

Brave New World Socratic Seminar

Instructions: Ask your all three following questions and your group will judge each other's answers. There's also a card on which you can write down your thoughts (including their names, questions, answers, and so on). So support your arguments. You may choose to cheat. On this argument, your work, but this is not required. After I finish your responses, I will look at the evidence. Your evidence doesn't have to support your point of view. You have to argue and participate. Information from reliable sources. You can use your opinion as well as facts and it is properly supported. I do not care if you think I am wrong, I am here to think.

Directions: The facilitator will be responsible for making, clarifying, and ensuring everyone's voice is heard in discussion.
