Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards Herbert Kronke, Patricia Nacimiento, Dirk Otto, Nicola Christine Port, 2024-12-05 Few instruments in international law have become as clearly and successfully established worldwide as the 1958 New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards. It has continued to prove itself throughout the fourteen years since the publication of the first edition of this preeminent commentary a period during which the Convention's scope and application have been greatly augmented by numerous court decisions rendered in jurisdictions around the globe and regarding arbitral awards resulting from both commercial and investor State disputes as well as by abundant legal scholarship calling for an updated edition. The second edition retains the book's article by article format both text and detailed analysis including each provision's theoretical underpinnings and practical application in a wide variety of jurisdictions around the world. The editors have assembled a group of authors some already involved in the first edition some new each of them an experienced practitioner in the field of international arbitration in their particular country and deeply conversant with the leading and most recent arbitrations and relevant court decisions in their domestic case law. The commentary includes updated and expanded coverage of such aspects of arbitration practice as the following: application by domestic courts of the grounds for refusal of recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards; use of reservations made by Contracting States; distinctions between recognition sought at the seat of the arbitration and outside the seat; safeguarding due process standards; the more favourable rights principle embodied in Article VII; 1 forum shopping and the role of formalities and formalism. To continue to provide a truly international view of how the Convention functions in practice the analysis thoroughly covers the major recent issues that have arisen in its application and their resolutions in diverse cases. The end result is an invaluable work that will prove enormously useful to all international commercial arbitration practitioners and scholars regardless of location.

Approaches Robinson Ramírez-Vélez, Mikel Izquierdo, 2019-10-09 Proportionality and Facts in Constitutional Adjudication Anne Carter, 2022-01-27 This book considers the relationship between proportionality and facts in constitutional adjudication. Analysing where facts arise within each of the three stages of the structured proportionality test: suitability, necessity and balancing, it considers the nature of these facts vis-à-vis the facts that arise in the course of ordinary litigation. The book's central focus is on how proportionality has been applied by courts in practice and it draws on the comparative experience of four jurisdictions across a range of legal systems. The central case study of the book is Australia where the embryonic and contested nature of proportionality means it provides an illuminating study of how facts can inform the framing of constitutional tests. The rich proportionality jurisprudence from Germany, Canada and South Africa is used to contextualise the approach of the High Court of Australia and to identify future directions for proportionality in Australia at a time when the doctrine is in its formative stages. The book has three broad aims. First, it considers the role of facts within proportionality reasoning Second it offers procedural insights into fact finding in constitutional litigation Third the book s analysis of the dynamic Australian case law on proportionality means it also serves to clarify the nature and status of proportionality in Australia at a critical moment Since the 2015 decision of McCloy v New South Wales where four justices supported the introduction of a structured three part test of proportionality the Court has continued to disagree about the utility of such a test These developments mean that this book with its doctrinal and comparative approach is particularly timely
