

Bullying

Have you ever been bullied before?
Do you know how much it can hurt you?
Tell them to stop, but they do it some more,
And then it leaves you feeling blue,

They call you names like 'freak' and 'emo',
They punch, slap, scratch and kick,
You beg them to stop but they laugh and say no,
And still they continue to take the mick,

But now you're tired and running out of steam,
And you feel like your world is caving in,
You feel like you want to scream and scream,
You feel like you can never win,

The whole worlds against you and no ones your friend,
Your heart now black with sorrow and pain,
You just want all this pain to end,
Cause all this pain and madness is driving you insane,

You want to get a knife, a rope or a pill,
You let out a deep depressing sigh, Maybe if things get worse you really will,
Cause right now the only way to escape is to die,

(BULLYING MUST STOP)

Hillebrecht, Bruno Arich-Gerz, Martin Kuhn, Jan Bürger, 2025-03-10 The project Narrating Africa began with an international symposium at the Deutsches Literaturarchiv in Marbach in September 2019 discussing the project and how to narrate Africa from academic perspectives Scholars from Germany Switzerland and Namibia engaged in intense discussions on a wide range of texts genres and research methodologies for two days This book contains some of the papers presented at the 2019 symposium as well as further presentations on narrating Africa Like the open space project this publication does not presume to give an answer to the difficult question of how to narrate Africa but rather it seeks to offer further insights into the field with a special focus on Namibian narrations This book is divided into four different sections The first part aims to provide an introductory overview to and reflections of the project s main theme narrating Africa In part two identity is explored and re considered along various literary texts and with a particular focus on questions of gender The third part focuses on oral literature and questions of time and memory Finally the last chapters are dedicated to the archive and colonialism exploring a variety of archive materials in Marbach and in Windhoek and how they take up and shape facts and fantasies of Namibia and Africa Gender and Sexuality in South African Music Chris Walton, Stephanus Muller, 2005-05-01 During the past two decades the study of sexuality and gender in music has become a decidedly mainstream activity To be sure music has long been obviously and intimately involved in matters pertaining to relations both sexual and otherwise between and amongst the sexes Its use in courtship is the one that perhaps first comes to mind this use being probably as old as music itself This book contains all the papers presented at the conference by the same name The Boy Trevor Herron, 2014-05-27 The Boy is a fictionalized version of how one thirteen year old child makes a difference in changing the face of apartheid in South Africa In 1976 Jonah Moloi stands up to the new law making Afrikaans the official language taught in schools This language was considered the language of the white oppressors The children s decisive action eventually brought about the end of apartheid Jonah becomes the living symbol for equality and freedom The novel follows Jonah as he leads the children through a hail of police bullets leaving behind an efficient protest system before he is forced to flee The Boy And a Child Shall Lead Them will resonate with readers who believe in justice and shows how one person can make a difference Trevor Herron was born in

Selected Poetry Roy Campbell,1968 Terra Incognita Dorman, Nerine,2015-01-23 In Terra Incognita Short Story Day Africa is proud to present nineteen stories of speculative fiction Contained within the pages are stories that explore among other things the sexual magnetism of a tokoloshe a deadly feud with a troop of baboons a journey through colonial purgatory along with ghosts re imagined folklore and the fear of that which lies beneath both land and water Terra Incognita Uncharted depths Africa unknowable New Nation ,1970 African Culture and Global Politics Toyin Falola,Danielle

Sanchez,2014-01-10 This volume attempts to insert itself within the larger discussion of Africa in the twenty first century especially within the realm of world politics Despite the underwhelming amount of attention given to Africa s role in international politics in popular news sources it is evident that Africa has a consistent record of participating in world politics one that pre dates colonization and continues today In continuance of this legacy of active participation in global political exchanges Africans today can be heard in dialogues that span the world and their roles are impossible to replace by other entities It is evident that a vastly different Africa exists than ones that bolster images of starvation corruption and compliance The essays in this volume center on Africa and Africans participating in international political discourses but with an emphasis on various forms of expression and philosophies as these factors heavily influence Africa s role as a participant in global politics The reader will find a variety of essays that permeate surface discussions of politics and political activism by inserting African culture rhetoric philosophies into the larger discussion of international politics and Africa s role in worldwide political social and economic debates The Companion to African Literatures G.
