A Woman Like That Lesbian And Bisexual Writers Tell Their:

A Woman Like That Joan Larkin, 2009-10-13 The act of coming out has the power to transform every aspect of a woman's life family friendships career sexuality spirituality An essential element of self realization it is the unabashed acceptance of one's outlaw standing in a predominantly heterosexual world These accounts sometimes heart wrenching often exhilarating encompass a wide breadth of backgrounds and experiences From a teenager institutionalized for her passion for women to the mother who must come out to her young sons at the risk of losing them from the cautious academic to the raucous liberated femme each woman represented here tells of forging a unique path toward the difficult but emancipating recognition of herself Extending from the 1940s to the present day these intensely personal stories in turn reflect a unique history of the changing social mores that affected each woman's ability to determine the shape of her own life Together they form an ornate tapestry of lesbian and bisexual experience in the United States over the past half century Married

Women Who Love Women Carren Strock, 2009-04-15 This book is about women in heterosexual marriages who discover or come to terms with their lesbianism or bisexuality It answers questions such as how women make this discovery what they do once they realize their same gender sexuality how family and friends deal with the situation and what happens to marriages and families This second edition contains a new introduction three new chapters a glossary of gay related terms and a new list of additional reading The Therapist's Notebook for Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Clients Joy S. Female and Trans* Masculinities and Other Queer Crossings Nina Kane,Jude Woods,2017-06-23 This collection of essays emerged out of the Agender conference and various queer cultural activities associated with the PoMoGaze project Leeds Art Gallery 2013 2015 PoMoGaze was a term created to promote queer co curatorial projects held at the gallery as part of Community Engagement activities and references PoMo as a shortening of Postmodern combined with Gaze as a play on words linking the act of looking with LGBT IQ activities The book presents many voices exploring themes of female and trans masculinities gender equality and the lives work and activism of LGBT IQ artists and thinkers It includes discussion of arts making cultural materials diverse identities contemporary queer politics and social histories and travels across time telling gender crossing stories of creative resistance Readers with an interest in the performing and visual arts literature philosophy and queer and gendered cultural readings with an intersectional emphasis will be stimulated by this eclectic and thought provoking collection Not in This Family Heather Murray,2012-02-10 Many Americans hold fast to the notion that gay men and women more often than not have been ostracized from disapproving families Not in This Family challenges this myth and shows how kinship ties were an animating force in gay culture politics and consciousness throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Historian Heather Murray gives voice to gays and their parents through an extensive use of introspective writings particularly personal correspondence and diaries as well as through published memoirs fiction poetry song lyrics movies and visual and print media Starting in the late 1940s and 1950s Not in This Family covers the entire postwar period including the gay liberation and lesbian feminist movements of the 1960s and 1970s the establishment of PFLAG Parents Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays and the AIDS crisis of the 1980s and 1990s Ending her story with an examination of contemporary coming out rituals Murray shows how the personal that was once private became political and finally public In exploring the intimate reciprocal relationship of gay children and their parents Not in This Family also chronicles larger cultural shifts in privacy discretion and public revelation and the very purpose of family relations Murray

shows that private bedrooms and consumer culture social movements and psychological fashions all had a part to play in transforming the modern family

A Lesbian Gay Guide to Selecting the Best-Fit College or University and Enjoying the College Years Donald W. Hinrichs, 2007-05-15 My brother wrote this book based on his own experiences and the experiences of hundreds of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender students he counseled talked to and interviewed over the course of his 40 year teaching career The confusion he experienced during college and the distress and intolerance he witnessed and heard about from students lead him to realize that some college and university environments are simply not healthy places for LGBT young people to learn and grow and to sort out their own sexuality This book documents the problems LGBT students might encounter on campus and provides advice on how LGBT students can select the best fit college or university for them Bill Hinrichs

Ungrateful Daughters Justyna Włodarczyk, 2010-08-11 Has the third wave of feminism in the United States spawned a literary movement Is there a third wave equivalent of the consciousness raising novel A lot has been written about the relationship of the third wave of feminism in the United States to the second wave yet no one has examined works by young female writers as belonging to the third wave of feminism This book fills the gap Using tools of literary criticism to analyze the literary output of third wave feminism in the United States Ungrateful Daughters looks at the main anthologies of third wave writings paying attention to their structure production process and narrative forms used in the individual pieces It also attempts to define third wave fiction and analyze the memoirs and novels coming from writers who could be classified as third wave specifically Rebecca Walker Danzy Senna and Michelle Tea tracing how these books exhibit third wave sensibility and reflect generational experiences of third wave writers A lot of attention is devoted to comparisons of second and third wave feminism and the ambivalent relationship of third wave feminism to postfeminism Wendy Kaminer wrote in True Love Waits If it ultimately fails as a liberation movement feminism will at least have achieved considerable literary success Ungrateful Daughters examines whether the literary success helps or hinders the cause of women's liberation

Spaghetti Sissies Queering Italian American Media Julia Heim, Sole Anatrone, 2023-04-28 This contributed volume brings together personal accounts and scholarly research in an examination of the LGBTQIA Italian American experience and representation in North American media This is a population that has long been ignored both as an object of study and as a media maker and consumer Through consistent filmic representation the image of the Italian American has become archetypal leaving us with a set of immediately recognizable characters the hyper macho blue collar greaser the anti intellectual GTL Guido the child obsessed mamma and the heteronormative mafia family The rhetorical and literal loudness of these characters drowns out other possible embodiments of Italian American identity so that few examples survive of Italian Americans that do not conform to these classed heterosexual modes of being This volume fills that void foregrounding the importance of representation and of rethinking the historical narratives and cultural stereotypes surrounding Italian American identity This book is especially designed for those with an interest in queer theory gender and sexuality studies

A Space of Her Own Leela Gulati,Jasodhara

Bagchi,2005-05-01 Several books have been written about the position of women in India s patriarchal society This collection of twelve narratives however focuses not so much on women s subservient position vis a vis men but on women s relations with each other With the authors locating their personal struggles within those of three generations of women in their families these narratives span a period of over a 100 years and intersect both the private and public domains Each narrative in A Space of Her Own is a tale of how the author fought to establish her own personhood and create a sphere of autonomy where she is able to make decisions to nurture herself and those around her It is stories such as these the editors argue which when repeated over generations will inspire women to live with dignity and to create and defend lives for themselves their families and the women who follow them

Keeping Family Secrets Margaret K. Nelson,2022 Drawing on 160
