7000 Days In Siberia:

7,000 Days in Siberia Karlo Štajner, 1988 This memoir of the author's twenty year prison sentence spent in the Gulag Archipelago vividly portrays the harsh realities of Soviet prison camps

7000 Days in Siberia Karlo Štajner, 1989
7000 Days in Siberia Karlo Štajner, 1971 The History of Siberia Igor V. Naumov, 2006-11-22 Siberia has had an interesting history quite distinct from that of Russia Absolutely vast containing many non Russian nationalities and increasingly important at present because of its huge energy reserves Siberia was at one time part of the Mongol Empire was settled relatively late by the Russians and was for a long period a wild frontier zone similar to the American West Providing a comprehensive history of Siberia from the very earliest times to the present this book covers every period of Siberia's history in an accessible way

Russia's Frozen Frontier Alan Wood, 2011-04-15 Told from a Siberian point of view this book seeks to dispel something of the miasma of ignorance and misconception surrounding this vast expanse the planet's land surface its fascinating history its natural environment and most importantly the peoples who live or have lived and died there

The Sacrificed Body Tatjana Aleksic, 2013-10-28 Living in one of the world's most volatile regions the people of the Balkans have witnessed unrelenting political economic and social upheaval In response many have looked to building communities both psychologically and materially as a means of survival in the wake of crumbling governments and states The foundational structures of these communities often center on the concept of individual sacrifice for the good of the whole Many communities however are hijacked by restrictive ideologies turning them into a model of intolerance and exclusion In The Sacrificed Body Tatjana Aleksic examines the widespread use of the sacrificial metaphor in cultural texts and its importance to sustaining communal ideologies in the Balkan region Aleksic further relates the theme to the sanctioning of ethnic cleansing rape and murder in the name of homogeneity and collective identity Aleksic begins her study with the theme of the immurement of a live female body in the foundation of an important architectural structure a trope she finds in texts from all over the Balkans The male builders performing the sacrificial act have been called by a higher power who will ensure the durability of the structure and hence the patriarchal community as a whole In numerous examples ranging from literature to film and performance art Aleksic views the theme of sacrifice and its relation to exclusion based on gender race class sexuality religion or politics for the sake of community building According to Aleksic the sacrifice narrative becomes most prevalent during times of crisis brought on by wars weak governments foreign threats or even globalizing tendencies Because crisis justifies the very existence of restrictive communities communalist ideology thrives on its perpetuation They exist in a symbiotic relationship Aleksic also acknowledges the emancipatory potential of a genuine community after it has shaken off its ideological character Aleksic employs cultural theory sociological analysis and human rights studies to expose a historical narrative that is predominant regionally if not globally As she determines in an era of both Western and non Western neoliberalism elitist hegemony will continue to both threaten and bolster communities along with their

segregationist tactics A Death in Washington Gary Kern,2008-09-10 This is the first book to recover all original documents released by the British archives in 2002 and by the FBI completing the author s ten year study Labor Camp Fouad Sabry,2024-06-03 What is Labor Camp A labor camp or work camp is a detention facility where inmates are forced to engage in penal labor as a form of punishment Labor camps have many common aspects with slavery and with prisons Conditions at labor camps vary widely depending on the operators Convention no 105 of the United Nations International Labour Organization ILO adopted internationally on 27 June 1957 abolished camps of forced labor How you will benefit I Insights and validations about the following topics Chapter 1 Labor camp Chapter 2 Gulag Chapter 3 Laogai Chapter 4 Penal colony Chapter 5 Internment Chapter 6 Katorga Chapter 7 Hoeryong concentration camp Chapter 8 Penal labour Chapter 9 Jaworzno concentration camp Chapter 10 Extermination through labour II Answering the public top questions about labor camp Who this book is for Professionals undergraduate and graduate students enthusiasts hobbyists and those who want to go beyond basic knowledge or information for any kind of Labor Camp Paranoia Luigi Zoja,2017-03-16 Luigi Zoja presents an insightful analysis of the use and misuse of paranoia throughout history and in contemporary society Zoja combines history with depth psychology contemporary politics and tragic literature resulting in a clear and balanced analysis presented with rare clarity The devastating impact of paranoia on societies is explored in detail Focusing on the contagious aspects of paranoia and its infectious self replicating dynamics Zoja takes such diverse examples as Ajax and George W Bush Cain and the American Holocaust Hitler Stalin and Othello to illustrate his argument He reconstructs the emblematic arguments that paranoia has promoted in Western history and examines how the power of the modern media and mass communication has affected how it spreads Paranoia clearly examines how leaders lose control of their influence how the collective unconscious acquires an autonomous life and how seductive its effects can be more so than any political religious or ideological discourse This gripping study will be essential reading for depth and analytical psychologists and academics and students of history cultural studies psychology classical studies literary studies anthropology and sociology

Reconsidering the Postmodern Thomas Vaessens,Yra Dijk,2025-10-01 From Michel Houellebecq to Zadie Smith from Javier Mar as to Arnon Grunberg this timely study takes its reader on a tour of European literature and the critical discussion around it Despite recent declarations of postmodernism s demise contemporary literature turns out to be entangled in a discussion with postmodernism It is time to critically evaluate this legacy Twelve specialists in the national literatures sketch the outlines of the debate Turning to literature itself they find it to be searching for new values after the relativizing force of postmodernism History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2004-01-01 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however Alienation Effects Branislav Jakovljevic, 2016-06-13 Examines the interplay of artistic political and economic performance in the former Yugoslavia and reveals their inseparability Siberia and the Soviet Far East David Norman Collins, 1991 Monte Rosa Jaroslaw Martyniuk, 2017-12-14 A sweeping panorama of the author's life from the outbreak of WWII to the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991 The narrative begins in Ukraine and ends in Paris where he coordinated the work of fifty undercover interviewers engaged in unorthodox research with Soviet visitors in Western Europe a chapter of Cold War history never revealed in such remarkable detail The story includes the author's narrow escape from Communism an account of his extended family's ordeal in the Soviet Gulag life in post war Bavaria thirty years in Chicago and culminates with twelve years in France where he worked for the International Energy Agency and Radio Liberty My Parents: An Introduction / This Does Not Belong to You Aleksandar Hemon, 2019-10-31 Two magnificent memoirs by Aleksandar Hemon presented together in a glorious single edition together they make a major work from one of our major writers In My Parents Aleksandar Hemon tells the story of his parents' immigration to Canada of the lives that were upended by the war in Bosnia and siege of Sarajevo and the new lives his parents were forced to build He portrays both the perfect intimate details of his mother's lonely upbringing his father's fanatical beekeeping and a sweeping heartbreaking history of his native country It is a story of his family and of German occupying forces Yugoslav partisans royalist Serb collaborators singing Ukrainians and a few confused Canadians This Does Not Belong to You is the exhilarating freewheeling unabashedly personal companion to My Parents It shows Hemon at his most dazzling and untempered in a series of beautifully distilled memories and observations about his family friends and childhood in Sarajevo presented as explosive hilarious poignant miniatures Not only is Hemon's book a masterpiece in literary terms it is also a repudiation of the idea of the immigrant as a singular and infantilized creature a human of lesser depth and complexity than everyone else Rafia Zakaria TLS Studies in Diplomacy and Statecraft T. G. Otte, 2022-03-30 The chapters in this edited volume individually and collectively pay homage to Erik Goldstein's contribution to contemporary scholarship in the fields of international history diplomatic studies and international security The book offers insights into the rich tapestry of past and present international relations with differing emphases on political military and cultural aspects While some of the chapters explore the twentieth century British foreign policy apparatus and the different networks of people at work within it others examine the deeper intellectual and other currents that shaped transatlantic ties in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Geopolitics in a historiographical perspective and with a focus on Europe the Eastern Mediterranean and East Asia forms another important strand of this collection All chapters explore periods of wider systemic change in international politics and thus offer reflections on the essential continuities and discontinuities in great power relations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal

Diplomacy Statecraft Holocaust, War and Transnational Memory Stijn Vervaet, 2017-11-23 Until now there has been little scholarly attention given to the ways in which Eastern European Holocaust fiction can contribute to current debates about transnational and transgenerational memory Yugoslav and post Yugoslav literary narratives about the Holocaust offer a particularly interesting case because time and again Holocaust memory is represented as intersecting with other stories of extreme violence with the suffering of the non Jewish South Slav population during the Second World War with the fate of victims of Stalinist terror and with the victims of ethnic cleansing in the Yugoslav wars of the 1990s This book examines the emergence and transformations of Holocaust memory in the socialist Yugoslav and post Yugoslav eras It discusses literary texts about the Holocaust by Yugoslav and post Yugoslav writers situating their oeuvre in the historical and discursive context in which it emerged and paying attention to its reception at the time The book shows how in the writing of different generational groups the survivor generation the 1 5 and the second and third generations the Holocaust is a motif for understanding the nature of extreme violence locally and globally The book offers comparative studies of several authors as well as readings of the work of individual writers It uncovers forgotten authors and discusses internationally well known and translated authors such as Danilo Ki and David Albahari By focusing on work by Jewish and non Jewish authors of three generations it sheds light on the ethical and aesthetical aspects of the transgenerational transmission of Holocaust memory in the Yugoslav context As such this book will appeal to both students and scholars of Holocaust studies cultural memory studies literary studies cultural history cultural sociology Balkan studies and Eastern European politics The Lesser Terror Michael Parrish, 1996-05-16 This is the first major study based on Soviet documents and revelations of the Soviet state security during the period 1939 1953 a period about which relatively little is known The book documents the role of Stalin and the major players in massive crimes carried out during this period against the Soviet people It also provides the first detailed biography of V S Abakumov Minister of State Security 1946 1951 Based on Glasnost revelations and recently released archival material this study covers the operations of Soviet state security from Beria's appointment in 1938 until Stalin's death The book pays particular attention to the career of V S Abakumov head of SMERSH counterintelligence during the war and minister in charge of the MGB the predecessor of the KGB from 1946 until his removal and arrest in July 1951 The author argues that terror remained the central feature of Stalin's rule even after the Great Terror and he provides examples of how he micromanaged the repressions The book catalogs the major crimes committed by the security organs and the leading perpetrators and provides evidence that the crimes were similar to those for which the Nazi leaders were punished after the war Subjects covered include Katyn and its aftermath the arrest and execution of senior military officers the killing of political prisoners near Orel in September 1941 and the deportations of various nationalities during the war The post war period saw the Aviator and Leningrad affairs as well as the anti cosmopolitan campaign whose target was mainly Jewish intellectuals Later chapters cover Abakumov's downfall the hatching of the Mingrelian and Doctors plots and the events that followed Stalin's death. Finally, there are chapters on the fate of those who ran Stalin's machinery of terror in the last 13 years of his rule. These and other topics will be of concern to all students and scholars of Soviet history and those interested in secret police and intelligence operations.

Tito's Secret Empire William Klinger, Denis Kuljiš, 2021-12-17 This groundbreaking biography of Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia presents many startling new revelations among them his role as an international revolutionary leader and his relationship with Winston Churchill. It highlights his early years as a Comintern operative, the context for his later politics as a leader of the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM). The authors argue that in the 1940s, between the dissolution of the Comintern and the rise of NAM, Tito's influence and ambition were far greater than has been understood, extending to Italy, France, Greece, and Spain via the international Communist networks established during the Spanish Civil War. Klinger and Kuljiš disclose for the first time the connection between Tito's expulsion from the Cominform and the Rome assassination attempt on the Italian Communist Party leader Palmiro Togliatti, the man who had plotted to overthrow Tito. Tito's Secret Empire offers a pivotal contribution to our understanding of Tito as a figure of real rather than imagined global significance. This dazzlingly original book will reward all those who are interested in the history of international Communism, the Cold War, and the Non-Aligned Movement, or in Tito, the man, one of the most significant leaders of the twentieth century.

The Political Novel in the South Slavic Intercultural Context Ethem Mandić, 2023-09-18 The Political Novel in the South Slavic Intercultural Context investigates the problem of the genre of the most elusive literary genre, the political novel, and the presence of political in novels of South Slavic literature, primarily in the intercultural South Slavic social context as well as in the context of contemporary history of Southeast and Central Europe. This genre in the South Slavic inter-literary context has not yet been scientifically and systematically studied and presented, although there are critical and scientific reviews that indicate its presence in literary production. The best novels from the canonical South Slavic authors: Miroslav Krleža, Mihailo Lalić, Oskar Davico, Miodrag Bulatović, Ivo Andrić, Meša Selimović, Borislav Pekić, Mirko Kovač, Danilo Kiš, and others included in this book, thematize the political concepts of the twentieth century, so in the broadest sense they can be considered within the genre of political novel, including its subgenre variants. The political novel in South Slavic literatures in the intercultural context, in general, is a specific genre of the novel in relation to the political novel written in the West, an inter-literary phenomenon that was a critique of the Titoist regime and a literary response to the poetics and politics of social realism. It is conditioned by specific historical, political, and social movements during the twentieth century. The narrative of the political novel is a poetic resistance to ideological consciousness and a dogmatic view of reality.
