Aristotle And The Arabic Tradition:

Aristotle and the Arabic Tradition Ahmed Alwishah, 2015 Aristotle and the Arabic Tradition Ahmed Alwishah, 2015
Examines Aristotle's vast influence upon the medieval Arabic philosophical tradition and includes contributions from every discipline within his corpus Aristotle and the Arabic Tradition Ahmed Alwishah, Josh Hayes, 2015-09-17 Examines Aristotle's vast influence upon the medieval Arabic philosophical tradition and includes contributions from every discipline within his corpus Aristotle and the Arabs Francis E. Peters, 1968 Avicenna and the Aristotelian Tradition Dimitri Gutas, 2022-07-11 This is the second revised and updated edition of this foundational work introducing a reading of Avicenna's philosophical works that is consistent with his intention and purpose in philosophy Its usefulness is enhanced with a new appendix offering a critical inventory of Avicenna's authentic works that incorporates and updates Mahdavi 1954 Greek Philosophers in the Arabic Tradition Dimitri Gutas, 2020-08-26 Professor Gutas deals here with the lives sayings thought and doctrines of Greek philosophers drawn from sources preserved in medieval Arabic translations and for the most part not extant in the original The Arabic texts some of which are edited here for the first time are translated throughout and richly annotated with the purpose of making the material accessible to classical scholars and historians of ancient and medieval philosophy Also discussed are the modalities of transmission from Greek into Arabic the diffusion of the translated material within the Arabic tradition the nature of the Arabic sources containing the material and methodological questions relating to Graeco Arabic textual criticism The philosophers treated include the Presocratics and minor schools such as Cynicism Plato Aristotle and the early Peripatos and thinkers of late antiquity A final article presents texts on the malady of love drawn from both the medical and philosophical problemata physica traditions Logic and Aristotle's Rhetoric and Poetics in Medieval Arabic Philosophy Black, 2022-07-04 This book examines a widespread and often misunderstood doctrine within the medieval Aristotelian tradition namely the inclusion of Aristotle's Rhetoric and Poetics within the scope of the Organon It studies this doctrine as presented by the Islamic philosophers Al Farabi Avicenna and Averroes from a purely philosophical perspective and argues that the logical construal of the arts of rhetoric and poetics is both interesting and illuminating The book begins by examining some prevalent misconceptions regarding the logical interpretation of the Rhetoric and Poetics Chapter two considers the Greek background of the doctrine first through an examination of the Aristotelian divisions of the sciences and then through an examination of the beginnings of the logical classification of the Rhetoric and Poetics among the Greek commentators from the school of Alexandria The remainder of the work is devoted to a detailed consideration of the Arabic philosophers development of the doctrine both their understanding of its general epistemological and logical underpinnings and their elaboration of the specific logical structures upon which poetical and rhetorical discourse is based Consideration is also given to the relationship between contemporary philosophical views of rhetoric and poetics and the views of these medieval authors Aristotle's Meteorology in the Arabico-Latin Tradition Pieter L. Schoonheim, 2021-05-03 Aristotle's

Meteorology a twin set in Mediaeval Text Tradition The Greek text of Aristotle's Meteorology is in places highly problematic Its edition by Fobes 1922 however is a highlight in editorial technique The Arabic version c 800 is of quite different form and content The two editions by Badawi 1961 and Petraitis 1967 were subject to considerable improvement The present edition was done on the basis of the two extant Arabic manuscripts The edition of the Latin translation 12th c from the Arabic has been constituted on the basis of 5 manuscript sources out of 110 copies The status of both the Arabic and the Latin texts was bad but not hopeless as the Latin version stands near to its Arabic predecessor the text of the latter gives support to the editing of the text as well as for the understanding of the contents And this procedure works vice versa The present edition of the texts has been completed with an Index of technical terms in Arabic Greek and Latin and Registers on the Greek and Latin Further a Bibliography and List of Latin manuscripts are presented

Avicenna and the Aristotelian Tradition Dimitri Gutas, 2014-05-22 Through close study of Avicenna's statements and major works Dimitri Gutas traces Avicenna's own sense of his place in the Aristotelian tradition and the history of philosophy in Islam and provides an introduction to reading his philosophical works by delineating the approach most consistent with Avicenna's intention and purpose in philosophy The second edition of this foundational work which has quickened fruitful research into the philosopher in the last quarter century is completely revised and updated and adds a new final chapter summarizing Avicenna's philosophical project It is also enlarged with the addition of a new appendix which offers a critical inventory of Avicenna's authentic works updating the work of Mahdavi 1954 with additional information on all manuscripts and important editions and translations Its usefulness enhanced the book provides primary orientation to Avicenna's philosophy and works and constitutes an indispensable research tool for their study. Winner of the I R Iran World Award for the Book of the Year 2014. Averroes and the Aristotelian Tradition Jan Aertsen, Gerhard Endress, 2022-02-22. Averroes the philosopher was the Commentator of Aristotle. In this the project of his life coincided with the perception of his contemporary readers and with the esteem governing four centuries of European Aristotelianism. It has been the purpose of the 4th Symposium Averroicum to contribute to a better understanding of this philosophy both on the basis of Averroes' works and in the light of his sources. The Symposium held in conjunction with the 6th Editors Conference of the Averrois Opera brought together eminent scholars and researchers on Averroes and adjacent areas. Their contributions are presented in four sections: The Project of Averroes, Averroes and the Hellenistic Commentators, Averroes the Commentator, Averroes and the Latin Tradition. A bibliography of editions and contributions to the text is appended to date 1998. Forms of Representation in the Aristotelian Tradition. Volume One: Sense Perception, 2022-04-11. The trilogy Forms of Representation in the Aristotelian Tradition investigates how Aristotle and his ancient and medieval successors understood the relation between the external world and the human mind. It gives an equal footing to the three most influential linguistic traditions: Greek, Latin, and Arabic, and offers insightful interpretations of historical theories of perception, dreaming, and thinking. This first volume focuses on sense perception and discusses philosophical questions concerning the external senses, their classification, and their functioning from Aristotle to Brentano. Studies on Early Arabic Philosophy Peter Adamson, 2023-04-21. Philosophy in the Islamic world from the 9th to 11th centuries was characterized by an engagement with Greek philosophical works in Arabic translation. This volume collects papers on both the Greek philosophers in their new Arabic guise and on reactions to the translation movement in the period leading up to Avicenna. In a first section, Adamson provides general studies of the formative period of philosophy in the Islamic world, discussing the Arabic reception of Aristotle and of his commentators. He also argues that this formative period was characterized not just by the use of Hellenic materials but also by a productive exchange of ideas between Greek-inspired philosophy (falsafa) and Islamic theology (kalām). A second section considers the underappreciated philosophical impact of Galen, using Arabic sources to understand Galen himself and exploring the thought of the doctor and philosopher al-Rāzī, who drew on Galen as a chief inspiration. A third section looks at al-Fārābī and the so-called Baghdad school of the 10th century, examining their reaction to Aristotle's Metaphysics, his epistemology, and his famous deterministic sea battle argument. A final group of papers is devoted to Avicenna's philosophy, which marks the beginning of a new era of philosophy in the Islamic world. Nicholas of Cusa and the Aristotelian Tradition Emmanuele Vimercati, Valentina Zaffino, 2020-07-06. The volume focuses on the relation between Cusanus and Aristotle or the Aristotelian tradition. In recent years, the attention on this topic has partially increased, but overall the scholarship results are still partial or provisional. The book thus aims at verifying more systematically how Aristotle and Aristotelianism have been received by Cusanus in both their philosophical and theological implications and how he approached the Aristotelian thought In order to answer these questions the papers are structured according to the traditional Aristotelian sciences and their reflection on Cusanus thought This allows to achieve some aspects of interest and originality 1 the book provides a general but systematic analysis of Aristotle s reception in Cusanus thought with some coherent results 2 Also it explores how a philosopher and theologian traditionally regarded as Neoplatonist approached Aristotle and his tradition including Thomas Aquinas what he accepted of it what he rejected and what he tried to overcome 3 Finally the volume verifies the attitude of a relevant Christian philosopher and theologian of the Humanistic age towards Aristotle

Bibliography of Islamic Philosophy, Volume 2 Hans Daiber,2024-03-18 The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004113473 Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri,2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization Medieval Islamic Civilization: L-Z, index Josef W. Meri,2006 Publisher description The Poetics of Alfarabi and Avicenna S. Kemal,2021-09-20 This book is an important and original study of medieval Arabic theories of poetics It examines the commentaries on Aristotle s Poetics by Alfarabi and Avicenna placing them fully in the context of the Arabic development of Aristotle s logical theory In this the author breaks new ground showing how the philosophers justified the logical and moral power of poetics discourse Its concern for philosophical issues in the Classical Arabic tradition distinguishes this book from other studies of literary theory

Islamic Thought in the Dialogue of Cultures Hans Daiber,2015-08-28 Islamic thought is the most beautiful result of a multicultural dialogue Islamic culture became a bridge between antiquity Iranian scholars Syriac and Arabic Christians and the Latin Middle Ages Its richness of ideas its plurality of values can contribute to the requirements of modern plurality The monograph aims at a historical and bibliographical survey of the qur'anic and rational world view of early Islam of the period of translations from Greek into Syriac and Arabic and of the impact of Islamic thought on the Latin Middle Ages Critical reflexions of Muslim scholars stimulated new scientific ideas and make us aware of the contribution of Islam to humanity
