American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence McSweeney, 2016-12-05 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9 11 is a ground breaking collection of essays by some of the foremost scholars writing in the field of contemporary American film Through a dynamic critical analysis of the defining films of the turbulent post 9 11 decade the volume explores and interrogates the impact of 9 11 and the War on Terror on American cinema and culture In a vibrant discussion of films like American Sniper 2014 Zero Dark Thirty 2012 Spectre 2015 The Hateful Eight 2015 Lincoln 2012 The Mist 2007 Children of Men 2006 Edge of Tomorrow 2014 and Avengers Age of Ultron 2015 noted authors Geoff King Guy Westwell John Shelton Lawrence Ian Scott Andrew Schopp James Kendrick Sean Redmond Steffen Hantke and many others consider the power of popular film to function as a potent cultural artefact able to both reflect the defining fears and anxieties of the tumultuous era but also shape them in compelling and resonant ways Screenplay Jule Selbo, 2015-07-24 Screenplay Building Story Through Character is designed to help screenwriters turn simple or intricate ideas into exciting multidimensional film narratives with fully realized characters Based on Jule Selbo s unique 11 step structure for building story through characters the book teaches budding screenwriters the skills to focus and shape their ideas turning them into stories filled with character development strong plot elements based on obstacles and conflicts and multifaceted emotional arcs Using examples and analysis from classic and contemporary films across a range of genres from The Godfather to Guardians of the Galaxy Selbo s Screenplay takes students inside the scriptwriting process providing a broad overview for both beginners and seasoned writers alike The book is rounded out with discussion questions writing exercises a guide to the business of screenwriting in depth film breakdowns and a glossary of screenwriting terms Mission Unaccomplished Alan Nadel, 2025 Throughout his career prominent film scholar Alan Nadel has explored the idea of cultural narratives and how every social unit sees and explains the world through the stories we tell In this book he identifies how the war film genre has changed in the 21st century after 9 11 and more specifically Bush s announcement of Mission Accomplished He explains how the traditional war film narrative in which soldiers have a specific mission or objective to achieve in battle changed to one in which war is treated as a daily occupation with no larger mission that will lead even in the long run to peace He examines how films such as Saving Private Ryan at the end of the 20th century have morphed into films such as Jarhead The Hurt Locker and The Green Zone With the indefinite and ill planned occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq including the privatization of many military services through contractors this new situation has led to films in which we follow soldiers day to day lives as they go through their duties or even after they ve come home as in American Sniper Another change in war films during the Global War on Terror puts the emphasis on just surviving and getting out such as in Hacksaw Ridge which even carries over to films about for example WWII such as Dunkirk Again combatants have no specific goal other than escaping or helping others to escape or just surviving long enough to go home Nadel shows how this change has also affected non war films such as Sully Captain Phillips Deepwater Horizon and Get Out and even the television series Lost Nadel deftly moves between political history and film analysis with this wide ranging lucid examination of the changing nature and role of war films

Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper

Hot Planet, Cool Media Stephen Harper, 2023-04-21 From the Arab Spring and London riots through the era of Brexit and Trump the Covid 19 pandemic and war in Europe this volume collects eleven years of lively informative and entertaining essays and polemics focusing on media treatment of major world events political entanglements and culture war squabbles Taking aim at the distortions and omissions of news reports and cultural narratives in the Western world Stephen Harper highlights the dislocation between humanity's existential crisis and the failure of the corporate media to register its underlying causes or even to entertain any real discussion of its solution. Instead, he argues, the media blithely serve the narrow interests of a global elite that is subjecting the planet to a reign of fire in the form of endless wars and ecological destruction. Harper reviews contemporary journalistic, cinematic, and televisual coverage engaging with broad cultural topics such as cancel culture, the incel phenomenon, and Covid conspiracy theories, as well as key events like the debate between Jordan Peterson and Slavoj Žižek. For all its eclecticism, Hot Planet Cool Media has an ideological cohesiveness, rejecting popular left and right political positions and advocating the cause of socialism or communism in the Marxian sense of a classless, leaderless, moneyless society.
