A Collection of Poetry about Anti- Bullying Elise Sharron, 2022-02-03 A term that everyone around the world has become very aware of is bullying There are so many disappointing aspects of this personality trait and the more it happens the more disappointing it becomes Unfortunately students report being bullied as young as kindergarten four things that they don't even understand and sometimes things that they have no control over like their race or socioeconomic status The biggest misstep is that the adults in the room are not always doing everything that they can to support students who are being bullied address and educate students who are the bullies as well as creating a safety net for all students in all aspects of their young life This collection deals with anti bullying In Burnt Cake we use the metaphor of a burnt cake to connect with a teenager that is experiencing bullying and can't quite find the words to ask their parents for help In Stand Up we experience the honest truth about what we are not seeing and are not addressing in the presence of this bullying culture In When I Have a Kid we hear someone express all of the things that they are and are not going to do in an effort to support their child Because at the end of the day supporting children is important because at some point they will grow up to be the adults that lead our world We must make anti bullying a priority to keep this generation safe as well as the next
