Atlas of World Art John Onians,2004 Combines a survey of world art with maps showing the associations and dissemination of culture across the globe Cultural Critique Through the Detour of Art Kris Rutten,Keyan G. Tomaselli,2025-06-30 This book brings together a selection of articles that have been published throughout a series of special issues of the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies that originally focused on the so called ethnographic turn in contemporary arts An increasing wave of art events has occurred since the 1990s that have displayed significant similarities with anthropology and ethnography in their theorizations of cultural difference and representational practices The aim of these works was to revisit the ethnographic turn in contemporary art by bringing together contributions from theorists artists and critics to engage critically with the ethnographic perspective in their work This focus on the ethnographic turn has been expanded in subsequent special issues to explore how culture and society can be critically explored and challenged through the detour of art how contemporary art practices engage with participation interaction and technology in an increasingly digital screen culture and what the role can be of critical art to conceptualize contest and or develop an engaged and critical pedagogy This collection aims to re expose the special issues to an international audience by presenting a non exhaustive selection of articles that exemplify the different perspectives and discussions that are tackled throughout It starts with three of the introductory articles that have attracted large readerships and that give a detailed introduction for the special issues The compilation ends with three so called Vignettes these are short statements and reflections by artists about their practice which are an important feature of the special issues Inside Abstraction Carolyn Dean,2025-09-23 Illuminating the abstract art of the Inka what it conveys about Inka values and its relationship to those who view it Inka visual culture is unusual in its tendency toward abstraction Public stonework vessels used at state feasts garments worn by the imperial elite these objects announcing status and power are adorned with geometric designs that refuse figuration After searching in vain for hidden referents many scholars have largely given up the search for meaning Inside Abstraction develops a novel interpretation Eminent art historian Carolyn Dean proposes that Inka geometries are neither ornamental nor coded depictions of other objects Rather Dean shows that in the Andean world the designs were functionally self aware possessing perspectives of their own quite literally looking back at and addressing viewers directly Further Dean contends that these agent abstractions were teachers conveying particular messages concerning social hierarchy the relations among geometries and colors instructed viewers as to their own proper social relations Inka designs thereby served imperial aims by wordlessly communicating the state s values and demands for submission Extensively illustrated and rigorously argued Inside Abstraction is a dramatic step forward in our understanding of Inka art and political order
