Arena King Of The Flat Tracks:

Arena Tyler Tayrien, 2014-11-08 Sam Arena was without a doubt the top Northern California half mile racer of the 1940s. He became a motorcycle racing legend from his undefeated seasons and by setting numerous flat track records in the 1930s and 1940s and later earned six National Hill Climb Championships throughout the 1940s and 1950s. After a career of racing throughout the Western United States, Florida, New Zealand, and England, Sam retired from flat track racing in 1947 to focus on motorcycle hill climbs. From where Sam left off, local riders such as Al Rudy, Larry Headrick, and Joe Leonard, collectively known as the San Jose Bunch, began dominating in their sport under the watchful eye of Tom Sifton. In 1953, after working for famed innovator Sifton for 20 years, Sam became owner of the San Jose Harley Davidson dealership, which was the center of Northern California racing throughout the 1950s during the golden age of motorcycle racing. Set against the excitement of motorcycle racing, ARENA King of the Flat Tracks takes you on a thrill ride through 25 years in the life of the great Sam Arena and these modern day pony express riders who risked life and limb on Friday nights and Sunday afternoons to cross the finish line first.

The Abbey Habit Graham Cooke, 2016-02-22 2015 was a tumultuous year for all at The Abbey. We had to adapt our pits to the eventual loss of our away pit complex, manage when three members of the seven man squad were injured in our first meeting, enjoy watching Rider of the Year Greg Zengota emerge from a good 3rd heat leader into a real star both on and off the track, welcome Darcy Ward to the team mid season and then marvel at his amazing skills as he turned the season around for the Robins, cope with the dreadful news that emerged from Poland one Sunday afternoon that Darcy had been terribly injured in a track crash and would not ride again, manage the end of the season and playoff disappointment, resurrect the training track in the centre green and stage a junior championship round during the Farewell meeting and then face up to the fact that delays would almost certainly mean that we would be racing at the old place for at least part of 2016.

330 pages, 1084 photographs and 104 000 words, this is the story of 2015 at Swindon Speedway. American Motorcyclist, 2002-10. American Motorcyclist magazine, the official journal of the American Motorcyclist Association, tells the stories of the people who make motorcycling the sport that it is.
