Proceedings of the 13th International Conference Mathematics Education in a Connected World Alan Rogerson, 2015-07-01 This volume contains the papers presented at the International Conference on Mathematics Education in a Connected World held from September 16-21, 2015 in Catania, Italy. The Conference was organized by The Mathematics Education for the Future Project, an international educational project founded in 1986. Primary Mathematics for Trainee Teachers Marcus Witt, 2014-11-19 With chapter sequencing following the new Curriculum, this book supports trainee Primary school teachers to make use of the opportunities presented in the new National Curriculum for effective and engaging Mathematics teaching. Covering all of the areas of the new Curriculum for primary mathematics and offering insight into effective teaching, this book helps students connect what they need to teach with how it can be taught. Exploring opportunities in the new curriculum for creative and imaginative teaching, it shows readers how to capitalize on opportunities to develop children's reasoning and problem-solving skills. It explores how to make links between mathematics and children's lived experiences to enhance their learning and enables trainees to develop an ability to plan with discernment, making the most of existing thinking and research as well as building confidence in adapting and customizing ideas. Includes the full National Curriculum Programme of Study for Maths, key stages 1 and 2, as a useful reference for trainee teachers. Other books in this series include Primary English for Trainee Teachers. EHF Science Olympiad Solved Question Paper Class 8 (2014) EHF Learning Media Pvt Ltd, Top 10 teachers, This will help the aspirants to assess the pattern of the real examination paper practice and prepare for cracking the top ranks The Perfect Bet Adam Kucharski, 2016-05-05 Gamblers have been trying to figure out how to game the system since our ancestors first made wagers over dice fashioned from knucklebones. In revolutionary Paris, the martingale strategy was rumoured to lead to foolproof success at roulette. Today, professional gamblers are using cutting-edge techniques to tilt the odds in their favour. Science is giving us the competitive edge over opponents, casinos, and bookmakers. But is there such a thing as a perfect bet? The Perfect Bet looks beyond probability and statistics to examine how wagers have inspired a plethora of new disciplines spanning chaos theory, machine learning, and game theory, which are not just revolutionising gambling but changing our fundamental notions about chance, randomness, and luck. Explaining why poker is gaming's last bastion of human superiority over AI, how methods originally developed for the US nuclear programme are helping pundits predict sports results, and why a new breed of algorithms are losing banks millions, The Perfect Bet has the inside track on any wager you'd care to place.

The Linguistic Challenge of the Transition to Secondary School Alice Deignan,Duygu Candarli,Florence Oxley,2022-12-30 This book provides a unique analysis and description of the linguistic challenges faced by school students as they move from primary to secondary school a major transition which some students struggle with emotionally and academically The study draws on a bespoke corpus of 2 5 million words of written materials and transcribed classroom recordings provided by the project s partner schools combines quantitative and qualitative approaches to the corpus data to explore linguistic variation across school levels registers and subjects describes the procedures of corpus compilation and analysis of written and spoken academic language showing how modern corpus tools can be applied to this far reaching social and educational issue uncovers differences and similarities between the academic language that school children are exposed to at primary and secondary school contrasting this against the backdrop of the non academic language that they encounter outside school This book is important reading for advanced students and researchers in corpus linguistics applied linguistics and teacher education It carries implications for policymakers and schools looking to support students at this critical point in their schooling The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Policy-Making in the GCC Neil Quilliam, Mark C. Thompson, 2019-10-31 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike

Wasted Georgia Gould, 2015-03-05 Young people growing up in Britain today face a narrowing job market high housing costs and the prospect of a lifetime of hard work with less reward The ideas of social responsibility that arose after the Second World War are straining under the demands of a globalised world Too often public debate divides Britain's youth into the feral rats of the London riots and the posh boys of Eton Business leaders rail at the entitled and unemployable young people they are asked to give jobs to politicians complain about apathetic teens and commentators devote endless column inches to the issue of a self obsessed generation Georgia Gould travelled across the UK to uncover the values aspirations and challenges of young Brits from job seekers in Bradford and working class families in Glasgow's Easterhouse estate to student protesters at Sussex University and young entrepreneurs in London such as YouTube sensation Jamal Edwards If we show young people that we trust them with the future of our country we will find that they are ready to rise to the challenge This timely work points the way towards a new social contract and gives a voice to young Britain <http://bit.ly/YoungBritain>
