commercial cinema has been invested in the supernatural since its earliest days, but only a small segment of these films have been adequately explored in scholarly work. This book addresses this gap by focusing on some of Hindi cinema's least explored genres. From Gothic ghost films of the 1950s to snake films of the 1970s and 1980s to today's globally influenced zombie and vampire films, Meheli Sen delves into what the supernatural is and the varied modalities through which it raises questions of film form, history, modernity, and gender in South Asian public cultures. Arguing that the supernatural is dispersed among multiple genres and constantly in conversation with global cinematic forms, she demonstrates that it is an especially malleable impulse that routinely pushes Hindi film into new formal and stylistic territories. Sen also argues that gender is a particularly accommodating stage on which the supernatural rehearses its most basic compulsions; thus, the interface between gender and genre provides an exceptionally productive lens into Hindi cinema's negotiation of the modern and the global. Haunting Bollywood reveals that the supernatural's unruly energies continually resist containment, even as they partake of and sometimes subvert Hindi cinema's most enduring pleasures from songs and stars to myth and melodrama. BUSINESS OF cinema.COM, The Millennial Woman in Bollywood Maithili Shyam Rao, 2020-11-30 The subtitle says it all: how and why Bollywood found it worthwhile to explore the reality of the millennial women who are thriving in India: a small part of the demographics but very influential. Advertising discovered women as The Hindi film Heroine is a brand, and brand ambassador. The market met contemporary women who are independent with freer attitudes to relationships, including pre-marital sex. Rom-coms of the new millennium reflect this new-found freedom, defying patriarchy that still defines our society. Globalisation is culturally irreversible. From the 1990s onwards, Bollywood has responded to globalisation with fear of loss of identity and desire to integrate with global trends. It results in popular cinema becoming glocal. Bollywood celebrates nonconformists, subversive women as the hero stories in their own way, unequivocally said No means No. Most daringly, iconic characters like Choti Bahu, Paro, and Chandramukhi transformed into today's women.
