A World Of Trouble The Jack Shepherd International Crime Novels Book 3:

A World of Trouble Jake Needham, 2012 Jack Shepherd was sick of Washington politics sick of corporate law and even a little sick of himself So he hit the road looking for a new start made a couple of wrong turns and somehow wound up in Hong Kong Now he needs a job and being General Chalerm Kitnarok's lawyer is a job so he takes it Shepherd could certainly have done a lot worse for himself Charlie Kitnarok is the world's ninety eighth richest man He rules an international corporate empire and controls billions in personal assets But he's also a former prime minister of Thailand now living in exile in Dubai When he's not making money he's plotting his return to political power For Shepherd that could be a real problem Thailand already has a prime minister and she's a woman with whom Shepherd once had a brief relationship It will get particularly messy if as Shepherd suspects Charlie is smuggling arms to his supporters and intends to use the Thai army to seize control of the country Can Shepherd keep his two friends from destroying each other and prevent Thailand from sliding into chaos Thailand is hurtling closer and closer to a bloody civil war And as unlikely as it may sound Jack Shepherd is probably the only person on earth who can stop it
