The Ethics of Special Education, Second Edition Kenneth R. Howe, Amy L. Boelé, Ofelia B. Miramontes, 2018-06-08
Updated to include changes in the field this new edition addresses ethical issues that are most pressing to special education teachers and administrators Using a case based approach students are encouraged to reason and collaborate about due process the distribution of educational resources institutional unresponsiveness professional relationships conflicts among parents and teachers and confidentiality Something's Gotta Give Beth R. Bernhardt, Leah H. Hinds, Katina P. Strauch, 2012 The theme of the 2011 Charleston Conference the annual event that explores issues in book and serial acquisition was Something's Gotta Give The conference held November 2-5 2011 in Charleston SC included 9 pre meetings more than 10 plenaries and over 120 concurrent sessions The theme reflected the increasing sense of strain felt by both libraries and publishers as troubling economic trends and rapid technological change challenge the information supply chain What part of the system will buckle under this pressure Who will be the winners and who will be the losers in this stressful environment The Charleston Conference continues to be a major event for information exchange among librarians vendors and publishers As it begins its fourth decade the Conference is one of the most popular international meetings for information professionals with almost 1,500 delegates Conference attendees continue to remark on the informative and thought provoking sessions The Conference provides a collegial atmosphere where librarians vendors and publishers talk freely and directly about issues facing libraries and information providers In this volume the organizers of the meeting are pleased to share some of the learning experiences that they and other attendees had at the conference Handbook of College Science Teaching Joel J. Mintzes, 2006 The Handbook offers models of teaching and learning that go beyond the typical lecture laboratory format and provides rationales for new practices in the college classroom It is ideal for graduate teaching assistants senior faculty and graduate coordinators and mid career professors in search of reinvigoration
