

For My Wonderful
Grandson
On Your Birthday

I'm sending a dove to heaven
With a parcel on its wings,
Be careful when you open it
It's full of beautiful things.
Inside it are a million kisses
Wrapped in a million hugs,
To say how much I miss you
And send you all my love.
I hold you deep within my heart
And there you will remain,
To walk beside me in my life
Until we meet again.

On This Side of Heaven Pamela Jackson, 2006 Fresh out of seminary school Ben Montague had expectations of serving God when he became associate pastor of First Covenant Chapel The tiny country church was just the place to get his career off on the right foot That was until he started working with the Reverend Bob Buck Five years away from retirement and on a personal mission to show his worth to others from his past Buck's motives start to become increasingly apparent to Ben It starts with something as small as omitting hymnal songs from the services but when Buck suggests an 8.5 million loan for a new sanctuary Ben knows he has boarded a sinking ship Buck's true character gradually begins to reveal itself through greed and egotism all the while insisting his actions are motivated by an effort to express God's love A realistic and at times shocking glimpse into the ugly side of organized religion On This Side of Heaven is a page turner that teaches an important lesson God is in the Church but the Church is not God

Let a Shepherd Be Your Guide Jacob Nathaniel Sheperd, 2013-01-18 You will feel the inspiration of Jesus when you read the poems in this book The poet points to a lifelong love of limericks as the influence behind his poetic endeavors They are religious largely inspired by his Christian upbringing Although his first poem was written at the age of eighty two a desire to share his love for Jesus poetically has resulted in a large collection of poems not only about Jesus but also about everyday events in the long life of a dedicated Christian The poet follows strict rules so all the poems rhyme and are constructed that they make excellent lyrical and metrical subjects for reading to others

messy Sometimes we lose touch with God in the mess but usually he is found in the mess Over a period of forty years as a pastor I have had to deal with families in distress children who were unmanageable divorces suicides racism men and women who have sought release from toxic religion religious bigotry Christian judgmentalism tragic loss of loved ones disenchantment with organized religion and youth and adults who wavered between faith and doubt and feeling guilty about it I have had conversations with atheists and agnostics who were interested in spirituality but could not find a church or a form of Christianity that would listen to their stories and their struggle to find peace outside themselves I have stood next to hospital beds watching patients slowly lose touch with life and reality These short stories represent God winks I received when thinking about the raw edges of life stories sprinkled with both humor and honest reflection The Promises of God Clarence Warner, 2005-06 Warner has written daily devotions based on promises from the Bible with illustrations from his varied life experiences They give inspiration pause for thought peace strength and a deeper relationship with God

As I tried to fall asleep that night my thoughts kept returning to the words I had shared with the little girl All of a sudden I remembered Norma Jean and the story she had told me two and a half years before Oh my could it be possible both of them had been telling me of the same little boy I knew then God was trying to tell me something Why else would he have placed these two people in my path more than two years apart There had to be a reason I was there with Jan now So many lives have touched mine and their stories are waiting to be heard Within these pages are the joys the pain the understanding the love the laughter and God's plan in each circumstance Each word is a glimpse into the inner being behind the face through the eyes which watch the world around me You just never know where God will lead you and you never know what God is leading you to But you can rest in the knowledge He has a plan and a reason for you to be where He places you each and every day of your life Keep your eyes open because it is always there in wait for you to recognize and grasp God's outstretched guiding hand Moment by Moment I Pray Warren Banks, 2020-10-28 This is part 2 of Moment by Moment I Pray which deals with my praying life from September 1 2016 April 30 2017 The story behind part 2 is the same as that of part 1 which dealt with my prayer life from February 10 2016 and ends on August 31 2016 I found myself alone after the funeral of my beloved wife Annie Jewel Chief Banks We had been together almost fifty years The funeral was held on Monday January 5 2015 at Ben Hill UMC located in the heart of the Ben Hill community After a forty plus mile drive to our birth home of Griffin Georgia she was laid to rest Three days after her funeral I took my original manuscript from a storage area in the house that we had made our home and had raised our family and went out into the backyard and destroyed all twenty six thousand handwritten pages I did not see the need to continue writing or to live But that was January 8 2015 I looked up into the heavens and asked the Lord what he wanted me to do I said Lord I have pulled myself up from a small town in the state of Georgia named Griffin Georgia I had completed Fairmont High School entered Clark College now known as Clark Atlanta University completion date was May 1970 completed Woodrow Wilson College of Law Georgia State University Schools of Education for my first teacher's certification to teach school and the School of Management From 1966 1970 I completed my degree in sociology and psychology During my senior year at Clark I married the love of my life Miss Annie Jewel Hosely my high school sweetheart also from Griffin Georgia We set up housekeeping in Atlanta Georgia But in January 1971 I was drafted into the Army and I was shipped to the Republic of South Vietnam to serve a tour of duty as a squad leader in a military police unit I worked very hard and I was promoted to the rank of sergeant E5 I survived Vietnam and many other situations but Chief's death took a toll upon the very essence of my soul But on February 12 2016 I started back writing and after a talk with the Lord on September 17 2018 I had handwritten about three thousand pages At this point I asked the Lord Lord what do you want me to do A soft but firm voice came to me Warren my son I want you to publish your story which you have written in the form of a continued prayer Well looking back upon my life the Lord has always been there for me even when I thought my life was over About seven days later I was listening to my favorite gospel radio station I heard his message If you are considering publishing your manuscript call this number or go to this website I was not quick enough to get the information down therefore I missed out on getting the information that I needed to make my contact But a few days later while I was again listening to the same radio station that same message came again This time I was able to get the information that I needed and I made the contact Within the next few minutes I received a phone call The person on the other end of the line said that she had been assigned from the Christian Faith Publishing Company to serve as my literary agent I was told that she would be my guide throughout the production process I was given information that I needed to mail my manuscript to I mailed my manuscript off to the address that was given to me Within a few days I got a call from my agent indicating that my manuscript had been accepted for publication I was really beside myself I have been in constant prayer with my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ He saw so much more in me than I saw in myself He said that he would never leave me nor forsake me and he never has
