American Sniper Criticism:

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Drama Films Based on Actual Events Wikipedia contributors, Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat,Leonard Engel,2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives Inconspicuously Christian Film Criticism Kenneth R. Morefield,2021-11-16 This collection presents essays that lay out the author's Christian approach to film criticism and reviews that exemplify this critic at his most perceptive Including interviews with award winning actors and directors this volume draws heavily on the author's academic expertise and his decade of experience as an acclaimed film journalist Whether examining the latest Hollywood blockbuster a topical documentary or an indie festival favorite the book subtly but carefully draws attention to how films can speak to Christians and how Christian voices can enrich the conversations around their meaning and relevance

Scripture, Cultures, and Criticism K. K. Yeo,2022-08-23 This collection of nineteen representative essays is a Festschrift written by former colleagues and students in honor of Prof Dr Robert Jewett 1933 2020 and his legacy Our hope is that future generations of Bible readers will find this textbook on biblical interpretation helpful for navigating through the strong winds of exegetical theological and hermeneutical methods Jewett's expansive research interests have inspired each author in this tribute volume each of whom has witnessed to the ways that helmsman Jewett has navigated through the often choppy ocean waters of biblical interpretation as well as the complex changing world of religion sacred texts films and popular culture psychology and sociology politics and Pauline studies

Memory and the Wars on Terror Jessica Gildersleeve, Richard Gehrmann, 2017-10-24 This edited collection aims to respond to dominant perspectives on twenty first century war by exploring how the events of 9 11 and the subsequent Wars on Terror are represented and remembered outside of the US framework Existing critical coverage ignores the meaning of these events for people nations and cultures apparently peripheral to them but which have as shown in this collection been extraordinarily affected by the social political and cultural changes these wars have wrought Adopting a literary and cultural history approach the book asks how these events resonate and continue to show effects in the rest of the world with a particular focus on Australia and Britain It argues that such reflections on the impact of the Wars on Terror help us to understand what global conflict means in a contemporary context as well as what its representative motifs might tell us about how nations like Australia and Britain perceive and construct their remembered identities on the world stage in the twenty first century In its close examination of films novels memoir visual artworks media and minority communities in the years since 2001 this collection looks at the global impacts of these events and the ways they have shaped and continue to shape Britain and Australia's relation to the rest of the world

Through the Crosshairs Roger Stahl, 2018-06-21 Now that it has become so commonplace we rarely blink an eye at camera footage framed by the crosshairs of a sniper's gun or from the perspective of a descending smart bomb But how did this weaponized gaze become the norm for depicting war and how has it influenced public perceptions Through the Crosshairs traces the genealogy of this weapon's eye view across a wide range of genres including news reports military public relations images action movies video games and social media posts As he tracks how gun camera footage has spilled from the battlefield onto the screens of everyday civilian life Roger Stahl exposes how this raw video is carefully curated and edited to promote identification with military weaponry rather than with the targeted victims He reveals how the weaponized gaze is not only a powerful propagandistic frame but also a prime site of struggle over the representation of state violence

Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2020-12-16 Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Popular Cultural Conceptions of War since World War II explores how war has been portrayed in the United States since World War II with a particular focus on an emotionally charged but rarely scrutinized topic combat death Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that most stories about war use three main building blocks melodrama adventure and horror Monnet examines how melodrama and adventure have helped make war seem acceptable to the American public by portraying combat death as a meaningful sacrifice and by making military killing look necessary and often even pleasurable Horror no longer serves its traditional purpose of making the bloody realities of war repulsive but has instead been repurposed in recent years to intensify the positivity of melodrama and adventure Thus this book offers a fascinating diagnosis of how war stories perform ideological and emotional work and why they have such a powerful grip on the American imagination Oscar Buzz and the Influence of Word of Mouth on Movie Success Owen Eagan,2020-03-27 This book explores why word of mouth is the most important determinant of a movie's success Beginning with a discussion of the enduring appeal of movies and why the box office has survived the disruption of television and will likely survive the disruption of streaming services Owen Eagan goes on to discuss the unpredictable nature of movies and ways to mitigate their risk His astute analysis sheds light on the role of film festivals film critics Oscar campaigns and word of mouth in influencing a film's success Eagan concludes with a summary of why word of mouth is the most influential among all the variables that affect a film's outcome Expertly synthesizing quantitative analyses of box office data with illuminating insights from industry experts this concise and engaging book presents findings with important implications for scholars industry insiders and marketing professionals alike

Monsters, Law, Crime Caroline Joan "Kay" S. Picart,2020-11-18 Monsters Law Crime an edited collection composed of essays written by prominent U S and international experts in Law Criminology Sociology Anthropology Communication and Film constitutes a rigorous attempt to explore fertile interdisciplinary inquiries into monsters and monster talk and law and crime This edited collection explores and updates contemporary discussions of the emergent and evolving frontiers of monster theory in relation to cutting edge research on law and crime as extensions of a Gothic Criminology This theoretical framework was initially developed by Caroline Joan Kay S Picart a Philosophy and Film professor turned Attorney and Law professor and Cecil Greek a Sociologist Picart and Greek 2008 Picart and Greek proposed a Gothic Criminology to analyze the fertile synapses connecting the real and the reel in the flow of Gothic metaphors and narratives that abound around criminological phenomena that populate not only popular culture but also academic and public policy discourses Picart's edited collection adapts the framework to focus predominantly on law and the social sciences

Transnational Film and the US Wars in Iraq & Afghanistan Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż,Marek Paryż,2025-01-15 This book offers insights into diverse non American national perspectives on the US led military interventions in Afghanistan and Iraq within the generic frames of the war film While the best known films about the post 9 11 wars in the Middle East are American productions various other national cinematographies have responded to these conflicts which is not surprising given the fact that international coalitions were formed to support the US military effort However non American war films about these US instigated interventions have received little attention outside their own national contexts This volume fills in the gap in the existing war film criticism by offering insights into how the Afghanistan War 2001 2021 and the Iraq War 2003 2011 have been represented in popular and documentary filmic productions in Iraq Afghanistan Great Britain Germany Denmark Poland Spain and Australia The contributions prove the need for transnationalism as an eye opening perspective on the war film genre by underscoring nationally specific social political and aesthetic differences alongside important correspondences between cultural productions across nations Transnational film and the US wars in Iraq and Afghanistan will be a key resource for scholars and researchers of film studies media and cultural studies film history war studies literary criticism and sociology It was originally published as a special issue of Journal of War Culture Studies The Digital Coloniality of Power Alexander I. Stigl, 2015-12-16 Trouble is afoot in Digital Culture and Nerdland These are Alexander I Stigl claims not the engine of freedom and democracy that they once were hailed to be this much is already clear in the wake of the snooping and surveillance crises that broke in recent years Digitalization is but another version of the coloniality of power and being that has been at work for decades and centuries He poses the question whether Digital Age possess the legitimacy that digitalization has claimed His response is critically realistic but he doesn't stop at a critique for criticism's sake Inspired by the ideas of decolonial scholars feminist science studies current biological and neuro cognitive research and sociologists capable of reflection and self criticism Stigl attempts to break the canvas of sociology and show that adding a third and decolonial dimension to the two dimensional sociological imagination is indeed possible He illustrates that it is possible that class rooms free speech on internet and the inequalities in the production and distribution of a new form of social capital digital cultural health care capital can be subjected to a decolonial perspective along a sociological line of inquiry if sociologists allow for relations with other disciplines and scholarship to be integrative conversations The goal of this book is not to offer results or closed arguments but to create instead platforms for thinking further opening new lines of inquiry and to argue that it is not enough to identify problems or to attempt solve the problems with politics or best practice solutions Instead he proposes we must learn to identify and make use of the opportunities that are produced by any problem Stigl's conclusion is in short that a sociology that takes the decolonial challenge and critique seriously can not be a sociological sub discipline or a sociology of a problem but it must be a sociology of opportunities Focus On: 100 Most Popular WWE Hall of Fame Wikipedia contributors,

White Supremacy and the American Media Sarah D. Nilsen, Sarah E. Turner, 2021-11-29 This volume examines the ways in which the media including film television social media and gaming has constructed and sustained a narrative of white supremacy that has entered mainstream American discourse With chapters by today's preeminent critical race scholars the book looks in particular at the ways media institutions have circulated white supremacist ideology across a wide range of platforms and texts that have had significant impact on shaping our current polarized and racialized social and political landscape Systematically scrutinizing every media platform this volume provides readers with an understanding of the ways in which media has provided institutional support for white supremacist ideology and presents them with the means to examine and analyze the persistence of these narratives within our racial discourse thus offering the necessary knowledge to challenge and transform these racially divisive and destructive narratives White Supremacy and the American Media will be

Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing's writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing's work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women's writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing's writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history

Politics and Film Daniel P. Franklin, 2016-07-18 Politics and Film examines popular movies and television shows as indicators of social and political trends to explore the political culture of the United States Updated to include the popular and controversial movies and shows American Sniper House of Cards Orange Is the New Black and Twelve Years a Slave the second edition investigates popular conceptions of government the military intelligence and terrorism punishment and policing providing valuable insights for students of film and American politics alike

Going Scapegoat David A. Buchanan, 2016-09-27 Since 9 11 war literature has become a key element in American popular culture spurring critical debate about depictions of combat Who can write war literature When can they do it This book presents a new way to closely read war narratives questioning the idea of combat gnosticism the belief that the experience of war is impossible to communicate to those who have not seen it that has dominated the discussion Adapting Kenneth Burke's scapegoat mechanism to the criticism of literature and film the author examines three novels from 2012 Ben Fountain's Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk David Abrams's FOBBIT and Kevin Powers The Yellow Birds that represent the U S military responses to 9 11

The Enemy in Contemporary Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokółowska-Paryż, 2018-08-21 Culture and conflict inevitably go hand in hand The very idea of culture is marked by the notion of difference and by the creative fraught interaction between conflicting concepts and values The same can be said of all key ideas in the study of culture such as identity and diversity memory and trauma the translation of cultures and globalization dislocation and emplacement mediation and exclusion This series publishes theoretically informed original scholarship from the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as media visual and film studies It fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue on the multiple ways in which conflict supports and constrains the production of meaning on how conflict is represented how it relates to the past and projects the present and how it frames scholarship within the humanities Editors Isabel Capeloa Gil Catholic University of
