A Woman Walks Down The Street:

Walking Down a Street Named Grace Lora Liles, 2013-07 This book was based on the true story of a woman who found her way to life on the streets through drugs and alcohol and back again transformed by the love of God and an active program of recovery This is one woman's story of redemption in which she overcomes the addictions of her heart by placing her trust future and hope faithfully in Jesus Christ From lost to saved from legalistic acts of worship to a loving relationship and trust in the Lord true repentance and true forgiveness of her own personal sins led her out of the destructive and broken life of drugs homelessness love in all the wrong places Out of the darkness of this world she finds light in the arms of God's grace and mercy Sharing her testimony in these chapters she seeks to offer faith and truth as well as hope for a life lived day by day not perfectly but perfectly saved by a God who Is Was and always will Be exactly what all of our hearts most crave Ashley Young

Women and Turkish Cinema Eylem Atakav, 2013 Since 2000 there has been a considerable effort in Turkish cinema to come to terms with the military's intervention in politics and subsequent national trauma It has resulted in an outpouring of cinematic texts This book focuses on women and Turkish cinema in the context of gender politics cultural identity and representation The central proposition of this book is that enforced depoliticisation introduced after the coup is responsible for uniting feminism and film in 1980s Turkey The feminist movement was able to flourish precisely because it was not perceived as political or politically significant In a parallel move in the films of the 1980s there was an increased tendency to focus on the individual on women's issues and lives in order to avoid the overtly political Women and Turkish Cinema provides a comprehensive view of cinema's approach to women in a country which straddles European and Middle Eastern cultural conceptions identities and religious values and will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of Film Studies Gender Studies and Middle East Studies amongst others

Doing Design Ethnography Andrew Crabtree, Mark Rouncefield, Peter Tolmie, 2012-03-14 Ethnography is now a fundamental feature of design practice taught in universities worldwide and practiced widely in commerce Despite its rise to prominence a great many competing perspectives exist and there are few practical texts to support the development of competence Doing Design Ethnography elaborates the ethnomethodological perspective on ethnography a distinctive approach that provides canonical studies of work in and for design It provides an extensive treatment of the approach with a particular slant on providing a pedagogical text that will support the development of competence for students career researchers and design practitioners It is organised around a complementary series of self-contained chapters each of which address key features of doing the job of ethnography for purposes of system design The book will be of broad appeal to students and practitioners in HCI CSCW and software engineering providing valuable insights as to how to conduct ethnography and relate it to design

Escape Into America Flavio Rivera, 2006 Living and experiencing a life of extreme poverty and knowing that beyond the hills deserts and mountains is a land of opportunity is extremely demoralizing and heart breaking Heart breaking because if you leave home to seek your dream you are leaving behind a mother a father brothers and sisters whom you love Daily you watch your mother struggle to make the best she can for her family Through prayer and advice from a local village friend and the church priest you finally decide to leave your family The journey to America is difficult and dangerous At every stop along the way lie danger and disappointment The only things that keep you going are the people you meet and a little rosary that you carry in your pocket

Passages Elizabeth Kovach, Jens Kugele, Ansgar Nünning, 2022-11-07 The study of literature and culture is marked by various distinct understandings of passages both as phenomena and critical concepts These include the anthropological notion of rites of passage the shopping arcades Passagen theorized by Walter Benjamin the Middle Passage of the Atlantic slave trade present day forms of migration and resettlement and understandings of translation and adaptation Whether structural semiotic spatial geographic temporal existential societal or institutional passages refer to processes of status change They enable entrances and exits arrivals and departures while they also foster moments of liminality and suspension They connect and thereby engender difference Passages is an exploration of passages as contexts and processes within which liminal experiences and encounters are situated It aims to foster a concept based interdisciplinary dialogue on how to approach and theorize such a term Based on the premise that concepts travel through times contexts and discursive settings a conceptual approach to passages provides the authors of this volume with the analytical tools to re focus their research questions and create a meaningful exchange across disciplinary national and linguistic boundaries Contributions from senior scholars and early career researchers whose work focuses on areas such as cultural memory performativity space media cultural translation ecocriticism gender and race utilize specific understandings of passages and liminality reflecting on their value and limits for their research

Figuring Redemption Tila L. Kellman, 2006-01-01 Can visual art help redeem one's sense of self damaged by technological society Michael Snow's work is often described as self referential meaning that it talks about the relationships between its materials and images largely ignoring relationships beyond the frame However since the work also encompasses the way in which the interior relationship of the work intersects with sight and how they together create the frame the work also must include the people looking at it This book explores how the visual art practice of Michael Snow asks the question Who of the viewers as they interpret what lies before them Much criticism of Snow objectively analyzes the material interrelationships in his work ignoring viewer participation and implicitly giving the artist control of the view However what if the who is addressed from the perspective of the viewer who is looking across a gap created by concrete representation time place experience and perhaps gender How then can it remain objective Following on writers such as Martin Heidegger Walter Benjamin Paul Ricoeur Jacques Derrida and Mikkel Borch Jacobsen Figuring Redemption questions the proposal that the contemporary sense of self is fallen as a result of modern technology but can be redeemed in some part by certain kinds of visual art Original in its positioning of interpretive and critical writing on the side of an embodied viewer this book rejuvenates Snow criticism by going beyond discussions of materials and operation or of loss and distancing due to mediation By alternating personal performance writing with objective analysis the text participates in the destabilizing process of questioning self recognition that Snow s practice initiates Isobel and Emile Alan Reed,2010-04-11 Told in a stark minimalist voice Isobel and Emile is the hypnotizing story of two lovers without each other It is about staying true to what they hold dear no matter that it is hopeless and that nothing will ever come of it because sometimes that is all that is left And sometimes it is enough Report United States. Congress. House, A Million Mosquito Bites H. E. Christoff,2013-05 If you have ever considered packing it all up and moving someplace tropical this book offers a glimpse of one woman s move from Canada to a remote town in Honduras Hilda shares her personal journal of maddening often humorous daily life This book shares her challenges cooking gardening and learning to live in a new country along with the self discovery that comes from her journey Walk Down the Aisle: The Wedding Stories of 3 Generations of Women Walking With God Paula Ann Groetzinger Reid,2017-10-05 This is the story of 3 generations of women in my family women walking with God The story line is based on facts but purposely omits many details of the lives of the characters It has been written this way so as not to get bogged down in details and so the reader can read between the lines of the story can virtually replace the photos with those from their own life s story or that of a friend or relative The book is only unique in the specifics not in the generalities of how God works in the lives of His children He is the same yesterday today and forever How one sees Him working in the lives of the characters in this book is the same way He can work in the life of the Reader An alternate title could have been Everything in My Life Seemed to Be Going Wrong But God This saga is told from the 3rd person perspective of a wise old Aunt telling a story to a group of young women preparing for marriage

Timothy Asch and Ethnographic Film E.D Lewis,2004-02-24 Timothy Asch 1932 1994 was probably the greatest ethnographic filmmaker of the latter twentieth century and one of the best known anthropologists of his generation He worked with Margaret Mead John Marshall and Napoleon Chagnon lived and filmed on every continent except Antarctica and won numerous international prizes His work which includes The Ax Fight and more than 50 other films of the Yanomam Indians of Venezuela comprises the most widely used resource in the teaching of anthropology today Timothy Asch and Ethnographic Film combines a biographical overview of Asch s life with theoretical and critical perspectives giving a definitive guide to his background aims and ideas methodology and major projects Beautifully illustrated with 60 photos and featuring articles from many of Asch s friends colleagues and collaborators as well as an important interview with Asch himself it is an ideal introduction to his work and to a range of key issues in ethnographic film The Winnowing Ann R.T. Murphy,2018-05-04 From all outward appearances Mila Lohman had it all Well educated a successful husband two beautiful daughters successfully on their own and a home in an upscale part of the city She had the good life Paul Lohman was restless Always looking forward to new vistas his sudden announcement that he d left his government position and joined the CIA was the first of many stunning blows to the marriage Mila was dumbfounded and hurt Thus began Paul s journey through numerous failed business starts that ate through their savings and caused great strain on the marriage Mila worked long hard hours while Paul grew more disinterested and restless by the minute But once again Paul had a plan This time it was the big one For Paul this time was different This time he was going to show them all He was going to walk away with more money than he had ever dreamed of What happened next was a chain of events that no one could have predicted A spellbinding tale of horrific tragedy intrigue and a rare love story you won't forget Out in the Storm Gail A.
