Courage James L. Hagan,2024-11-08 Suppose you were living peacefully in your own country when you were suddenly visited by foreign agents from a nearby nation who advised you that you were to no longer speak your own language English You were given ninety days to learn the language of the foreign country or suffer the consequences lose your hand or arm And if you chose to run expect a rifle bullet to strike you in your unprotected back That is exactly what Bayto Afwerki faced while exiting from his last day of school This horror story and many others will greet you as you turn each page of this heart gripping tale of two of the most impoverished nations in the world engaging in a life and death struggle fighting a thirty year war before Eritrea obtained its independence Chillingly you learn that the United Nations and all the world powers felt that Eritrea would be better off federated to Ethiopia This story will literally take you around the world to include the presence of American

Bureau of African Affairs,1981 Peasants and the Ethiopian State Getie Gelaye,2000 This study investigates Ethiopia s recent agrarian reforms as reflected in Amharic oral poetry Its innovative approach yields fascinating insights Taking an Agricultural Producers Cooperative in Yetnora East Gojjam as an example the author gives an informed and convincing account of peasant attitudes as reflected in oral poetry The study of Amharic poems and songs reveals that from a peasant perspective the 1975 land reform and the subsequent legislation involved contradictory and self defeating elements Much of the disappointment with the Derg s agrarian policies can be attributed to poorly planned and high handed state interventionism which aimed to modernise rural society without taking peasants feelings attitudes aspirations and views into due consideration
