Armies In The Balkans 1914 18 Men At Arms:

Armies in the Balkans 1914-18 Nigel Thomas, Dusan Babac, 2012-05-20 A comprehensive overview of the troops involved in the First World War campaigns in Southeastern Europe. It was events in the Balkans which sparked off the Great War with the assassination of the Austrian heir Prince Franz Ferdinand in Sarajevo and the consequent invasion of Serbia by Austro-Hungarian armies on 2 August 1914. Nevertheless the subsequent four year war in that theatre is always overshadowed by the simultaneous campaigns on the Western Front. For the first time this book offers a concise account of these complex campaigns, the organisation, orders of battle and the uniforms and insignia of the armies involved: Austro-Hungarian, German, Ottoman, Serbian, Montenegrin, Albanian, British, French, Italian, Russian, Bulgarian, Greek and Rumanian.

Osprey Men-At-Arms Martin Windrow, 2012-01-20 Osprey Men at Arms A Celebration is a very special volume detailing some of the wonderful artwork that has graced Osprey's renowned Men at Arms series over the last forty years. Beautifully presented in luxurious cloth, embossed and foil blocked with head and tails bands and a ribbon bookmark, the collection contains the most treasured illustrations from the vast archives of this respected series and is a classic collectable item for all military history enthusiasts.

The Austro-Hungarian Forces in World War I (1) Peter Jung, 2003-05-20 The part played in World War I 1914-1918 by the army of the Austro-Hungarian Dual Monarchy is little known to English speakers perhaps because the end of the war saw the complete destruction of the Empire. Yet it was of central importance, providing nearly all Central Powers forces on the Italian front, huge numbers on the Russian front, seven Army Corps in the Balkans and even a little known contingent in Turkey and Palestine. The first half of the story of this complex multi-national organization at war is described here in a concise but detailed text supported by data tables and an insignia chart and illustrated with rare photographs and colourful uniform plates.

World War I Trench Warfare (1) Stephen Bull, 2002-02-25 Osprey's survey of trench warfare tactics of World War I 1914-1918. The regular armies which marched off to war in 1914 were composed of massed riflemen screened by cavalry and supported by artillery; their leaders expected a quick and decisive outcome achieved by sweeping manoeuvre, bold leadership and skill at arms. Eighteen months later the whole nature of field armies and their tactics had changed utterly. In sophisticated trench systems forming a battlefield a few miles wide and 400 miles long, conscript armies sheltered from massive long range bombardment, wielding new weapons according to new tactical doctrines. This first of two richly illustrated studies explains in detail the specifics of that extraordinary transformation, complete with ten full colour plates of uniforms and equipment.
