Black Film British Cinema II Clive Nwonka, Anamik Saha, 2021-03-02 The politics of race in British screen culture over the last 30 years via a visit to the institutional textual cultural and political shifts that have occurred during this period Black Film British Cinema II considers the politics of blackness in contemporary British cinema and visual practice This second iteration of Black Film British Cinema marking over 30 years since the ground breaking ICA Documents 7 publication in 1988 continues this investigation by offering a crucial contemporary consideration of the textual institutional cultural and political shifts that have occurred from this period It focuses on the practices values and networks of collaborations that have shaped the development of black film culture and representation But what is black British film How do such films however defined produce meaning through visual culture and what are the political social and aesthetic motivations and effects How are the new forms of black British film facilitating new modes of representation authorship and exhibition Explored in the context of film aesthetics curatorship exhibition and arts practice and the politics of diversity policy Black Film British Cinema II provides the platform for new scholars thinkers and practitioners to coalesce on these central questions It is explicitly interdisciplinary operating at the intersections of film studies media and communications sociology politics and cultural studies Through a diverse range of perspectives and theoretical interventions that offer a combination of traditional chapters long form essays shorter think pieces and critical dialogues Black Film British Cinema II is a comprehensive sustained wide ranging collection that offers new framework for understanding contemporary black film practices and the cultural and creative dimensions that shape the making of blackness and race Contributors Bidisha Ashley Clark Shelley Cobb James Harvey Melanie Hoyes Maryam Jameela Kara Keeling Ozlem Koksall Rabza Lansiquot Sarita Malik Richard Martin So Mayer Alessandra Raengo Richard T Rodriguez Tess S Skadegrd Thorsen Natalie Wreyford The Greatest Navy SEAL Stories Ever Told Laurence J. Yadon, 2018-09-01 The Greatest Navy SEAL Stories Ever Told is the first book to place side by side extraordinary stories of SEALs who put their lives on the line and then go out and do it again the next day They illustrate the SEAL maxim The person who will not be defeated cannot be defeated SEALs in action men of courage and ingenuity from the rice paddies and hills of Vietnam to the plains and mountains of Afghanistan Iraq and Pakistan appear in these pages These stories cover the most significant overt and covert operations conducted since the U S Navy established Sea Land and Air Teams SEALs established in January 1962 The one common denominator in these chapters is the courage and ingenuity of those who proudly call themselves Navy SEALs Sometimes SEALs and other participants in these stories recall differing versions of the same events as recounted here for the reader to make his own judgments So far as I know no previously classified or sensitive information is revealed in these pages The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives

Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako, 2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper

Weaponized Whiteness Fran Shor, 2019-10-14 Weaponized Whiteness by Fran Shor interrogates the meanings and implications of white supremacy and more specifically white identity politics from historical and sociological perspectives By analyzing the constructions and deconstructions of white identity politics throughout U S history and up through the present these collected essays provide insight into the deep roots and resonances of white identity politics and the challenges that have emerged in particular since the 1960s

Black Veteranality Bryon L. Garner, 2025-07-25 How does military service collide with Black identity in a racially stratified America Black Veteranality is an examination of the intersection of race patriotism and military service from the perspective of Black veterans offering a robust framework for reimagining American patriotism and reframing veteran identity Black veteranality emerges through an interdisciplinary synthesis of W E B Du Bois' foundational concept of double consciousness the psychological duality Black Americans experience when negotiating racialized identity formations and Veteran Critical Theory's VCT's structural analysis of institutional power dynamics shaping military service members Through critical ethnography and narrative interviews this conceptual framework interrogates monolithic veteran narratives by documenting how Black service members simultaneously embody patriotic ideals through military service while confronting systemic racism's psychological toll and navigate what critical race scholars term the White gaze a hegemonic social mechanism that perpetuates exclusion through perpetual scrutiny of Black veterans' cultural authenticity and national belonging Essential reading for scholars of African American studies American studies veteran studies and military professions this work bridges academia and activism proving true loyalty lies in confronting systemic inequities

The US Special Forces John Prados, 2015 Eminent scholar John Prados brings his deep expertise to the subject of the US Special Forces and provides an essential primer on its various components

American Cinema of the 2010s Dennis Bingham, 2021-12-10 The 2010s might be remembered as a time of increased polarization in American life The decade contained both the Obama era and the Trump era and as the nation's political fissures widened so did the gap between the haves and have nots Hollywood reflected these divisions choosing to concentrate on big franchise blockbusters at the expense of mid budget films while new players like Netflix and Amazon offered fresh opportunities for low budget and independent filmmakers As the movie business changed films ranging from American Sniper to Get Out found ways to speak to the concerns of a divided nation The newest installment in the Screen Decades series American Cinema in the 2010s takes a close look at the memorable movies visionary filmmakers and behind the scenes drama that made this decade such an exciting time to be a moviegoer Each chapter offers an in depth examination of a specific year covering a wide variety of films from blockbuster superhero movies like Black Panther and animated films like Frozen to smaller budget biopics like I Tonya and horror films like Hereditary This volume introduces readers to a decade in which established auteurs like Quentin Tarantino were joined by an exceptionally diverse set of new talents taking American cinema in new directions

Black Intellectuals and Black Society Martin L. Kilson, 2024-07-09 This book presents the trailblazing political scientist Martin L. Kilson's essays on leading Black intellectuals of the twentieth century Kilson examines the ideas and careers of several key thinkers placing their intellectual odysseys in the context of the dynamics that shaped the Black intelligentsia more broadly He argues that the trajectory of twentieth century Black intellectuals was determined by the interplay between formal ideas and Black egalitarian struggle Beginning with the tension between W E B Du Bois's civil rights activism and Booker T. Washington's accommodationism Kilson explores the formation and evolution of Black intellectuals and activists across generations Chapters consider Horace Mann Bond's career in higher education political scientist John Aubrey Davis's transition from civil rights activist to federal policy technocrat Ralph Bunche's writings on European colonial rule in Africa Harold Cruse's classic polemic The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual E. Franklin Frazier's analysis of the Black bourgeoisie Adelaide M. Cromwell's studies of the challenges facing elite Black women and Ishmael Reed and Cornel West's advocacy as public intellectuals amid a conservative turn Offering timely and engaging insights into the lives and work of pivotal Black intellectuals and activists this book sheds new light on the abiding questions and debates in Black political thought

The Defeated and the Dead Mark Percy, 2024-07-01 How do we teach about war How can social studies teachers empower students to understand how wars are started how they are fought and how they are ended Films about war are featured in nearly all social studies classrooms across the US with practically every American teenager watching at least one historical film during their time in middle and high school Without the mandatory class viewing most of these movies would not have been seen by them otherwise Film is the medium through which most Americans learn about their national past But a passive viewing of a movie about war does little to help students learn to be critical thinkers about their country s choices In The Defeated and the Dead Teaching About War Through Film Dr Mark Percy outlines strategies and resources for teachers to incorporate movies about war into their classes in an effective thoughtful manner Employing elements of the Just War doctrine the basis for most international law and treaties this book highlights how teachers can make use of widely used films like Saving Private Ryan Platoon and Glory as well as other movies that span our nation s history from the American Revolution to modern conflicts By focusing on critical frameworks like Just War as well as featuring films both about war and the avoidance of war The Defeated and the Dead offers social studies teachers a valuable tool to approach difficult contentious topics in their classrooms

The War Comes with You Stacey Peebles, 2024-12-12 How do we tell twenty first century war stories when the wars seem to go on forever In the post 2011 surge of war stories published in America and Iraq the defining characteristic is the depiction of combat violence that crosses borders overtakes civilian spaces and disrupts chronology In The War Comes with You Enduring War in Life Fiction and Fantasy Stacey Peebles picks up where her groundbreaking first book Welcome to the Suck Narrating the American Soldier s Experience in Iraq left off Via careful readings of fiction memoir and poetry by writers such as Ben Fountain Siobhan Fallon Brian Turner and Hassan Blasim as well as recent superhero and Star Wars films Peebles argues that in the face of real and fantasy forever wars things fall apart Language identities bodies and even the stories themselves fragment These narratives suggest that people need not accept incoherence and there is a range of meaningful responses to the experience of everywhere all the time war Peebles illustrates what to do that is when war comes with you

The Hell of War Comes Home Owen W. Gilman Jr., 2018-02-09 Owen W Gilman Jr stresses the US experience of war in the twenty first century and argues that wherever and whenever there is war there will be imaginative responses to it especially the recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Since the trauma of September 11 the experience of Americans at war has been rendered honestly and fully in a wide range of texts creative nonfiction and journalism film poetry and fiction These responses Gilman contends have packed a lot of power and measure up even to World War II s literature and film Like few other books Gilman s volume studies these new texts among them Kevin Powers s debut novel The Yellow Birds and Phil Klay s short stories Redeployment along with the films The Hurt Locker American Sniper and Billy Lynn s Long Halftime Walk For perspective Gilman also looks at some touchstones from the Vietnam War Compared to a few of the big Vietnam books and films this new material has mostly been read and watched by small audiences and generated less discussion Gilman exposes the circumstances in American culture currently preventing literature and film of our recent wars from making a significant impact He contends that Americans inclination to demand distraction limits learning from these compelling responses to war in the past decade According to Gilman where there should be clarity and depth of knowledge we instead face misunderstanding and the anguish endured by veterans betrayed by war and our lack of understanding

Police in a Multicultural Society David E. Barlow, Melissa Hickman Barlow, 2018-04-10 Social political and economic relationships played key roles in the historical development of the police The authors present policing strategies from the vantage points of marginalized communities and emphasize the intersection of attitudes about class race ethnicity gender and sexual orientation with policies Police practices cannot be class neutral in a class society nor can they be race neutral or gender neutral in a racist sexist and heterosexist society The key to understanding the relationship between the police and society is to think critically about the role of power and interests The second edition includes a new chapter in the section on the police and rebellion covering recent events There is also a new chapter on Latino a police officers and an expanded chapter on LGBTQ police officers Without meaningful social change toward greater justice police reforms such as community policing and training in cultural diversity will fall short of creating an institution characterized by fairness and equality for all members of society A clear view of history is essential for understanding the challenges a more diverse police force faces in today s multicultural environment

Now Playing 2018 Darin Garard, Heidi Kirkman, Mary-Ann McHugh, 2018-08-31 American Autobiography After 9/11 Megan Brown, 2017-01-10 In the post 9 11 era a flood of memoirs has wrestled with anxieties both personal and national

Moral Injury among Returning Veterans Joshua Morris, 2021-08-23 Josh Morris privileges the voices of veterans to argue that returning soldiers need families friends and religious communities to listen to their stories with compassion to avoid amplifying the effects of moral injury When society greets returning soldiers in ways that reinforce cultural norms that frame military service as heroic rather than acknowledging its ambiguities and harmful effects it exacerbates moral injury and keeps veterans from resolving inner conflicts and coping effectively with civilian life Morris a military chaplain and veteran who served in Afghanistan knows these difficulties first hand Using stories from other veterans Morris helps us see how cultural assumptions about military service can complicate moral injury and a veteran s return home Drawing from liberation theologies ideology critique and Antonio Gramsci s advocacy for the working class the book suggests useful perspectives and spiritual care resources for military chaplains religious leaders caregivers and concerned civilians Morris argues that military chaplains are uniquely positioned to help returning soldiers resist the amplification of existing moral injury Moving from thank you for your service to liberative solidarity can galvanize resistance and make change possible

Hymns for the Fallen Todd Decker, 2017-02-28 This book describes in detail how music and sound function as a constituent part of the prestige combat film s larger work of memorialization in the cultural realm of commercial cinema As Rikke Schubart and Anne Gjelsvik note historians must deal with the complexity of history war heroism patriotism memory and the process of
