

Brief – Fernel Abrahams

Strofe 1

Mammie, ek skryf ook vir Ma 'n kaalvoet gedig

(Mom, I am also writing a simple poem)

sommer so, nes Antjie

(Just like Antjie)

maar ek gebruik soms leestekens

(But I occasionally use punctuation)

en ek sal nie vir Mamma “jy” sê nie

(And I won't call you “you”) want dit hoort vir my

(Because to me that belongs...)

nes plastieklomme en wit skoene

(Just like plastic flowers and white shoes)

nie by Ma nie.

(Not with you, Mother)

Brief By F R Abrahams In English:

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Experimental Translation

Lily Robert-Foley, 2024-02-27 The history and future of an alternative oppositional translation practice The threat of machine translation has given way to an alternative experimental practice of translation that reflects upon and hijacks traditional paradigms In much the same way that photography initiated a break in artistic practices with the threat of an absolute fidelity to the real machine translation has paradoxically liberated human translators to err to diverge to tamper with the original blurring creation and imitation with cyborg collage and appropriation Seven chapters reimagine seven classic procedures of translation theory and pedagogy borrowing calque literal translation transposition modulation equivalence and adaptation updating them for the material political and poetic concerns of the contemporary era Each chapter combines reflections from translation studies and experimental literature with practical guides sets of experimental translation procedures to try at home or abroad in the classroom the laboratory the garden the dance hall the city the kitchen the library the shopping center the supermarket the train the bus the airplane the post office on the radio on your phone on your computer and on the internet Education in France ,1960 Jews in the Gym Leonard Jay Greenspoon,2012 For some the connection between Jews and athletics might seem far fetched But in fact as is highlighted by the fourteen chapters in this collection Jews have been participating in and thinking about sports for more than two thousand years The articles in this volume cover a wide chronological range from the Hellenistic period first century BCE to the most recent basketball season The range of athletes covered is equally broad The authors of these essays raise a number of intriguing questions such as What differing attitudes toward sports have Jews exhibited across periods and cultures In what sports have Jews excelled and why How have Jews overcome prejudices on the part of the general populace against a Jewish presence on the field or in the ring This volume features a number of illustrations many of them quite rare It is accessible to the general reader and contains much information of interest to the scholar in Jewish studies American studies and sports history

The British Essayists, 1827 Publishing Africa in French Ruth Bush, 2016

The history of post war writing in French has tended to separate African literature from French metropolitan literary production The same separation resonates in today's global French literary marketplace still dominated by Parisian publishing houses and metropolitan literary kudos This study historicises the aesthetic and socio economic implications of that evident asymmetry Archival research combines with literary analysis to explore the mediations that defined and legitimated notions of language authorship and literary value during the decolonizing vingt glorieuses Revealing known and less known connections between institutions such as Pr sence Africaine Editions du Seuil Gallimard and the Association descrivains de la mer et de l'outre mer the author argues that a contested and variegated African literary presence was widely dispersed across the metropolitan publishing scene in this period These material aspects of book production and distribution are inextricably entangled with ongoing debates over the representation of Africa in words Authors whose work is considered in detail include Abdoulaye Sadj, Cheikh Hamidou Kane Christine Garnier Malick Fall Chinua Achebe and Peter Abrahams Publishing Africa in French uses an innovative interdisciplinary methodology to contribute fresh insights and new material to current concerns in French Studies African Studies the sociology of literature and book history
