Arctic Memories Living With The Inuit Travel Writing:

Arctic Memories Fred Bruemmer, 1993 He is known affectionately as the man from the south who eats our food just like an Inuk In Arctic Memories Bruemmer fondly recalls in words and photographs his fascinating life among the northernmost people of the world

The Memory of Nature in Aboriginal, Canadian and American Contexts Françoise Besson, Claire Omhové, Héliane Ventura, 2014-06-12 This volume engages the reader's interest in the relationship that binds man to nature a relationship which makes itself manifest through certain literary or visual artefacts produced by Native or non Native writers and artists It ranges from the study of literatures mainly from Canada including Quebec and Acadia but also from Britain the United States of America France Turkey and Australia to the exploration of films photographs paintings and sculptures produced by Aboriginal artists from North America Thanks to a relational paradigm founded on spatial and temporal enlargement it reimagines the critical outlook on indigenous production by instigating a dialogue between endogenous and exogenous scholars novelists and artists and by weaving together interdisciplinary approaches spanning anthropology geology ecocriticism and the study of myths From the writings by Scott Momaday to those by Tomson Highway from Pauline Johnson to Louise Erdrich or from the photographs by William McFarlane Notman and Edward Burtynsky or the films by Randy Redroad to the paintings by Emily Carr it explores art as the sedimentation of nature It simultaneously interrogates the representation of nature and the nature of representation as a geological and generic process inscribed in the history of mankind Without eclipsing differences and imposing a reified Eurocentric critical discourse upon indigenous productions this volume does not colonize indigenous texts or indulge in cultural appropriation of works of art but looks for historical mythological or geological traces of the past a past characterized by the intimacy between man and animal man and rock or man and plant a past which is allowed to resurface through the creative and critical outlooks that are bestowed upon its subagent or subterranean existence It resurfaces not as nostalgic memory but as an interactive fertilization giving the present a new life in which the non human provides a key to the understanding of the human bond to nature

The Arctic in the British imagination 1818-1914 Rob David, 2017-03-01 The Arctic region has been the subject of much popular writing This book considers nineteenth century representations of the Arctic and draws upon an extensive range of evidence that will allow the widest connections to emerge from a cross disciplinary analysis using different methodologies and subject matter It positions the Arctic alongside more thoroughly investigated theatres of Victorian enterprise In the nineteenth century most images were in the form of paintings travel narratives lectures given by the explorers themselves and photographs The book explores key themes in Arctic images which impacted on subsequent representations through text painting and photography For much of the nineteenth century national and regional geographical societies promoted exploration and rewarded heroic endeavor The book discusses images of the Arctic which originated in the activities of the geographical societies The Times provided very low key reporting of Arctic expeditions as evidenced by its coverage of the missions of Sir John Franklin and James Clark Ross However the illustrated weekly became one of the main sources of popular representations of the Arctic The book looks at the exhibitions of Arctic peoples Arctic exploration and Arctic fauna in Britain Late nineteenth century exhibitions which featured the Arctic were essentially nostalgic in tone The Golliwogg's Polar Adventures published in 1900 drew on adult representations of the Arctic and will have confirmed and reinforced children's perceptions of the region Text books board games and novels helped to keep the subject alive among the young

Ethics of Alaska Travel Writing since 1959 Benjamin Ferguson, 2025-08-28 This book digs into environmental themes in Alaska travel writing since U S statehood in 1959 drawing on the works of six authors including Barry Lopez Jonathan Raban Tom Lowenstein and others Each work though disparate in style advocates for the empowerment of the Alaska Native people by connecting not only with diverse perspectives but with the lived realities in the geographical spaces that have formed them In analyzing how these authors have succeeded in depicting the realities of alterities and where they have perhaps fallen short by more recent standards we may begin to carve out a system of ethics This is important as fresh waves of travel writers search for their own place in the environmental conversations surrounding the ever evolving 21st century Arctic and its place on the front lines of a changing climate

Handbook of Pre-Modern Nordic Memory Studies Jürg Glauser, Pernille Hermann, Stephen A. Mitchell, 2018-11-19 In recent years the field of Memory Studies has emerged as a key approach in the Humanities and Social Sciences and has increasingly shown its ability to open new windows on Nordic Studies as well. The entries in this book document the work to date of this approach on the pre-modern Nordic world, mainly the Viking Age and the Middle Ages, but including as well both earlier and later periods. Given that Memory Studies is an ever-expanding critical strategy, the approximately eighty contributors in this volume also discuss the potential for future research in this area. Topics covered range from texts to performance to visual and other aspects of material culture, all approached from within an interdisciplinary framework. International specialists coming from such relevant fields as archaeology, mythology, history of religion, folklore, history, law, art, literature, philology, language, and mediality offer assessments on the relevance of Memory Studies to their disciplines and show it at work in case studies. Finally, this handbook demonstrates the various levels of culture where memory had a critical impact in the pre-modern North and how deeply embedded the role of memory is in the material itself.

Lobsticks and Stone Cairns Richard Clarke Davis,1996 Lobsticks and stone cairns are landmarks that mark paths and commemorate events The one hundred biographies in this book also offer themselves as paths to be taken Centuries of human endeavour hardship folly and suffering are collapsed into stories through which we can discover what the Arctic is and has been Profiled in this book are human landmarks dating from as far back as the sixteenth century to those still active in the North today Included are stories of adventurers military officers authors guides culture heroes police traders and even the occasional charlatan The biographies are of Inuit European American Indian and Canadian men and women What appears here is the essence of each person rendered by an expert and put in a new context bringing the history and geography of the North to life

Critical Studies of the Arctic Marjo Lindroth, Heidi Sinevaara-Niskanen, Monica Tennberg, 2022-10-01 This book is a pioneering effort in critical Arctic studies The contributions identify and investigate some of the blind spots in human development in the Arctic that research in the social sciences had yet to broach To this end the authors tap a variety of critical approaches in fields spanning aesthetics affect theory biopolitics critical geopolitics Indigenous archaeology intersectionality legal anthropology moral economy narrative studies neoliberal governmentality queer studies and socio legal studies The chapters probe topics such as representations of the Arctic in contemporary art the role of affects in postcolonial Greenland Canada s Arctic policies and China s engagement with the Arctic The book provides a rich knowledge base for researchers in Arctic social sciences and offers an absorbing textbook for students interested in Arctic issues

Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan, 2002 In Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Ren e Hulan disputes the notion that the north is a source of distinct collective identity for Canadians Through a synthesis of critical historical and theoretical approaches to northern subjects in literary studies she challenges the epistemology used to support this idea By investigating mutually dependent categories of identity in literature that depicts northern peoples and places Hulan provides a descriptive account of representative genres in which the north figures as a central theme including autobiography adventure narrative ethnography fiction poetry and travel writing She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples Reading against the background of contemporary ethnographic literary and cultural theory Hulan maintains that the collective Canadian identity idealized in many works representing the north does not occur naturally but is artificially constructed in terms of characteristics inflected by historically contingent ideas of gender and race such as self sufficiency independence and endurance and that these characteristics are evoked to justify the nationhood of the Canadian state Geospatial Technology Pasquale

Imperatore, Antonio Pepe, 2016-09-08 The pervasive relevance of geospatial information and the development of emerging geospatial technologies offer new opportunity for bridging the gap between remote sensing scientific know how and end users of products and services Geospatial technology comprises tools and techniques dealing with the use of spatially referenced information for the description and modeling of spatial and dynamic phenomena related to the Earth s environment This book addresses environmental and social applications of geospatial technologies thus also providing a multidisciplinary perspective on emerging geospatial techniques and tools It consists of ten chapters offering insight into geospatial technology progress and trends Authors present several application oriented studies from various parts of the world including applications in collaborative geomatics geospatial statistics GIS agriculture and natural hazard monitoring

Franz Boas Among the Inuit of Baffin Island, 1883-1884 Franz Boas, 1998-01-01 In the summer of 1883 fledgling anthropologist Franz Boas spent a year among the Inuit of Cumberland Sound Baffin Island This book presents in English his letters and journal entries from the year that he spent among the Inuit Monuments and Memory, Made and Unmade

Robert S. Nelson, Margaret Olin, 2003 Examining how monuments preserve memory these essays demonstrate how phenomena as diverse as ancient drum towers in China and ritual whale killings in the Pacific Northwest serve to represent and negotiate time
