Victorian Year Book ,1874 Australian Books in Print ,1987 Assessment and Data Systems in Early Childhood Settings Claire McLachlan,Tara McLaughlin,Sue Cherrington,Karyn Aspden,2023-01-01 This book describes the use of data systems in early childhood settings birth to eight years for the purposes of assessment evaluation and curriculum planning It presents an international collection of research examining ways in which teachers and researchers have revisited notions of what constitutes effective assessment revised ways in which they assess children s learning and development and use the knowledge gained for curriculum planning It offers insights into contemporary research on how teachers and children are engaging with data systems as part of effective assessment and how these approaches influence practice This book presents recent theorizing and examples of research which have investigated innovative approaches to assessment using data systems in early years settings It represents both early childhood and junior primary contexts and includes research which focusses on teachers perspectives and reflections on use of data systems It also examines research which reflects on what children gain from being involved in these data systems

Research in Education ,1973 Doing Anthropology Simone Dennis,Andrew Dawson,2022-12-30 This textbook is written by well established anthropology professors for and with their undergraduate students It explores what anthropological thinking is what anthropological approaches are and how these are applied in real world settings It provides a thorough introduction to key methods theories and the disciplinary value of contemporary anthropology This book deliberately steps beyond the standard textbook format Undergraduate students reveal the processes by which they came to understand and apply anthropological knowledge using everyday experiences and common life events as examples while also showcasing the practical learning that student authors produced as a result of understanding and operationalising those processes This fresh take showcases what can be done with anthropological knowledge not what you can do with anthropology when you ve achieved the rank of professor This book is accompanied by practical exercises and podcasts that relate to each of the chapters Podcasts extend beyond the textbook as live resources with episodes on a regular basis This is an accessible lively active text that prepares students to outbound disciplinary knowledge This unique and engaging textbook will be core reading for undergraduate anthropology students as well as a source of teaching inspiration for lecturers of undergraduate anthropology units It would also be a useful text for undergraduate students conducting ethnographic research

Early Modern Women's Manuscript Writing Jonathan Gibson,2017-03-02 Because print publishing was often neither possible nor desirable for women in the early modern period in order to understand the range of writing by women and indeed women's literary history itself it is important that scholars consider women's writing in manuscript. Since the body of critical studies on women's writing for the most part prioritizes print over manuscript, this essay collection provides an essential corrective. The essays in this volume discuss many of the ways in which women participated in early modern manuscript culture. The manuscripts studied by the contributors originated in a wide range of different milieux including the royal court, the universities, gentry and aristocratic households in England and Ireland, and French convents. Their contents are similarly varied: original and transcribed secular and devotional verse, religious meditations, letters, moral precepts in French and English, and recipes are among the genres represented. Emphasizing the manuscripts' social, political, and religious contexts, the contributors challenge commonly held notions about women's writing in English in the early modern period and bring to light many women whose work has not been considered before.

Literacy in Australia Amy Seely Flint, Mark Vicars, Amanda Muscat, Maria Bennet, Robyn Ewing, Kylie Shaw, Lisa Kervin, Jessica Mantei, Jeanne Iorio, Catherine Hamm, Mitchell Parker, Marcelle Cacciattolo, Lawry Mahon, Sarah Tartakover, 2024-02-20. Infused with our authors' personal experiences, teaching Literacy in Australia 4th Edition is delivered as a full colour printed textbook with an interactive eBook code included. With a prioritised focus on the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures featured throughout the text and a greater focus on using ICT in the classroom, pre-service teachers will be well equipped with the knowledge of what kinds of activities they can include in and out of the classroom for an enriching learning experience for their students.

The Practice of Love Teresa De Lauretis, 1994. Between 1970 and now, in conjunction with earlier and contemporaneous social movements, feminism and poststructuralism have made way for the rise of minority discourse and gay and lesbian studies as fields of scholarly and theoretical research. Conceived from the vantage point of the latter, this book returns to Freudian psychoanalysis and semiotics to the questions of representation, subjectivity, desire, and their relations to social signification and material reality.

Feminism, Culture and Embodied Practice Carolyn Pedwell, 2010-05-07. This book examines how cross-cultural comparisons of embodied practices function as a rhetorical device with particular theoretical social and political effects in a range of contemporary feminist texts.

A New Matrix for Modernism Nelljean Rice, 2013-10-11. Many studies of poetic modernism focus on the avatars of High Modernism: Eliot, Pound, and Yeats, who created a critical coterie based on culture and class. A New Matrix for Modernism introduces a matrilineage for modernism that traces a distinct women's poetic voice from the Brontë sisters through Alice Meynell to modernists Charlotte Mew and Anna Wickham, who combine feminist content with an innovative exploration of formalist prosody. Shifting emphasis from woman to child, mother to daughter, and urbs to suburb, relocating modernism's matrilingua to the boundaries of London society and culture, A New Matrix for Modernism ranges widely among architecture, mental illness, Fabianism, Positivism, Theosophy, women's suffrage and education, to a new house for modernism, a woman's place of secret joys and sorrows. Well researched yet passionate, this book will appeal to both the scholar and the generalist interested.
